Text in red is unsubstantiated at this printing, or claimed but not supported by proof, or is a question I am asking for possible future answer, or is in some other way to be considered temporary. An advantage of electronic publishing is that I can continue to improve and update the text while the mass of valid information is made available now. It is important therefore that citations mention the version number, that red items not be cited, and that the color be preserved.

LINEAGE LIST NOTATION

To facilitate stepping “backward” through the genealogy, I utilize one small addition to standard (actually “modified”) Register format. A leading subscript to a person in a lineage list is the person number for that individual in this work. For example (a fictitious one), Caleb⁶ Riggs (₅₃Joseph⁵, Joseph⁴, Edward³, Edward², Edward¹) was son of person 53, Joseph⁵ Riggs (₂₁Joseph⁴, Edward³, Edward², Edward¹), who in turn was son of person 21, Joseph⁴ Riggs, and so forth. This technique may be applied to any person in a lineage list. However, to reduce visual clutter, I will use it here for at most one person per lineage list, usually the first.

A superscript asterisk () indicates the first person in a lineage list who is not genetically related to the next older person in the list. For example (also fictitious), Nathan^{13} Knoll (₁₉₁Martha¹², Edward¹¹, Theodore¹⁰, Edward⁹, Elias⁸, Elias⁷, Preserve⁶, Zebulon⁵, ?Joseph⁴, Edward³, Edward², Edward¹) was an adopted son of Martha¹² Riggs. Note also the question mark (?) in this lineage list, indicating that the father-son relationship of Joseph⁴ and Zebulon⁵ has not been proved.

N.B. The National Genealogical Society has now carefully codified modified Register format, mentioned above, so it is often called NGSQ format. Whatever the nomenclature, the above paragraphs describe departures from it.

METHODOLOGY AND STYLE NOTES

Unsourcesd material. Some claims without accompanying sources are important to preserve, as hints to future researchers or simply to indicate that I am aware of commonly claimed dates, names, or places, but am not certain of them. I enter these in footnotes and not in the main text. I do not always explicitly flag these claims as unsourced, but they should be understood as such by their presence in the footnotes only. This type of information often comes from compiled, but unfortunately unsourced, genealogies that have the appearance, to me at least, of being well researched and based on solid evidence. The footnote hint might inspire a future researcher to find the elusive evidence, whereas I had not done so by the time this book went to press.

Census litany. Rather than trying to be creative on each of hundreds of census readings, I have chosen to state them with a common “litany.” To make census litanies easy to spot, I usually introduce each one with the year. For example, a reading from the U.S. census for 1900 will begin “In 1900”

Online sources. I have made much use of online sources, usually secondary, such as the listing of gravestones in a particular cemetery. The problem with this practice is the supposed ephemeral nature of the web. Many online sources may simply disappear from the web over time, or change addresses at least. I have therefore made a copy of every webpage used in this work and archived it for future reference. Very notable exceptions are the many databases available from major servers, such as <Ancestry.com>, which I assume, with some trepidation, will be permanently available by some means. The URL for a website is identified by enclosing < > brackets. When a URL needs to wrap at the end of a line for good visual appearance, I have inserted a hyphen in an appropriate location. This line-breaking hyphen should be omitted, of course, when the URL is used as an internet address.

Abbreviations. To fit this book into one bound volume, I have resorted to abbreviations. With one exception, I always abbreviate state names and month names. I do not abbreviate state names in the main text that stand alone. However, state names in footnotes are always abbreviated, even in the titles of books.

I do not abbreviate anything in a quotation. An abbreviation in a quotation is present in the original.

I use succinct forms for the sources in footnotes. The bibliography should be consulted for full expansion of a source reference. See the abbreviations section of the front matter for the full list of abbreviations used in the census references. In all cases, the census was read from <Ancestry.com>, and the roll numbers correspond to the microfilm series used by that organization.

Verb tenses. Past tense is normally used, but a record is described in the present—e.g., Joe Riggs was born in 1836, but a death certificate for Joe Riggs states that he was born in 1836.

DNA EVIDENCE

A new (6 May 2016) DNA test has been completed that reveals yet another Hargreaves family from the same part of the world, namely the Padiham, Whalley, Accrington, Burnley area of Lancashire, England, and a nearby region of the West Riding of Yorkshire. Following are the Y-chromosome DNA signatures of Tony (from John), Alan (from Richard), Barrett (from Stephen), Ken (from Robert), and the new one, Matthew (from Henry) Hargreaves. The code a = 1, b = 2, . . . , z = 26, A = 27, B = 28, . . . , Z = 52, shortens the list of 67 numbers returned for each DNA test.

The following string is compiled from the measured signatures by simply using the letter that gets a majority vote at each position. This string is not particularly interesting scientifically but it serves as a convenient way to see how the measured signatures differ from one another. We'll call this string the modal string:

nwojookmknIEohjkkzntzknokisunmqrHMIj:khophkjhjiluvokllmimAtkmllkllk.

The locations (markers) where the signatures below differ from the modal string above are shown in blue. The distance from the modal string follows each, within parentheses:

nwojookmknIEohjkkzntzkknokisunnrHMIj:khophkjhjiluvokllmimAtkmllkllk (2).

See my book John Hargreaves of Lancashire for the genealogy of Tony's family. See my book Henry Hargreaves (1811–1899), Immigrant in 1840 to New South Wales, Australia, from Lancashire, England, and His Family for the genealogy of Alan's family. See my book Stephen Hargreaves (c1768–), of Barnoldswick, Yorkshire, England, and His Family for the genealogies of Barrett and Ken. See this book for Matthew's genealogy.

The distances here are not particularly meaningful other than to show how distant these Hargreaves males are from one another. A distance of 2 or 3 or less on 67 markers is considered a match. (But the "person" each differs from is fictitious, generated by majority vote at each position). Also, the distance number does not tell us how far one actual person is from another. For example, although both Tony and Matthew are distance 2 from the modal string, they are distance 5 from one another. In summary, these signatures are sufficiently far from one another to preclude an easy declaration of kinship. They are close enough, and derive geographically from the same area, that we can easily imagine that they were all kin in the distant past, say the 1300s or 1400s, perhaps deriving from a single Hargreaves patriarch. But we cannot state this for certain.

HENRY HARGREAVES AND HIS CANADIAN FAMILY

Habergham-All-Saints, Habergham Eaves, Lancashire,^[30] NANCY ASPDEN, who was born in Whalley, Lancashire, and baptised 23 July 1826, St. Leonard, Langho (about halfway between Whalley and Blackburn), Lancashire,^[31] daughter of William and Susanna (—) Aspden. He may have married (3) MAREY —, born about 1831, England, but “Marey” might be an error for Nancy. However her age doesn’t quite fit Nancy’s. On the other hand Nancy appears to have modified her age when she immigrated because she is consistently thereafter born about 1831.

In 1861 William Henry Hargreaves, 35, an engraver to calico printers born in Church, Lancashire, resided in New Accrington, Lancashire, with his wife, Nancy, 34, born Whalley, Lancashire, with son, William, 6, and daughters, Clara, 4, and Elizabeth, 2, all three born in Accrington, Lancashire.^[32]

In 1871 William “Hargraves,” 45, arrived in Ontario, Canada.^[33]

In 1871 William H. “Hargraves,” 45, an agent born in England, resided in Perth, Lanark South, Ont., Canada, with his wife, Marey, 40, born in England, and with William, 14, Clara, 12, “Elisabeth,” 10, and Arthur James, 6, all born in England, all Baptists.^[34]

In 1876 “Wm.” H. Hargreaves was a registered voter in London Twp., Ont.^[35]

In 1877 William Hargreaves resided in London, Perth, Ont.^[36]

In 1881 Nancy Hargreaves, 40 [sic], a widow born in England, resided in London East, Middlesex East Riding, Ont., Canada, with Clara, 22, a clerk, Elizabeth, 20, a clerk, and Arthur James, 16, a law clerk, all born in England, all Baptists.^[37]

Children of the first marriage, to Elizabeth:

- + 25 i WILLIAM H.³ HARGREAVES, born 24 Mar. 1855 or 1856, Accrington, Lancashire, married MARY ANN/ANNIE JONES, and had three children.
- 26 ii CLARA³ HARGREAVES, born about 1857, Accrington, Lancashire.
- 27 iii ELIZABETH³ HARGREAVES, born about 1859, Accrington, Lancashire.

Child of the second marriage, to Nancy:

- + 28 iv ARTHUR JAMES³ HARGREAVES, born about 1864, England, married BRIDGET ANN[A] O’KEEFE, and had two children.

HENRY HARGREAVES AND HIS CANADIAN FAMILY

THIRD GENERATION

25. WILLIAM H.³ HARGREAVES (William Henry², Henry¹)^[38] was born 24 Mar. 1855 or 1856, Accrington, Lancashire, and died 30 May 1901, Rat Portage, Ontario, Canada.^[39] He married MARY ANN/ANNIE JONES, who was born 17 Jan. 1855, Shrewsbury, Shropshire, England,^[40] daughter of Evan and Jane (Roberts) Jones,^[41] and died 5 Feb. 1947, age 92, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.^[42]

In 1881 “W^m H^y” Hargreaves, 25, a salesman born in England, resided in Winnipeg, Selkirk Dist., Manitoba, with his wife, Annie, 24, born in England, both Baptists.^[43]

In 1891 “W^m” Hargreaves, 37, a commercial traveler (hardware) born in England of England natives, resided in Winnipeg, Man., Canada, with his wife, Annie, 34, born in England of England natives, and with his son, “Even,” 2, born in Manitoba, Nancy, 60, a widow, a lodger born in England of England natives, and “Lizie,” 30, a lodger born in England of England natives, all Baptists.^[44] Nancy might be his (step)mother, and Lizie might be his sister, Elizabeth. In both cases the ages don’t quite fit birth records, but they do fit the 1871 census (assuming Nancy was 50, not 40, then).

In 1901 William H. Hargreaves, 46, a merchant of paints and oils born 24 Mar. 1855 in England, resided in Winnipeg, Man., Canada, with his wife, Annie, 42, born 17 Jan. 1859 in England, and with his sons, William E., 13, born 9 July 1887 in Manitoba, and “Douglas J.,” 7, born 12 Jan. 1894 in Manitoba, all Baptists.^[45] Again, there seem to have been liberties taken with ages, depressed by one or two years consistently, except perhaps with Douglas.

An obituary for William:

Suicide of Two Winnipeg Men

William Hargreaves and Richard Davidson Take Their Own Lives

The sad news of the death of Mr. William Hargreaves, a well known resident of Winnipeg, at the Hilliard House, Rat Portage, was received in the city last night. The deceased had been ill there for a few days and his death occurred through injuries inflicted by his own hand, supposed to have been committed while he was suffering from a temporary aberration of the mind. He recently returned from a business trip to the coast, where he had been in the interests of the G. F. Stephens Co., of which firm he was vice president, and went to Rat Portage early this week. He had not been feeling well on his recent trip west, suffering from the after effects of an attack of grippe, and of late was subject to severe nervous headaches and insomnia. He was under medical treatment for his indisposition, but otherwise of unusually strong and vigorous constitution. He was a man of model habits, a total abstainer and a prominent member of the First Baptist church of this city.

Mr. Hargreaves was one of the most widely known of Winnipeg commercial travellers and was past chief consul of the U. C. T.'s and past president of the N. W. C. T. A. He was an old time resident of Winnipeg and came west in 1878 or 1879. He had been connected with the G. F. Stephens Co. for many years and at one time represented several well known eastern firms in the west. He was born near Manchester, England, and came to Canada at an early age and lived for some time at Perth, Ont. Deceased was about 45 years of age and leaves a wife and two young sons, residing on Kennedy street. . . .^[46]

On 14 June 1901, Mary Ann Hargreaves of Winnipeg, the widow of William Hargreaves, late of Winnipeg, who died on or about 31 May 1901 at Rat Portage, Ont., was made administrator of his estate.^[47]
