ADDITIONS

The page, sketch, line, footnote, and person numbers refer to those in the published version of the book (Elder Bethuel Riggs, 2006). Footnotes in these additions are to be inserted among the published footnotes, in the appropriate order.

Oct. 2006: Sketch 206. MARY JANE⁴ RIGGS (₃₉*Franklin B.*³, *Jonathan*², *Bethuel*¹), 439–441:

In paragraph 1, p. 439, change Elizabeth M. O’Neill’s maiden surname to “Dandley” and insert this footnote.^[1] I could not change the page positions in the manuscript at this late date. I was able to enter the surname in the sketch and in the index under O’Neill but could not insert a footnote justifying it, nor insert an index item under Elizabeth’s maiden name.

On p. 393, line 4, “married” should be “married (1)^[2]”.

11. Email from descendant Yvonne Ellis (who contributed the Webb Bible), 13 Dec. 2009. She adds that Peter was son of Elijah Ellis, and died in Spencer Co., Ind., but I have not verified this.

In 1880 Peter A. Ellis, 47, a farmer born in Kentucky, resided in Luce Twp., Spencer Co., Ind., with his wife “Urilla,” 30, born in Ohio of a father born in Ohio, and with his sons, Anthony, 22, Enoch, 19, Peter A., 9, (probably) daughter, Minta U. [“son” appears to be partially erased and “M” appears to be overwritten “F” for sex], 2, and son “W^m”; F., 2/12, born in Mar., all five born in Indiana, and with “rel[ative]”s, Mary Webb, 17, and Andrew Webb, 19, both born in Indiana of a father born in Ohio and a mother in Kentucky.^[12]

Also, on p. 233, child 237, MAJOR A. L. WEBB: change “A.” in his name to “Andrew.”

2 Sept. 2012: Sketch 8. SAMUEL² RIGGS (*Bethuel*¹), 118–122:

Append to the end of the sketch, p. 122:

I received an email on 2 Sept. 2012 from Barbara (Helm) Smith alerting me to the putative existence of three children for Samuel and Elizabeth Riggs: Mary “Polly,” Rachel, and William who resided with Samuel and Elizabeth in San Felipe de Austin County [sic], Texas when Samuel went to New Orleans and died there in 1836. After Samuel’s death, Elizabeth married Thomas Bertron (listed as “Burtrong” on the marriage record).

Indeed, an Elizabeth Riggs married 1 Oct. 1837, Austin Co., Tex., Thomas Burtrong.^[13] There is a tax assessment against Thomas Burtrong in 1846 for 177 acres in Burleson Co., Tex., for property originally granted to James Shaw. Also one for Thos. Burtrong in 1849 in the same county.

In 1850 Thomas “Burtron,” 40, a farmer born in Louisiana with $4,622 real estate, resided in Burleson and Brazos District, Burleson Co., Tex., with Elizabeth, 49, born in Kentucky, William, 14, Mary, 12, 13. Tex. County Marriage Index, 1837–1977, Austin Co., Republic of Texas, 36, image 213 of 781 online at <www.FamilySearch.org>, accessed 24 Oct. 2022, DGS 4539477, FHL 1019273, Thomas “Burtrong” to Elizabeth Riggs, licensed 4 Sept. 1837, in Austin town, married 1 Oct. 1837, by William Medford JP.

Elizabeth, 10, and Susannah, 7, all four born in Texas.¹⁴ Nearby was James Shaw, 42, born in Ohio, and his wife, Nancy, 39, born in Missouri, with three children, Franklin, 12, Sophronia, 10, and Travis, 8, all born in Texas, and his uncle, James, 69, born in Pennsylvania. Next door to James was Joseph Shaw, 25, probably James's brother, and Joseph's wife, Elizabeth, 19, both born in Missouri.

If Samuel died in 1836, then he could barely have been William's father perhaps, but definitely not father to any other of Elizabeth's children listed in the 1850 census. Since Thomas married Elizabeth in 1837, then William would, if his son, have been born out of wedlock.

In 1860 "Th^s" Burtrong, 48, a farmer born in Louisiana with $15,850 real and $4,050 personal estates, resided in Leonville, Coryell Creek Beat, Coryell Co., Tex., with Mary J., 36, born in Iowa. If this is the same Thomas, then Elizabeth died between the 1850 and 1860 censuses.

"Maggie Bazil was the granddaughter of Sacajawea."¹⁵

24 Oct. 2022: Sketch 8. SAMUEL² RIGGS (₁Bethuel¹), 118–122:

Append to the end of sketch 8, as appended above on 2 Sept. 2012:

I received a letter on 10 Oct. 2022 from Barbara (Helm) Smith, the same correspondent who inspired the previous addition a decade earlier. She clarified some of the issues raised above:

Samuel Riggs, son of Bethuel, and his wife Elizabeth Weldon, along with their two daughters, Mary Ann and Rachel came to the Republic of Texas [sic, the Republic was created in 1836], San Felipe de Austin,^[16] Austin County, Texas in 1833 from Missouri. In 1836 (Republic of Texas record as 1835) Samuel went to New Orleans where he died in the Charity Hospital. A few days later, Elizabeth bore their son, William, in San Felipe de Austin.

Elizabeth Weldon Riggs married Thomas Bertroug in San Felipe de Austin. In 1850, they were in Burleson County near Samuel Riggs, son of Jonathan. Later, they were awarded land for Samuel Riggs and Thomas Bertroug in the new Coryell County. Elizabeth Bertroug died in Corywell County.

16. “San Felipe de Austin History,” Texas Historical Commission, <www.thc.texas.gov/historic-sites/san-felipe-de-austin-state-historic-site/san-felipe-de-austin-history>, accessed 24 Oct. 2022, “San Felipe de Austin was founded in 1824 by Stephen F. Austin as the unofficial capital of his colony. . . . On March 30, 1836, the small garrison remaining . . . evacuated and then burned it to the ground.” So the marriage of Elizabeth to Thomas Bertroug in 1837 occurred in Austin Co., Republic of Texas, not San Felipe de Austin, which no longer existed. By the same argument, son William was probably not born in San Felipe.
