FOREWORD AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I owe special thanks to Gayle Braswell Ellison. It was she who contacted me in 2004 with the interesting news that one of the descendants in her Braswell family didn't match the Braswell Y-chromosome DNA signature, but did match that of the Riggs family which I have been researching for over a decade. I thought that this lead would perhaps illuminate one of Riggs subfamilies that I have had most trouble with—one of those that came out of Morris County, N.J., in the late 18th century to North Carolina, leaving very few strong genealogical records. That is the purpose of my pursuing Boardvine Braswell and his progeny who, for whatever reasons, are a branch of the Riggs family, not the Braswell family. Over the ensuing years, Gayle has given me many leads about Boardvine's family that I have used for research hints in preparation of the following paper. The research is mine, and as usual all errors in it are mine too. Gayle has also helped me find other Braswell males to contribute to my Riggs/Rigg DNA Study Group. It is by studying several of them that I have established that Boardvine most likely was the genetic crossover person. Certainly no generation younger than his could have been. Although people usually leap to adultery as the reason for such a genetic change, there are other possible explanations—adoption, for example. This paper is not exhaustive, even as regards Boardvine's family. And it hardly touches the vast Braswell family, which Gayle has been studying for years. Its primary purpose is to establish the descents of those individuals who contributed to the Riggs/Rigg DNA Study Group, and hence to establish the genetic signature of Boardvine Braswell, and of course to help me solve the Riggs family mysteries.

I also want to thank the DNA contributors and the Braswell family members who have helped me directly in the following researches.

THE DNA EVIDENCE

Three living Braswell male descendants of Boardvine R. Braswell have contributed DNA to the Riggs/Rigg DNA Study Group that I have managed for many years, using FamilyTreeDNA as our testing firm. I have established in a recent pair of papers that the following is the genetic signature of the 1633 immigrant to America, Edward<sup>1</sup> Riggs, at 67 genetic markers on the Y chromosome:

Since the three living Braswell descendants each descends from a distinct son of Boardvine (the descents are proved in this paper), this means that Boardvine himself must have carried the signature in his Y chromosome, inherited by all his sons. The markers at which they disagree with the Edward<sup>1</sup> Riggs Modal Signature are mutations of it.

One of these markers with a mutation is marker number 21 (counted from the left). This marker is a C in the Edward<sup>1</sup> Riggs Modal Signature, but is D for all three descendants of Boardvine Braswell. Hence this mutation can be used as a flag for the Braswell subfamily of the Edward<sup>1</sup> Riggs family. We should expect that any male descendant along a male

1. Smith, "The Probable Genetic Signature of Thomas<sup>1</sup> Riggs," and "The Probable Genetic Signature of Edward<sup>1</sup> Riggs," Register 164 (2010):85–103. For full details on sources, see the bibliography. The signatures are actually returned as a sequence of 67 numbers. For ease of presentation, I have coded the numbers as follows: a = 1, b = 2, . . . , z = 26, A = 27, B = 28, . . . , Z = 52.

2. The Braswells have been tested on only 37 markers. An agreement at 35 of 37 markers is considered a match. Hence one of the three is with high probability a descendant of Edward<sup>1</sup> Riggs. The other two are known (proved here) to be kin of the one, so all are descendants if one is.

line from Boardvine would carry a D at marker 21. (I derive another such flag in the analysis below.)

N.B. Boardvine is not necessarily the most recent descendant of Edward<sup>1</sup> Riggs to carry the mutation, or the Edward<sup>1</sup> Riggs Modal Signature. DNA analysis can establish the fact of descent, but generally not the path of it. It could even be that he did not descend from Edward<sup>1</sup> Riggs but from another immigrant distantly related to Edward<sup>1</sup>.

Here is a full presentation of the Braswell DNA results for the Braswells in this paper (anonymously):

where the red letters indicate marker values that differ from Boardvine's genetic signature derived next.

The maximum parsimony algorithm explained in my two papers (footnote 1) yields the following genetic signature on 67 markers for Boardvine Braswell:

Boardvine Braswell:

lxnknplIIImmCsijkyosDooqqkjswooqrLLLI:kiophjjhkjuwpjllohlwtmIkmkklI where the blue letters indicate marker values that differ from the Edward<sup>1</sup> Riggs Modal Signature given earlier. These two markers—one of which has already been explained (the D at marker 21)—serve as flags for the Boardvine Braswell subfamily of the Edward<sup>1</sup> Riggs family. It is worth pointing out again that a 65 of 67 agreement is generally considered a “match”—meaning that Boardvine, with high probability, descended from Edward<sup>1</sup> Riggs in genealogical time (i.e., within a few hundred years). Or from another immigrant who was kin to Edward<sup>1</sup>. Indications of the genealogy derived here are that the descent happened in about six generations or so.

Although this paper proves only some of the lines of descent from Boardvine, all living male descendants of him would be expected to match his genetic signature, to within a few mutations (as with A, B, and C Braswell). We can call his genetic signature the Boardvine Braswell Modal Signature.

First Generation

1. BOARDVINE R.<sup>1</sup> BRASWELL was born about 1800, North Carolina, and died 16 June 1877,<sup>[3]</sup> and is buried in Peolia Cem., Clinton Co., Ky.<sup>[4]</sup> Boardvine married (1) 4 Jan. 1820, Surry Co., N.C.,<sup>[5]</sup> ELIZABETH LAWSON, who was born about 1804, North Carolina, and died 13 Feb. 1872 (Bible)<sup>[6]</sup> or 12 Feb. 1872 (gravestone), and is buried next to Boardvine.<sup>[7]</sup> He married (2), before the 1880 census (and perhaps after the death of Elizabeth, although by 1870 they were no longer living together), probably in Clinton Co., Ky., since they were neighbors there, REBECCA MARGARET STOCKTON, who was born Oct. 1828 (1900 census), Tennessee or Kentucky.

In 1830 “Bordvine Brazil,” 30–40, resided south of the Cumberland River in Cumberland Co., Ky., with a woman 20–30, two girls under 5, and two boys 5–10.<sup>[8]</sup>

Clinton Co., Ky., was carved out of Cumberland and Wayne Cos. in 1836, so there was probably no move between the 1830 and 1840 censuses.

THE BOARDVINE BRASWELL FAMILY

In 1840 B. R. Braswell, 40-50, resided in Clinton Co., Ky., with a woman 30-40, three boys and one girl under 5, one boy 5-10, two girls 10-15, and two males 15-20.<sup>[9]</sup>

In 1850 B. R. Braswell, 50, a farmer born in North Carolina with real estate value of $500, resided in Clinton Co., Ky., with Elizabeth, 46, born in North Carolina, illiterate, and with William F., 20, a school-teacher, Leroy, 16, a laborer, George M., 15, a laborer, Ellison "A.," 12, Elizabeth C., 10, Rosannah J., 8, Alexander D., 5, and Thomas L., 2, all eight born in Kentucky. Nearby resided the Stockton family, including "Margarett" Stockton, 19 (see next).<sup>[10]</sup> There were no Riggses in Clinton Co. in 1850.

In 1850 "Margarett" Stockton, 19, born in Kentucky, resided in the household of Rebecca Stockton, 50, born in Kentucky with $130 real estate, and with Jane, 26, James, 22, Nancy, 17, Carrol V., 14, Lorenzo D. G., 11, Ferriba E., 9, "Comidore" P., 7, Lora C., 3, Lydia K., 1, and Elizabeth J., 1, all born in Kentucky.<sup>[11]</sup> The child Elizabeth J. Stockton, 1, might be the child Elizabeth Johnson, 10, residing with Margaret Stockton in the 1860 census, and hence be her child out of wedlock (cf. next item).

On 14 Feb. 1855, Clinton Co., Ky.,<sup>[12]</sup> Winfield B. Stockton was born to Margaret Stockton and a "not known" father.

In 1860 B. R. Braswell, 61, a miller born in North Carolina with personal value of $500, resided in Albany, Clinton Co., Ky., with Elizabeth, 57, born in North Carolina, and with "Rosa" J., 18, a weaver, A. D., a male farm laborer, 15, and Thomas L., 12, all three born in Kentucky.

THE BOARDVINE BRASWELL FAMILY

Next door were E. L. Braswell, 22, born in Kentucky, and E. C. Braswell, 39, born in North Carolina. Nearby was Margaret “Stockston,” 29 (see next).<sup>[13]</sup>

In 1860 Margaret “Stockston,” 29, an illiterate spinner born in North Carolina with $50 real and $75 personal estates, resided in Albany, Clinton Co., Ky., with Elizabeth Johnson, 10, Abergils Stockston, 7, Winfield B., 5, Serilda Ann, 3, and Nancy L., 1, all four born in Kentucky.<sup>[14]</sup> There is no indication that Margaret ever married (before she married Boardvine), so these children were probably all born out of wedlock.

In 1860 John Riggs, 56, a farmer born in North Carolina with $1,000 real worth and $650 personal worth, resided in Albany, Clinton Co., Ky., with “Eda,” 52, a spinner born in North Carolina, both illiterate, and with Andrew Young, 13, born in Kentucky, John Smith, 16, and Sally Smith, 7, both born in Kentucky, Rosea Young 21, a weaver born in Kentucky, illiterate, Mary Riggs, 19, a knitter born in North Carolina, and Betsey Smith, 85, born in Virginia, illiterate. Several Youngs and Smiths also resided next door.<sup>[15]</sup>

In 1870 Boardvine R. Braswell, 71, a farmer born in North Carolina, resided alone in Albany, Clinton Co., Ky. Next door was Rebecca M. Stockton, 39, and her family: Surilda A., 13, Rebecca S., 9, “Comodore” C., 7, Rosecran, 6, and George “N.,” 4, all six born in Kentucky.<sup>[16]</sup> It appears that Elizabeth had moved out (see next), probably because of Boardvine’s adultery with Margaret Stockton—DNA evidence proves that Margaret’s son, George M., carried the Riggs Y chromosome, which Boardvine is known to have carried (see The DNA Evidence).

THE BOARDVINE BRASWELL FAMILY

In 1870 Elizabeth Braswell, 67, born in North Carolina, illiterate, resided in Albany, Clinton Co., Ky., with Jane Denton, 26, born in Kentucky, James M. [probably] Denton, 9, and Lola C. [probably] Denton, 7, both born in Kentucky.<sup>[17]</sup>

In 1870 Edith Riggs, 59, born in North Carolina, illiterate, resided next door to son, William F. Braswell, in the Alvin Buttram household.<sup>[18]</sup>

In 1880 Edith Riggs, 70, a widow born in Kentucky, resided next door to William F. Braswell in the home of her grandson, and William's son, G. [George] F. Braswell, 21, born in Kentucky.<sup>[19]</sup>

In 1880 Margaret "Brazwell," 48, a widow born in Kentucky of North Carolina natives, resided in Albany, Clinton Co., Ky., with her daughter, Rebecca Stockton, 17, sons, C. C., 16, Thomas R., 16, and George M., 13, and her grandson, R. E. L., 8, all born in Kentucky.<sup>[20]</sup> So Rebecca M. Stockton, living next door to Boardvine in the 1870 census, was now Margaret, his wife.

In 1900 "Margret" Braswell, 71, a widow born Oct. 1828 in Tennessee of Kentucky natives, resided in Illwill, Clinton Co., Ky. Next door was George Braswell, 27, a farm laborer born Mar. 1873 in Kentucky of a father born in Tennessee and a mother in Kentucky, with his wife of six years, Manerva J., 20, born June 1880 in Kentucky of Kentucky natives, and with all three children that Manerva had had: daughter, May B., 5, born June 1894, and sons, Thomas L., 3, born Oct. 1896, and Henry W., 1, born Jan. 1899, all three born in Kentucky.<sup>[21]</sup>

Second Generation

In 1850 Eli C. Braswell, 29, a farmer born in North Carolina with real estate worth $200, resided in Clinton Co., Ky., with Sarah, 27, born in Kentucky, and with Martha J., 6, Nancy E., 4, Titus V., 2, and “no name,” 1/12, a male [sic], all four born in Kentucky.<sup>[31]</sup>

In 1860 E. C. Braswell, 39, a farmer born in North Carolina with personal value of $100, resided in Albany, Clinton Co., Ky., with Sarah, 33, born in Kentucky, and with Martha J., 15, Nancy E., 14, T. V., 12, a male, Sarah H., 10, P[e?]as E., 7, a male, and “Parabanan,” 5, a female, all six born in Kentucky. Next door was B. R. Braswell, 61, born in North Carolina.<sup>[32]</sup>

In 1870 Eli C. Braswell, 49, a farmer born in North Carolina with personal estate value of $450, resided in Scottsville, Allen Co., Ky., with Sarah, 47, illiterate, born in Kentucky, and with Titus V., 21, a farmer, Sarah H., 10, Pias E., 16, a male, and “Panna B.” C., 14, a female, all three born in Kentucky. Another obituary for Joe Dean:

Joe Dean Braswell was born on March 25th, 1941, to Ray Dean Braswell and Matilda Sue Braswell in Sumner County, Tennessee. He married Nancy Grace Fisher on February 24th, 1962, in Hyattsville, Maryland. Mr. Braswell passed away on Sunday, October 6th, 2019.

Joe attended Westmoreland High School and graduated in 1959, despite regularly skipping class at the pool hall, where he was often picked up by the principal and returned to school. He served in the United States Army as a postmaster. He was stationed in South Korea and our country from 1959 until 1962. After serving in the military, he served multiple roles while employed at TRW Ross Gear in Lebanon, Tennessee, for 35 years. Mr. Braswell enjoyed woodworking and even opened his own business, The Oak and Glass Shop. During this time, he constructed many cabinets, picture frames, and stained glass windows. Joe was an active member in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 9806, constantly looking for ways to honor our current and past military men and women. He was instrumental in helping to establish the Westmoreland Veterans Park. Joe also served as an active member of the Sumner County Election Commission. Joe always had an interest in cars and motorcycles. He also enjoyed

APPENDIX B: OTHER BRASWELL–RIGGS CONNECTIONS

The following is a letter I received from Mike Riggs on 15 Aug. 2011, which I quote as I received it:

Hi Alvy,

Sorry the attachment did not come through. It is from “Early Virginia Immigrants, 1623–1666” published 1912 by George Cabell Greer. In it, Richard Riggs is shown as arriving in Virginia in 1637 with his way paid for by Arthur Smith, who received a 50 acre land patent for his trouble. This Arthur Smith founded Smithfield, which is still a city in Isle of Wight (IOW) County, VA.

Here is where it might get interesting for you: The next mention of a Riggs in IOW County is 1692 in the will of Richard Towles:

Will of Roger Towle Nov 5 1692 - In the name of God Amen I Richard Towle of the Isle of Wight County being very sick & weak but thanks be to God of perfect memory do make & ordain this my last will and testament - first I give my soule to God my maker in whose grace and atonement of Jesus Christ my Redeemer . . . and my body to the earth [by my executor herein appointed.]

As for my worldly estate I give and bequeath to my three youngest children of Susanna Braswell Richard Braswell, William Braswell and Elizabeth Braswell all my worldly possessions to be equally divided between them and given to each of them as they shall attain to the age of seventeen years of age.

Now I nominate and appoint my loving friend John Riggs my overseer in that the said estate so given by me to the said children be only and truly ? to them at the years above expressed. and to see that my debts and funeral charges paid. too revoking all former wills I have here unto set my hand and seal this 9th day of 9th 1692. signed by + Richard Towle.
