Text in red is unsubstantiated at this printing, or claimed but not supported by proof, or is a question I am asking for possible future answer, or is in some other way to be considered temporary. An advantage of electronic publishing is that I can continue to improve and update the text while the mass of valid information is made available now. It is important therefore that citations mention the version number, that red items not be cited, and that the color be preserved.

Text in blue is unproved too, but comes from the Irene Hargreaves book and hence deemed worthy of consideration if obviously supplied by some relative, somehow, and sometime. Strictly speaking, items in blue await formal proof too.

My mother is a 4th-generation descendant of Henry Hargreaves of Lancashire, immigrant to Australia, of possible relation to the Hargreaves of this study, living in approximately the same area of Lancashire at the same time.

LINEAGE LIST NOTATION

To facilitate stepping “backward” through the genealogy, I utilize one small addition to standard (actually “modified”) Register format. A leading subscript to a person in a lineage list is the person number for that individual in this work. For example (a fictitious one), Caleb\(^6\) Riggs (\(53\) Joseph\(^5\), Joseph\(^4\), Edward\(^3\), Edward\(^2\), Edward\(^1\)) was son of person 53, Joseph\(^5\) Riggs (\(52\) Joseph\(^4\), Edward\(^3\), Edward\(^2\), Edward\(^1\)), who in turn was son of person 21, Joseph\(^4\) Riggs, and so forth. This technique may be applied to any person in a lineage list. However, to reduce visual clutter, I will use it here for at most one person per lineage list, usually the first.

A superscript asterisk (*) indicates the first person in a lineage list who is not genetically related to the next older person in the list. For example (also fictitious), Nathan\(^{13}\) Knoll (\(19\) Martha\(^{12}\), Edward\(^{11}\), Theodore\(^{10}\), Edward\(^9\), Elias\(^8\), Elias\(^7\), Preserve\(^6\), Zebulon\(^5\), Joseph\(^4\), Edward\(^3\), Edward\(^2\), Edward\(^1\)) was an adopted son of Martha\(^{12}\) Riggs. Note also the question mark (?) in this lineage list, indicating that the father-son relationship of Joseph\(^4\) and Zebulon\(^5\) has not been proved.

N.B. The National Genealogical Society has now carefully codified modified Register format, mentioned above, so it is often called NGSQ format. Whatever the nomenclature, the above paragraphs describe departures from it.
METHODOLOGY AND STYLE NOTES

Unsourced material. Some claims without accompanying sources are important to preserve, as hints to future researchers or simply to indicate that I am aware of commonly claimed dates, names, or places, but am not certain of them. I enter these in footnotes and not in the main text. I do not always explicitly flag these claims as unsourced, but they should be understood as such by their presence in the footnotes only. This type of information often comes from compiled, but unfortunately unsourced, genealogies that have the appearance, to me at least, of being well researched and based on solid evidence. The footnote hint might inspire a future researcher to find the elusive evidence, whereas I had not done so by the time this book went to press.

Census litany. Rather than trying to be creative on each of hundreds of census readings, I have chosen to state them with a common “litany.” To make census litanies easy to spot, I usually introduce each one with the year. For example, a reading from the U.S. census for 1900 will begin “In 1900 . . . .”

Online sources. I have made much use of online sources, usually secondary, such as the listing of gravestones in a particular cemetery. The problem with this practice is the supposed ephemeral nature of the web. Many online sources may simply disappear from the web over time, or change addresses at least. I have therefore made a copy of every webpage used in this work and archived it for future reference. Very notable exceptions are the many databases available from major servers, such as <Ancestry.com>, which I assume, with some trepidation, will be permanently available by some means. The URL for a website is identified by enclosing < > brackets. When a URL needs to wrap at the end of a line for good visual appearance, I have inserted a hyphen in an appropriate location. This line-breaking hyphen should be omitted, of course, when the URL is used as an internet address.

Abbreviations. To fit this book into one bound volume, I have resorted to abbreviations. With one exception, I always abbreviate state names and month names. I do not abbreviate state names in the main text that stand alone. However, state names in footnotes are always ab-abbreviated, even in the titles of books.

I do not abbreviate anything in a quotation. An abbreviation in a quotation is present in the original.

I use succinct forms for the sources in footnotes. The bibliography should be consulted for full expansion of a source reference. See the ab-abbreviations section of the front matter for the full list of abbreviations used in the census references. In all cases, the census was read from <Ancestry.com>, and the roll numbers correspond to the microfilm series used by that organization.

Verb tenses. Past tense is normally used, but a record is described in the present—e.g., Joe Riggs was born in 1836, but a death certificate for Joe Riggs states that he was born in 1836.
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

To Irene Hargreaves for her book and to the family members who assisted her with the genealogy it contains. And to Barrett Hargreaves and his book. (See bibliography for details of both books.) And most recently to Ken Hargreaves who helped with the Hargreaves branch in the appendix.
One of the earliest computer graphics systems in the world was DAC-1 (Design Augmented by Computers) at General Motors Research, published in 1964. The first author of the paper was Barrett Hargreaves. This book is devoted to discovering if he might have been related to either the Henry Hargreaves family (mine) or the John Hargreaves family both of Lancashire. While creating this genealogy, I discovered a more extensive one in the Family History Library in Salt Lake City by Irene Hargreaves, then Barrett Hargreaves himself of DAC-1 fame sent me Oct. 2014 a copy of Irene’s book. I have fleshed out my genealogy with hers in the places indicated (or vice versa).

N.B. Barnoldswick (known locally as Barlick) is 11 miles northeast of Padiham (ancestral home of the Henry Hargreaves family), Lancashire, separated more-or-less by Pendle Hill. The shortest modern road between them passes from Padiham through Higham (ancestral home of the John Hargreaves family) along Barrowford Road to Barrowford, then along Barnoldswick Road to Barnoldswick. An alternate route passes through Burnley, then Colne, then to Barnoldswick. Barnoldswick is named in the Domesday Book (as Bernulfsuuic) and was formerly part of the West Riding of Yorkshire. It is now in the West Craven area of the Borough of Pendle in Lancashire. It’s the highest town on the Leeds and Liverpool Canal. So, although Barnoldswick was originally in Yorkshire, and is so listed in this book, it is now in Lancashire.

Note re DNA: A DNA test has been completed that compared a living descendant of John Hargreaves (probably he baptized 30 May 1708, Padiham, Lancashire) to a living descendant of Richard Hargreaves (who married 23 Oct. 1809, Padiham). So both patriarchs were of the Padiham/Burnley area. The DNA test yielded interesting results, indicating a possible genetic connection. Following are the Y-chromosome DNA signatures of Tony (from John) and Alan (from Richard), where a = 1, b = 2, , , , Z = 26, A = 27, B = 28, , , , Z = 52, is used to shorten the list of 67 numbers. The locations (markers) where the two signature differ are shown in blue:

Tony Francis Hargreaves (David Terence, Vivian, Joseph, Joshua Hartley, , , John, John, John, Robert, John):

Alan William Hargreaves (Colin Harvey James, James Israel, James, Henry William, Richard):

So Tony and Alan match at 60 of 67 markers. This is not enough to guarantee a MRCA = Most Recent Common Ancestor within historical time, but probabilities give a 96% chance of sharing an MRCA within 28 generations with this amount of (mis)matching. At 25 years per generation, that implies a MRCA about seven centuries ago. So sometime after about 1300 Tony and Alan shared a common ancestor, with high probability. Another way to say this is that there probably was one Hargreaves patriarch several centuries ago from whom all the Hargreaveses in or from the Padham/Burnley area descend. This is a theory only, as we have only two samples.

I now have a DNA sample from the Stephen Hargreaves family for comparison. Indeed, Barrett\textsuperscript{6} Hargreaves has contributed a sample. The blue markers are as before. The red markers show where Barrett's signature differs uniquely from the other two.

Barrett\textsuperscript{6} Hargreaves (\textsuperscript{5}Louis Herbert\textsuperscript{5}, William\textsuperscript{4}, William\textsuperscript{3}, James\textsuperscript{2}, Stephen\textsuperscript{1}):

\texttt{nwojookmknln}Dohjkkzntzknnokisunmr\texttt{H}mljkjokjhi\texttt{l}uvokn\texttt{i}mimAtkmklkllk.

See this book for Barrett's genealogy. Notice that Barrett's signature differs by 5 from Tony's and by 10 from Alan's. 10 is a large distance, which discourages belief in a common ancestor for those two gentlemen.

Finally, I have discovered another genetic signature that matches Barrett's fairly closely (64 of 67 markers).

Ken\textsuperscript{7} Hargreaves (\textit{William Garry}\textsuperscript{6}, William Edward\textsuperscript{5}, [John] James\textsuperscript{4}, Edward\textsuperscript{3}, James\textsuperscript{2}, Robert\textsuperscript{1}):

\texttt{nwojookmknln}Dohjkkzntzknoookisunmr\texttt{H}nljkhokjhi\texttt{l}uvokn\texttt{i}mimztkmklkllk.

See the appendix of this book for Ken's genealogy [in progress at this time]. Notice that Barrett's signature differs by only 3 from Ken's, indicating an almost certain common ancestor—hence their presence in one book. I hasten to add that no such ancestor has yet been found.

Ken's signature differs by 8 from Tony's and by 13 from Alan's. These are large distances in genetics, again discouraging the notion of a common ancestor for these three lines despite the geographic nearness.

STEPHEN HARGREAVES AND HIS FAMILY

FIRST GENERATION

1. STEPHEN[1] HARGREAVES[2] was probably he of Carleton-in-Craven, Yorkshire, in 1788–1796 for his marriage and the baptisms of several of his children, and then of Barnoldswick, Yorkshire, in 1797–1801 for the baptisms of several more of his children. The argument that the Stephen Hargreaves, and his wife Ann, of these two towns are the same persons depends on the neat timing of those baptisms and the nearness of the two towns. Careleton-in-Craven and Barnoldswick are about six miles apart as the crow flies, so probably about 10 miles apart by road routes (see Figure 2). After formulating this theory, I discovered that my correspondent on this family, Barrett[3] Hargreaves, had already discovered it and written about it in his book on the family.[3]

Only two pieces of evidence call this theory into question, and they are soft. One is that the 1841 census has son James born about 1791 in Yorkshire. The other is that the 1851 census has him born about 1790 in Barnoldswick. The English censuses are often fairly accurate, so I don’t simply dismiss their ages (as I do U.S. census ages). But the census records for Stephen, putative brother of our James, are inaccurate. The 1841 census has him born about 1801, where his baptism was in 1793! And the 1851 has him born about 1795 (in “Carlton,” Yorkshire, however). So I believe that the two census anomalies for James are not sufficiently strong to discount the theory stated above. I will assume its validity in this book, after stating these caveats.

Additional support for the theory of the move from Carleton-in-Craven to Barnoldswick between the baptisms of 1796 and 1797 is this: The Leeds-Liverpool Canal was completed to Barnoldswick in 1796, suddenly thrusting that town into major importance in the area. (I thank my correspondent Barrett[4] Hargreaves for pointing out this coincidence.)[4] Stephen Hargreaves was a waller, meaning that he built walls. It is conceivable that he had a part in building the walls of the canal, but I have no proof that he did, nor that wallers were so employed. It is interesting that his abode in Barnoldswick was given as Long Ing.[5] A surviving reminder of that name is Long Ing Road that passes directly over the Leeds-Liverpool Canal.

Stephen married 21 Dec. 1788, St. Mary, Carleton-in-Craven,[6] ANN THORNTON. See son John’s baptism record to see that her name in Barnoldswick was Ann.

I inspected the Barnoldswick parish record (for the St. Mary-le-Gill church, book 1: 1722–1812), baptisms and burials (and a few marriages), and found these meager Hargreaves listings, especially meager considering how common the surname was in the environs then [notice the long gaps][7]

2. Hargreaves, Story of William and Grace Hargreaves, 223, has Stephen born about 1768, Barnoldswick but this appear to have been guessed, using a marriage age of about 22 or 23. [Items in blue are from this book and have not been vetted by me.]
5. Ing is an old word of Norse origin meaning meadow, especially water meadow near a river. From Yorkshire Dialect Words of Old Norse Origin, <www.viking.no/e/england/yorkshire_norse.htm>, accessed 7 Nov. 2014.

STEPHEN HARGREAVES AND HIS FAMILY

Marriage 1726: “June 30 John Hargraves [sic] & Elisabeth Edmundson with banns both of Brockden.”

Baptism 1745: “[?]llon son of John Hargraves [sic] laborer of Barnoldswick May 13.”

Marriage 1749: “Richard Hargraves [sic] of Satterforth & Margaret Hudson both [sic] of this parish with banns. October 29.”

Burial 1756: “James Son of John Hargreaves de Barnoldswick May 12th.”

Burial 1758: “John Hargreaves from Barnoldswick (Mason) April 13th.”

Burial 1763: “Elizabeth Hargreaves Widdow of Barnoldseys April 26th.”

Burial 1784: “January 19th Elizabeth daugh’ of James Hargreaves of Thornton Weaver & Margret his wife.”

Burial 1795: “March 11th James son of James Hargreaves of Barnoldswick Weaver & Isabel his Wife.”

The next found was John’s baptism (see Children) in 1797, the first mention of Stephen Hargreaves (and Ann). Then the next two found were the baptism and burial of Peter (see Children). Then this:

Burial 1801: “February 27th James Hargreaves of Barnoldswick Cotton Weaver.”

The next found was Martha’s baptism (see Children) in 1801. Then a long gap before these:

There were no further Hargreaveses found in the book (through 1812). This further supports the theory that Stephen Hargreaves came from the nearby parish of Carleton-in-Craven.

For future reference: I inspected the Carleton-in-Craven parish record (for St. Mary church) and found these Hargreaves listings, hinting at possible relatives of Stephen Hargreaves of that town:[8]

Marriage 1796: “William Hargreaves Cotton spinner & a Bachelor and Betty Pickels Spinster both of this Parish by Banns Nov 3rdn”

Baptism 1799: “William Son of William & Elizabeth Hargreaves Sep’ 4thn”

Marriage 1801: “John Hargreaves & Sarah Smith by Banns 1801 Jan. 29thn”

THIRD GENERATION

10. MARY\(^3\) HARGREAVES (James\(^2,\) Stephen\(^1\)) was baptized 2 Nov. 1817, Barnoldswick, Yorkshire.\(^{[61]}\) She married 14 Jan. 1839, Barnoldswick,\(^{[62]}\) CHRISTOPHER EDMONDSON, born about 1819, Barnoldswick, son of John Edmondson.

In 1851 Christopher Edmondson, 32, a green grocer born in Barnoldswick, Yorkshire, England, resided in Habergham Eaves, Lancashire, with his wife, Mary, 33, born in Barnoldswick, daughter, Ann, 13, a power loom weaver, sons, William, 10, and James, 7, daughter, Margaret, 5, all born in Barnoldswick, and son, John, 9 months, born in Habergham Eaves.\(^{[63]}\)

Also in the household is John Tomlinson, 25, born in Burnley, his wife, Hannah, 22, born in Barnoldswick, and their daughter, Mary Hannah, 2, birthplace not given.\(^{[64]}\) Hannah was probably Ann of the 1851 census, verified as such by the next census.

STEPHEN HARGREAVES AND HIS FAMILY

26 i ANN/HANNAH\(^{4}\) EDMONDSON, born about 1838, Barnoldswick, married JOHN TOMLINSON, born about 1836, Burnley, and had at least one child: (1) Mary Ann/Hannah\(^{3}\) Tomlinson, born about 1859, Burnley. Ann’s birth year suggests that she was conceived out of wedlock.

27 ii WILLIAM\(^{4}\) EDMONDSON, born about 1841, Barnoldswick.

28 iii JAMES\(^{4}\) EDMONDSON, born about 1844, Barnoldswick.

29 iv MARGARET\(^{4}\) EDMONDSON, born about 1846, Barnoldswick. Presumably died young.

30 v JOHN\(^{4}\) EDMONDSON, born about 1850, Burnley, Habergham Eaves, Lancashire.

11. ANN\(^{3}\) HARGREAVES (James\(^{2}\), Stephen\(^{1}\)) was baptized 3 Sept. 1820, Barnoldswick.\(^{67}\) She perhaps had a daughter out of wedlock (see 1841 census), Ann\(^{4}\) Hargreaves, born about 1839, Yorkshire. She is easily confused with Ann Hargreaves, born about 1827 or 1828, Barnoldswick. See records below.

An Ann Hargreaves married 15 Oct. 1848, Barnoldswick,\(^{68}\) William Eccleston, who was born about 1820, Barnoldswick, son of John Eccleston. But this Ann’s father was listed as James [F?'oldsworth, and her age as 21 at marriage, making her birth about 1827, in Barnoldswick. So this marriage doesn’t fit.

In 1871 William Eccleston, 50, a carter born in Barnoldswick, Yorkshire, resided in Barnoldswick with his wife, Ann, 43 [sic], born Barnoldswick, daughters Martha, 18, and Mahetabel, 13, cotton weavers, son John, 10, cotton weaver, and daughter, Rachel, 8, all four born in Barnoldswick. APPENDIX

APPENDIX: A RELATED HARGREAVES FAMILY

The Hargreaves family here is from the same area in Yorkshire (now Lancashire) that the Stephen Hargreaves family is from. And there is a DNA match between descendants of both (matching on 64 of 67 markers). Hence the goal here is to find, if possible, a genealogical link between the two families.

The most important two towns are Barnoldswick for the Stephen Hargreaves family and Skipton for the Robert Hargreaves family below. They are about six miles apart in what was formerly Yorkshire West Riding. Skipton is about 18 miles from Burnley, a center for the Henry Hargreaves family, and about 25 miles from Accrington, center of the John Hargreaves family. But these small distances mattered a lot in the early days of these four families.

Although many of the early records of the following family use the form Hargraves for the surname, I have opted to always spell it Hargreaves, the modern form of the name that this family now uses.

1. ROBERT I HARGREAVES married JANE —. Perhaps the Robert “Hargraves” who was baptized 9 Aug. 1747, Long Preston, Yorkshire, son of Robert and Elizabeth (–) “Hargraves,” and married 1 Sept.1777, Long Preston, Yorkshire, Jane Hartley. The parents were probably Robert “Hargraves” who married 1737, Long Preston, Elizabeth Whalley.

N.B. Long Preston, Skipton, and Barnoldswick, all in Yorkshire West Riding, form an equilateral triangle about 6 miles on a side.

Children:

Mary 1778, Elizabeth 1780, John 1783, Edward 1784

2   i MARTHA II HARGREAVES, born 17 June 1788, baptized 20 July 1788, Skipton, Yorkshire.

3   ii ANN II HARGREAVES, born 14 June 1790, baptized 24 Oct. 1809, Skipton, Yorkshire.

4   iii WILLIAM II HARGREAVES, born 16 June 1793, baptized 17 May 1807, Skipton, Yorkshire, married 2 Oct. 1814, Skipton [in Craven], MARTHA WHITAKER.

+ 5   iv JAMES II HARGREAVES, born 3 Dec. 1795, Yorkshire, England, baptized 17 May 1807, Skipton, Yorkshire, married JANE HARTLEY, and had nine children.

6   v JOSEPH II HARGREAVES, born 11 May 1798, baptized 17 May 1807, Skipton, Yorkshire.

A Loss to St. Matthew’s.—The death [took?] place, last Sunday, at her home, 73, Rosehill-road, of a well-known Burnley lady, Mrs. Eliza Hargreaves. She was the wife of Mr. James Hargreaves, and had been married twice. Previous to going to reside in Blackpool, about 24 years ago [sic, about 1910], she was widely known in connection with a confectionary business which the family held in St. Matthew-street, but she had to leave for the seaside resort on account of ill-health. Seven years ago [about 1927] she returned with her family, and resumed her connection with St. Matthew’s church, where she was a much respected member of the congregation. She was an old scholar of Back-lane Sunday School. One of Mrs. Hargreaves’ chief delights was painting, and she produced many beautiful examples of artistic craftsmanship. She was 74 years of age, and leaves a husband, two daughters and a son, the latter being in Canada. The interment will take place to-morrow in the Burnley Cemetery.

From an obituary for William, published 24 Mar. 1947, Kenton, Manitoba, Canada:

William Edward Hargreaves, 62, who died suddenly March 17, was buried in Greenwood cemetery, March 19 . . . Born in Burnlee [sic], Yorkshire [sic], Eng., Mr. Hargreaves came to Canada as a young man and settled 18 years ago at Kenton. He was a veteran of World War I. . . . Surviving are his wife; one daughter, Nurse Burna, of Neepawa hospital; three sons, Garry, Jack and Norris, and two sisters in England.\[288\]

The family story is that William Edward came to Canada at age 19, so in about 1903.\[289\]

William Edward Hargreaves applied for a homestead patent in Saskatchewan stating that he first entered a claim 1 May 1907, built a house on it Dec. 1907, and began living in it 27 Oct. 1907. He resided there 27 Oct. 1907 to 3 May 1909 and 6 Nov. 1909 to 5 Aug. 1910, and otherwise resided in Silverton, Manitoba.\[290\]

In 1916 “Wm” Edward Hargreaves, 29, a merchant born in England, resided alone in Silver Creek, Marquette, Manitoba. His birth year approximates to 1877.\[291\]

The World War I record of William Edward Hargreaves as a soldier for Canada, dated 15 Sept. 1917, gives his birth as 21 Jan. 1887, Burnley, son of James Hargreaves, which appears to be in error by 3 years. He resided at the time of enlistment at Silverton, Manitoba, Canada. The location of his father, James, at the time, was Blackpool, Lancashire.\[293\]

Here are those four marriages:

In 1780, John Oving married Rebecca Stevenson in the Long Preston parish church.

In 1784, Christopher Wellock married Alice Dobson in the Kirkby Malham parish church.

In 1785, Henry Stanley married Mary Boocock in the Gisburn parish church.

In 1788, Stephen Hargreaves married Ann Thornton in the Carleton-in-Craven parish church.

Here are the towns and hamlets of our ancestors. Between 1790 and 1850 our ancestral families migrated to Barnoldswick which was becoming a major cotton-weaving town.
