Text in red is unsubstantiated at this printing, or claimed but not supported by proof, or is a question I am asking for possible future answer, or is in some other way to be considered temporary. An advantage of electronic publishing is that I can continue to improve and update the text while the mass of valid information is made available now. Acknowledgments

I wish to thank the following contributors to this work, but most particularly, Christine (Smith) Andrews, who has generously shared her treasure trove of Smith family artifacts and records with me and other Smith researchers, and similarly to Ken Whitley, who has made careful analysis of much Smith evidence and shared it with me and other researchers:

Preface

This work was formerly included in my Jesse Richard Smith book, then titled Jesse Richard Smith and Associated Families. It contained the genealogies of three related families—those of Jesse Richard Smith, Elijah P. Gorman, and John Malone Harrison. I formally severed that book into three books, one for each family, on 30 Jan. 2013. See Figure 1 for the relationship of the three families. The three related books are now:

A Texian-New Mexican Smith Family, c1770–2018: Brothers William Berry Smith and James M. Smith, who fought at San Jacinto, and their families: And their brother Joel N. Smith, who founded the Cocke County, Tennessee branch.

The John Malone Harrison Family, c1785–2009.

The Elijah P. Gorman Family, 1774–1993.

These books are always available online for free download at <alvyray.com/Smith/>. I do not allow printing because the books are never done and I wish to remain free to change them. This is particularly true of the Smith book. I can be reached at alvyray@gmail.com for changes to the books. I welcome receipt of any evidence or proofs of these families that I have not yet discovered.

FIRST GENERATION

1. ELIJAH P.¹ GORMAN was born about 1774, Greenville District, Greenville Co., S.C., and died 23 Aug. 1841 in Cooksville, Noxubee Co., Miss.^[1] He signed his will (see appendix A) 5 Dec. 1840, and probate was recorded in 1841, Noxubee Co.^[2] Elijah married about 1795 MARY —, who was born about 1777, South Carolina, and died 4 Apr. 1852, Macon, Noxubee Co., Mississippi.^[3] Noxubee Co., founded 1834, is just over the state line from Pickens Co., Ala., Jesse Smith's birthplace,^[4] and Cooksville, is very near the state line.

Elijah's obituary in the Macon Herald:

Died at his residence in Cooksville, Miss. on the 23 inst., Elijah Gorman age about 67 who was born in Greenville District S.C. More than 20 years resident of Alabama (Tuscumbia) several years in Cooksville Miss. Rev. Thomas A. Smith officiating.^[5]

Elijah Gorman was a witness on a deed dated 2 Mar. 1799, Greenville Co., S.C., from John Tubbs to Joseph Duncan, for 161 acres on both sides of the Enoree River.^[6] Then on 3 Feb. 1799 John Tubbs and others

1. Obituary in the Macon Herald, Noxubee Co. Mississippi, exact date unknown, transcription provided by Sue Gorman; email from Norma Gorman Wright, 14 June 2002, cites his obituary in Macon, Mississippi, newspaper. An unsourced paragraph about Elijah, sent to me by descendant Sue Gorman, suggests that his father was Thomas Gorman, who was later enumerated in Pendleton Co., S.C., in 1790.

2. Evelyn Harrison Pugh, Sue McLeod Gorman, and Norma Gorman Wright, Re: Elijah P. Gorman/SC/born 1774, postings 2 May and 11 Nov. 2001, Gorman Family Genealogy Forum, <www.Genealogy.com>, cite his Noxubee Co., Mississippi, will and probate records and his obituary in the Macon Herald, 1841, presumably of Macon, Noxubee Co.

3. Family group record for Elijah Gorman and Mary —, by Sue Gorman, for his birth and death, for her birth and death, their marriage; court record, petitioners D. W. and R. C. Brummett, Elijah Gorman estate papers, Noxubee Co., Mississippi, sworn and subscribed 11 Dec. 1883, gives Mary Gorman's death as Apr. 1852 (but gives Elijah's death as 1846). Mary is said to be Mary Elizabeth Starling, but no proof has been found or offered. It's appealing because of the name of the firstborn.

4. See the companion book to this one, Smith (2013).

5. Obituary in the Macon Herald, Noxubee Co. Mississippi, exact date unknown. Tuscumbia lies in Colbert Co., Ala.

6. Mary Ann (Duncan) Dobson, Greenville Co. S.C. Deeds, on <RootsWeb.com>, 14 Aug. 2001, were witnesses to a deed from Elijah Gorman of Greenville Co., S.C., to John Sammon, who purchased for $80 a parcel of 29 acres on the Ready [Reedy] River, Greenville Co.^[7]

Elijah Gorman is listed on a membership roll for the Head of Enoree (Baptist) Church, Greenville, S.C., 1799–1804.^[8]

On 15 Nov. 1800 Elijah Gorman of Greenville Co. purchased for £20 a tract of 200 acres in that county from James Nicoll including “all woods waters watercourses orchards houses gardens buildings & all the improvements thereunto.”^[9] This deed was recorded 14 Oct. 1806, but was probably not the same land record as that for Elijah Gorman recorded in the period 1804–1819, since the two records appear on different pages of Deed Book G.^[10]

The State of South Carolina granted 142 acres to Elijah Gorman, surveyed 21 May 1804 and certified 1 Dec. 1804. This land was located in the District of Greenville “on the head branches of the meadow fork of Mush creek waters of South Tyger River,” adjacent to another parcel already owned by Elijah.^[11] Two records show land transactions on a branch of Mush Creek, waters of Tyger River, by William Gorman on 30 Oct. 1815 and by George Gorman on 16 June 1807, who then signed

8. Townsend, “South Carolina Baptists 1670–1805,” p. 216 cited, <FreePages.Genealogy.RootsWeb.com/~jebates/jb&et/BatesA.htm>. On the same roll are John and James Tubb, and John, Mary, and Mary Harrison.

9. Greenville Co., S.C., Deeds, G:423–24, FHL film 0024015, photocopies of the handwritten deed and its transcription contributed by Sue Gorman.

10. Email from Norma Gorman Wright, 14 June 2002, cites Alma Spires Smith and Jean Smith Owens, South Carolina Patent Land Survey (Index of Land Acquisitions), 1770–1820, “Parts of the old Ninety-Six District:” “Book G, 1804–1819 Elijah Gorman, p 170.” There is also an unsourced paragraph about Elijah Gorman, contributed by Sue Gorman, that claims he bought property from a George Gorman in Jan. 1817 in Warren Co., Tenn., with his son-in-law Ransom T. Payne. The same document mentions Elijah’s selling property in Warren Co. on 19 Feb. 1820, apparently the last record for him in Tennessee.

11. Greenville Co., S.C., Land Grants and Surveys, Book G, 1804–1819, image online at <www.familysearch.org>, G:15, indexed by “Gorman Elijah [warrant date] 19 May 1804 [acres] 300 [survey date] 21 May 1804 [acres surveyed] 142 [surveyor] W^m H. Cooke [no. of warrant] 30 [page] 15.”

THE FAMILY OF ELIJAH P. GORMAN

over the title to William Gorman Senior, proved 4 Nov. 1815. This all suggests a family relationship between Elijah, George, and William (Jr. and Sr.) Gorman.^[12]

A deed record of 24 May 1814 in Warren Co., Tennessee, records Elijah Gorman of Warren Co., buying 100 acres from James Tubbs for “a valuable consideration,” witnesses George and Ransome Pane.^[13]

On 2 Apr. 1819 Jesse Allen and Elijah Gorman sold, for $8,000, two tracts of 10 and 30 acres in Warren Co. on Pine Creek to Thomas Durham, Junior. There was a forge on one of the tracts which perhaps explains the high price.^[14] Then on 3 Apr. 1819 Elijah Gorman sold a tract of 30 acres on Pine Creek to Thomas Durham for $30, all parties and land in Warren Co.^[15]

There are five other listings of deeds with Elijah Gorman as grantor in an 1814–1886 register of deeds in Warren Co.^[16] Elijah Gorman was a witness to a deed in Warren Co. on 6 May 1824, and a deed dated 31 Oct. 1823 mentions land “on the south side of Pine Creek below Elijah Gorman, Junior.” The “Junior” is a puzzle since no Elijah, Jr. is mentioned in Elijah’s will.^[17]

Elijah Gorman “of Conecuh County [Ala.]” purchased 3 Jan. 1826 a plot of 159.825 acres in Perry Co., Ala., from the U.S. government.^[18] On 28 Dec. 1828, Elijah Gorman of Perry Co., Ala., sold for $280 to

Three of the deeds are granted to Harmon Redman and the other two to Solomon Redman. There are also two deeds with George Gorman as grantor.

Robert Iverson 160 acres of land in Perry Co, being the land purchase of 1826, one witness being Ewel S. Harrison.^[19]

Elijah Gorman “of Autauga County [Ala.]” purchased 16 Nov. 1830 a plot of 78.96 acres in Autauga Co., Ala., from the U.S. government.^[20]

Elijah Gorman “of Sumpter [sic] County” purchased 20 Mar. 1837 a plot of 160.2 acres in Sumter Co., Ala., from the U.S. government.^[21] On the same date, Elijah Gorman “assignee of Washington Clement” purchased a plot of 160.08 acres in Sumter Co., Ala., from the U.S. government.^[22]

Elijah’s 1840 will (appendix A), Noxubee Co., Mississippi, mentions his wife Mary Gorman, deceased son Terrel Gorman, daughter Artemecy, wife of Enell [Ewell] Harrison, son Oliver Gorman, widowed daughter Mary M. Clemment, daughter Elizabeth Harper, wife of Daniel E. Harper of the Republic of Texas, son Felix Gorman, daughter Sarah Gorman, deceased daughter Nancy Payne, and many slaves. This will took many years to settle since everything but some slaves went to Mary Gorman for her lifetime. A final settlement seems to have been reached 7 Aug. 1857, but then a petition dated 11 Dec. 1883 raised new issues (appendix C).

Mary Gorman of Noxubee Co., Mississippi, sold, on 1 Oct. 1845, to Elizabeth G. Harper for $1,000 lot no. 2 in block no. 8 in Macon, Noxubee Co., together with “the tenements hereditaments and appurtenance thereunto.”^[23] Mary apparently sold this same lot no. 2, block no.

THE FAMILY OF ELIJAH P. GORMAN

8, of Macon to John M. Lowery for $800 on 12 Nov. 1850, implying that it had come back into her possession for some reason.^[24]

In 1850 Mary Gorman, 73, born in South Carolina and having an estate of $1,000, resided in Noxubee Co., Miss., with Felix, 32, a physician born in Tennessee and with an estate of $2,000, Mary A., 21, born in South Carolina, and an infant Thomas, born in Mississippi.^[25]

Jesse Blythe, the administrator of Mary Gorman's estate, published a notice dated 10 Jan. 1853 in the Union Beacon (newspaper), Macon, Noxubee Co., Mississippi, six times beginning in Jan. 1853. It notified apparent heirs to appear before the probate court of Noxubee Co. in the matter of Mary's estate. This list therefore is a guide to the progeny of Elijah and Mary Gorman:

the minor heirs of Elephia Lewis, deceased, to wit, Virginia Lewis, Wyatt Lewis; also the children of Mary Brummett, deceased, to wit: an infant child, whose name is unknown, and John Brummett; the said Mary Brummett, deceased was the daughter of Nancy Payne, deceased, and Melissa Uldrick, wife of John Uldrick, deceased, who is also the daughter of said Nancy Payne, deceased; and Terrill Payne, and Irvin Payne. Mary Jane Gorman, Felix Gorman, jr., Laura Gorman, and the children of Mary Payne, deceased, to wit: Oliver D. Clements, Martha Underwood and John Underwood, her husband, and George W. Clements. The minor heirs of Sarah Allen, deceased, to wit: Mary M. Allen, Cynthia Allen, and Charles T. Allen, Artimeas Harrison, Lorinda Gorman, wife of Terrill Gorman, deceased, and her children, Cassindina E. Hines, and her husband, David Hines, Calesta Mobley, wife of Marion Mobley, Felix Gorman, Elizabeth G. Blythe, and Charles G. Bowen, guardian [ad item] of all of said minor heirs, and all other heirs, legatees, or distributees of Elijah Gorman, deceased^[26]

See also the legal deposition 6 Oct. 1852 of Elizabeth G. Blythe (appendix B) for another version of the list of heirs, with ages and locations.

24. Photocopy of original record, contributed by Sue Gorman.

25. U.S. census, 1850, Noxubee Co., Mississippi, dw. 67, fam. 67, r. 379, p. 199.

26. Sworn statement with annexed newspaper clipping, swearing that the probate announcement in the clipping has been published six times in the Union Beacon, Macon, Noxubee Co., Miss., 5 Apr. 1853.

Similarly, Jesse Blythe published another notice dated 10 June 1857 in the Macon Beacon (newspaper), Noxubee Co., Miss., four times from 17 June to 7 July 1857. Its list corrects some of the items above:

the children of Nancy Payne, deceased, viz: the children of Elphada Lewis deceased, to-wit: Virginia, Wyatt and Elphada Lewis, minors; George W. Payne. Two children of Nancy Brummett, deceased, to-wit: John Brummett, and an infant, name unknown. Malissa Uldrick and husband, Martha Harrison and her husband, Elijah Harrison: Terrill Payne and Irving Payne, minors; John Harrison, James Harrison, Lawson Harrison, Elijah Harrison, Elisabeth Smith and her husband; Justenia Tomlinson and her husband, Cassandanna Hines and her husband David Hines; Mary Jane and William Marr; Calista and William Mobley; Felix Gorman, jr., Oliver D. Clements, George W. Clements, Martha Underwood and husband. Felix Gorman; the unknown heirs of Oliver Gorman, Mary M. Allen, Cynthia W. Allen, and Charles T. Allen, minor heirs of Sarah A. Allen deceased, and all other unknown heirs of Elijah Gorman deceased^[27]

Children:

- 2 i STARLING² GORMAN, born about 1797, Pendleton District, South Carolina, resided Perry Co., Ala., beginning 1812, will dated 1 Aug. 1839, Havana, Cuba, where he died 1839, before his father's 1840 will which does not mention him.^[28] See appendix D.

Starling's will lists his ownership of two tracts of land in Perry Co. and Marengo Co., Ala., of 800 and 720 acres, respectively, and 640 acres on Deer Creek in Mississippi in several lots.^[29] The will mentions his brothers and sisters as his heirs, and names the two youngest, Felix and Sarah, for special consideration.

- 4 iii ARTEMECY² GORMAN, born about 1800, South Carolina, died Texas, married 12 Sept. 1820, Perry Co., Ala.,^[31] EWEL SEXTON HARRISON, son of John Malone and Pheriba (Chism) Harrison. See my companion book to this one on the Harrison family, for details.^[32]
- + 5 iv NANCY² GORMAN, born about 1803, probably Alabama, died before Elijah's 1840 will, married RANSOM THOMAS PAYNE.

Six land records exist for Daniel E. Harper, all in Alabama, with issue dates of 2 Apr. 1825, 2 Mar. 1837, and 23 Oct. 1839, so he must have moved to Texas in late 1839 or in 1840.^[34]

Daniel E. Harper is recorded in the 1840 Montgomery Co., Tex., tax list and the 1846 Grimes Co., Tex., tax list.^[35]

SECOND GENERATION

3. TERRELL² GORMAN (¹*Elijah*¹) was born about 1798, South Carolina, died Aug. 1840, Mississippi,^[36] before Elijah's 3 Dec. 1840 will. He married LORINDA [LORENA] —.^[37]

There is an Alabama land purchase record 5 Aug. 1834 by "Terrel Gorman of Perry County Alabama," of 83.805 acres in Autauga and Dallas Counties.^[38]

A land dispute in Texas of 1883, Mrs. M. D. Thomson v. C. E. Hines et al, contains this interesting information:

That plaintiffs were the heirs of Terrell Gorman . . . that he came to Texas in company with Jas. W. Patton in 1838 to purchase land and land claims; that he returned from Texas in February, 1840, and that he told his wife that he had secured some four thousand acres of land in Texas, and had located some more lands, but had not secured them, and deposited his deeds and certificates somewhere in Texas. He told her the place, but she could not remember the name of it, and that he never spoke of having a partner.^[39]

Children, from heirs as listed in an 1852 document transcribed in appendix B:

- + 11 i CASSANDINA [CASSANDANNA] E.³ GORMAN, born about 1831, Mississippi, married DAVID HINES, and had at least 11 children.
- + 12 ii CALISTA F.³ GORMAN, born 15 Apr. 1834, Mississippi or Alabama, married PLEASANT MARION MOBLEY, and had six children.

Children:^[44]

THE FAMILY OF ELIJAH P. GORMAN

Co., Ala.,^[48] MILTON LEWIS, born about 1818 in Alabama, “died in a yankee prison in Alton, Ill.”^[49]

Milton and Elphada Lewis had children Virginia E.⁴ Lewis, born about 1844, Ambrose Wyatt⁴ Lewis, born about 1846, and Mary A. Elvira⁴ Lewis, born about 1848, all born in Alabama.^[50]

In 1850 Sumter Co., Ala., Milton Lewis, 32, a farmer born in Alabama, resided with Elizabeth A., 23, born in Alabama, Virginia E., 6, Ambrose W., 4, and Mary A. E., 2, all born in Alabama, and Ervin Payne, 18, a farmer born in Alabama.^[51] They lived next to George S. Payne, 29, born in Alabama. These were surely her brothers Irving and George Payne, whom see below and above.

- 18 iii NANCY A.³ PAYNE, born about 1828, died before the Apr. 1852 death of Mary Gorman, according to the 1883 petition, married 9 May 1842, Sumter Co., Ala.,^[52] JAMES BRUMMETT. They had at least one child John⁴ Brummett, born about 1828, who lived in Marshall Co. Mississippi, with one infant at the time of the 1852 deposition. The 1883 petition claims that there were three sons A.B., D.W. and R. C. Brummett, which does not appear to match the 1857 accounting of Elijah Gorman’s estate in any particular Elvira Lewis) and Virginia Lewis were raised in an orphanage, that Virginia married a Greene and went west, possibly dying in the Galveston, Texas, tidal wave, that Lorene’s grandfather (and Mary Elvira’s husband) was Ivy Hines Beemon (spelling difference explicitly noted) who had already been married to Mary Jane Johnson; that Lorene’s father was Arthur Lewis⁵ Beeman; that her husband is (1985) Richard Donald Shanks, born 20 May 1928; that her daughter is Jo Ann⁷, married M. See my companion book to this one on the Harrison family for continuation of this line.^[55] She is listed as Martha Runnals in the Brummett petition of 1883.

- 21 vi TERRILL³ PAYNE, born about 1834, residing in Sumter Co., Ala. in 1852. He died, according to the 1883 petition, unmarried and with no heirs before final accounting of the estate of Elijah Gorman by Jesse Blythe on 6 Feb. 1857, as did one of Terrill's brothers, thus either George or Irving Payne.
- 22 vii IRVING³ PAYNE, born about 1836, residing in Sumter Co., Ala. in 1852. He was probably the Ervin Payne 18 living with Milton and Elphida (Payne) Lewis, his brother-in-law and sister, in the 1850 census.^[56]

THE FAMILY OF ELIJAH P. GORMAN

Tex.^[58] She married twice again to Thornton Pinckard and John Stamps.^[59] Probate records of the estate of Jane A. Stamps, dated 15 Dec. 1873, Washington Co., Tex., mention a last will and testament of hers and a codicil.^[60]

Oliver Gorman was on the Washington Co., Tex., tax rolls of 1838 and 1840.^[61] A probate court proceeding of 5 May 1857, Brenham, Washington Co., voided the sale of the Headright Certificate of Oliver Gorman, deceased.^[62] All of this suggests he was in Texas early.

Jane A. Gorman was appointed administrator of the estate of Oliver Gorman on 30 Nov. 1847, the person assigned the job in Oliver's will declining to accept the responsibility. Final settlement of the will occurred on 2 June 1857, probate court, Brenham, Washington Co., Tex., with all of the estate being given to Jane A. Gorman, widow of Oliver Gorman, deceased. The only other legatee was Felix Gorman, Oliver's brother, who "has been paid off and discharged by the compromise between the parties and conveyance of 1000 Acres of Land of the James S. Steele leagues."^[63]

In 1860 Jane A. Stamps, 41, born in North Carolina, resided in Sabine Pass, Jefferson Co., Tex., in the household of John Stamps, 61, "K K Contractor" born in Tennessee with real and personal estates valued at $59,000 and $26,000, respectively, and Mollie Stamps, 17, a "Lady of Leashure" born in Texas, and Lena Leonard, 8, born in Texas.^[64] It is not known if Mollie was Jane's child. John Stamps had 26 slaves, 21 males ages 2-55 and 5 females ages 6-45.^[65]

The inventory of the estate of Jane A. Stamps, dated 19 Dec. 1873, Washington Co., Tex., lists the following extensive real estate holdings:

Felix was a physician and “his son also became a physician;” he was executor of his father’s will, and received a Texas land grant in Nov. 1838, implying that he had been there before that time.^[70] The following captures his relatives’ impression of his abilities as executor:

Felix Gorman though he resided in said county until AD 1851 or 1852 never presented said will for Probate nor did he ever later [issue?] out letters of Executorship under the same, but on the contrary, up to January AD 1849 the said will remained as it stood at the death of the deceased, and never was presented for Probate all of which said slaves were at his death & are hired out in this county—the balance of said life estate having been improvidently squandered by the said Felix or through his instrumentality—fraudulently—disposed of.^[71]

Justice of the Peace

[The date of this document appears to read 1854, with the 4 being very small and written as if it were a superscript. I deduced the year of this document to be 1852 by the following argument:

There is a petition in the estate papers of Elijah Gorman by petitioners Jesse and Elizabeth G. Blythe, dated 5 Oct. 1852, a photocopy of which was provided to me by Sue Gorman, that contains a list of heirs that matches the list above (except for the omission of either Melissa Uldrick or Martha Harrison—the name is unreadable but her age is 24 which matches neither), given by Elizabeth G. Blythe on 6 Oct. 185[.]. In particular, the ages are identical. So apparently both documents were executed in the same year 1852.]
