Text in red is unsubstantiated at this printing, or claimed but not supported by proof, or is a question I am asking for possible future answer, or is in some other way to be considered temporary. An advantage of electronic publishing is that I can continue to improve and update the text while the mass of valid information is made available now. It is important therefore that citations mention the version number, that red items not be cited, and that the color be preserved.

Text in blue is unproved too, but comes from the Irene Hargreaves book and hence deemed worthy of consideration if obviously supplied by some relative, somehow, and sometime. Strictly speaking, items in blue await formal proof too.

LINEAGE LIST NOTATION

To facilitate stepping “backward” through the genealogy, I utilize one small addition to standard (actually “modified”) Register format. A leading subscript to a person in a lineage list is the person number for that individual in this work. For example (a fictitious one), Caleb⁶ Riggs (₅₃Joseph⁵, Joseph⁴, Edward³, Edward², Edward¹) was son of person 53, Joseph⁵ Riggs (₂₁Joseph⁴, Edward³, Edward², Edward¹), who in turn was son of person 21, Joseph⁴ Riggs, and so forth. This technique may be applied to any person in a lineage list. However, to reduce visual clutter, I will use it here for at most one person per lineage list, usually the first.

A superscript asterisk () indicates the first person in a lineage list who is not genetically related to the next older person in the list. For example (also fictitious), Nathan^{13} Knoll (₁₉₁Martha¹², Edward¹¹, Theodore¹⁰, Edward⁹, Elias⁸, Elias⁷, Preserve⁶, Zebulon⁵, ?Joseph⁴, Edward³, Edward², Edward¹) was an adopted son of Martha¹² Riggs. Note also the question mark (?) in this lineage list, indicating that the father-son relationship of Joseph⁴ and Zebulon⁵ has not been proved.

N.B. The National Genealogical Society has now carefully codified modified Register format, mentioned above, so it is often called NGSQ format. Whatever the nomenclature, the above paragraphs describe departures from it.

METHODOLOGY AND STYLE NOTES

Un sourced material. Some claims without accompanying sources are important to preserve, as hints to future researchers or simply to indicate that I am aware of commonly claimed dates, names, or places, but am not certain of them. I enter these in footnotes and not in the main text. I do not always explicitly flag these claims as unsourced, but they should be understood as such by their presence in the footnotes only. This type of information often comes from compiled, but unfortunately unsourced, genealogies that have the appearance, to me at least, of being well researched and based on solid evidence. The footnote hint might inspire a future researcher to find the elusive evidence, whereas I had not done so by the time this book went to press.

Census litany. Rather than trying to be creative on each of hundreds of census readings, I have chosen to state them with a common “litany.” To make census litanies easy to spot, I usually introduce each one with the year. For example, a reading from the U.S. census for 1900 will begin “In 1900”

Online sources. I have made much use of online sources, usually secondary, such as the listing of gravestones in a particular cemetery. The problem with this practice is the supposed ephemeral nature of the web. Many online sources may simply disappear from the web over time, or change addresses at least. I have therefore made a copy of every webpage used in this work and archived it for future reference. Very notable exceptions are the many databases available from major servers, such as <Ancestry.com>, which I assume, with some trepidation, will be permanently available by some means. The URL for a website is identified by enclosing < > brackets. When a URL needs to wrap at the end of a line for good visual appearance, I have inserted a hyphen in an appropriate location. This line-breaking hyphen should be omitted, of course, when the URL is used as an internet address.

Abbreviations. To fit this book into one bound volume, I have resorted to abbreviations. With one exception, I always abbreviate state names and month names. I do not abbreviate state names in the main text that stand alone. However, state names in footnotes are always abbreviated, even in the titles of books.

I do not abbreviate anything in a quotation. An abbreviation in a quotation is present in the original.

I use succinct forms for the sources in footnotes. The bibliography should be consulted for full expansion of a source reference. See the abbreviations section of the front matter for the full list of abbreviations used in the census references. In all cases, the census was read from <Ancestry.com>, and the roll numbers correspond to the microfilm series used by that organization.

Verb tenses. Past tense is normally used, but a record is described in the present—e.g., Joe Riggs was born in 1836, but a death certificate for Joe Riggs states that he was born in 1836.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

To Irene Hargreaves for her book and to the family members who assisted her with the genealogy it contains. And to Barrett⁶ Hargreaves and his book. (See bibliography for details of both books.) And most recently to Ken⁷ Hargreaves who helped with the Hargreaves branch in the appendix.

PREFACE

One of the earliest computer graphics systems in the world was DAC-1 (Design Augmented by Computers) at General Motors Research, published in 1964. The first author of the paper was Barrett Hargreaves. This book is devoted to discovering if he might have been related to either the Henry Hargreaves family (mine) or the John Hargreaves family both of Lancashire. While creating this genealogy, I discovered a more extensive one in the Family History Library in Salt Lake City by Irene Hargreaves, then Barrett⁶ Hargreaves himself of DAC-1 fame sent me Oct. 2014 a copy of Irene's book.^[1] I have fleshed out my genealogy with hers in the places indicated (or vice versa).

N.B. Barnoldswick (known locally as Barlick) is 11 miles northeast of Padiham (ancestral home of the Henry Hargreaves family), Lancashire, separated more-or-less by Pendle Hill. The shortest modern road between them passes from Padiham through Higham (ancestral home of the John Hargreaves family) along Barrowford Road to Barrowford, then along Barnoldswick Road to Barnoldswick. An alternate route passes through Burnley, then Colne, then to Barnoldswick. Barnoldswick is named in the Domesday Book (as Bernulfsuuic) and was formerly part of the West Riding of Yorkshire. It is now in the West Craven area of the Borough of Pendle in Lancashire. It's the highest town on the Leeds and Liverpool Canal. So, although Barnoldswick was originally in Yorkshire, and is so listed in this book, it is now in Lancashire.

Note re DNA: A DNA test has been completed that compared a living descendant of John Hargreaves (probably he baptized 30 May 1708, Padiham, Lancashire) to a living descendant of Richard Hargreaves (who married 23 Oct. 1809, Padiham). So both patriarchs were of the Padiham/Burnley area. The DNA test yielded interesting results, indicating a possible genetic connection. Following are the Y-chromosome DNA signatures of Tony (from John) and Alan (from Richard), where a = 1, b = 2, . . . , z = 26, A = 27, B = 28, . . . , Z = 52, is used to shorten the list of 67 numbers. The locations (markers) where the two signature differ are shown in blue:

nwojopkmknlEohjkkzntAknokisunnpqHLlj:khophkjhjiluvokllmimAtkmlkllk.

See my book John Hargreaves of Lancashire for the genealogy of Tony's family. See my book Henry Hargreaves (1811–1899), Immigrant in 1840 to New South Wales, Australia, from Lancashire, England, and His Family for the genealogy of Alan's family.

So Tony and Alan match at 60 of 67 markers. This is not enough to guarantee a MRCA = Most Recent Common Ancestor within historical time, but probabilities give a 96% chance of sharing an MRCA within 28 generations with this amount of (mis)matching. At 25 years per generation, that implies a MRCA about seven centuries ago. So sometime after about 1300 Tony and Alan shared a common ancestor, with high probability. Another way to say this is that there probably was one Hargreaves patriarch several centuries ago from whom all the Hargreaveses in or from the Padiham/Burnley area descend. This is a theory only, as we have only two samples.

1. Barrett⁶ Hargreaves of DAC-1 fame sent me Oct. 2014 a copy of Irene Hargreaves, Story of William and Grace Hargreaves, and I thank him for it. Its pp. 215–322 hold the Hargreaves genealogy. He also sent me a copy of his own genealogy of the families involved: Barrett Hargreaves, What's in a Name?

I now have a DNA sample from the Stephen Hargreaves family for comparison. Indeed, Barrett⁶ Hargreaves has contributed a sample. The blue markers are as before. The red markers show where Barrett's signature differs uniquely from the other two.

Barrett⁶ Hargreaves (55Louis Herbert⁵, William⁴, William³, James², Stephen¹):

nwojookmknIDohjkkzntzknokisunmqrHMIj:khophkjhjiluvoknImimAtkmllkllk.

See this book for Barrett's genealogy. Notice that Barrett's signature differs by 5 from Tony's and by 10 from Alan's. 10 is a large distance, which discourages belief in a common ancestor for those two gentlemen.

Finally, I have discovered another genetic signature that matches Barrett's fairly closely (64 of 67 markers).

Ken P.⁷ Hargreaves (William Garry⁶, William Edward⁵, [John] James⁴, Edward³, James², Robert¹):

nwojookmknIDohjkkzntzknookisunmqrHNlj:khophkjhjiluvoknImimztkmllkllk.

See the appendix of this book for Ken's genealogy. Notice that Barrett's signature differs by only 3 from Ken's, indicating an almost certain common ancestor—hence their presence in one book. I hasten to add that no such ancestor has yet been found.

Ken's signature differs by 8 from Tony's and by 13 from Alan's. These are large distances in genetics, again discouraging the notion of a common ancestor for these three lines despite the geographic nearness.

Note added 5 June 2021: Ken P. Hargreaves has sent me his 111-marker YDNA results, 44 more markers than recorded above. He differs by one on marker number 102 of the additional markers, (numbers 68–111) from the only other Hargreaves for whom I have 111-marker results, Daniel Hargreaves of the John Hargreaves book. For convenience, I list Ken's additional 44 markers:

The B for Ken is an A for Daniel.

STEPHEN HARGREAVES AND HIS FAMILY

FIRST GENERATION

1. STEPHEN¹ HARGREAVES^[2] was probably he of Carleton-in-Craven, Yorkshire, in 1788–1796 for his marriage and the baptisms of several of his children, and then of Barnoldswick, Yorkshire, in 1797–1801 for the baptisms of several more of his children. The argument that the Stephen Hargreaves, and his wife Ann, of these two towns are the same persons depends on the neat timing of those baptisms and the nearness of the two towns. Carleton-in-Craven and Barnoldswick are about six miles apart as the crow flies, so probably about 10 miles apart by road routes (see Figure 2). After formulating this theory, I discovered that my correspondent on this family, Barrett⁶ Hargreaves, had already discovered it and written about it in his book on the family.^[3]

Only two pieces of evidence call this theory into question, and they are soft. One is that the 1841 census has son James born about 1791 in Yorkshire. The other is that the 1851 census has him born about 1790 in Barnoldswick. The English censuses are often fairly accurate, so I don't simply dismiss their ages (as I do U.S. census ages). But the census records for Stephen, putative brother of our James, are inaccurate. The 1841 census has him born about 1801, where his baptism was in 1793! And the 1851 has him born about 1795 (in "Carlton," Yorkshire, however). So I believe that the two census anomalies for James are not sufficiently strong to discount the theory stated above. I will assume its validity in this book, after stating these caveats.

Additional support for the theory of the move from Carleton-in-Craven to Barnoldswick between the baptisms of 1796 and 1797 is this: The Leeds-Liverpool Canal was completed to Barnoldswick in 1796, suddenly thrusting that town into major importance in the area. (I thank my correspondent Barrett⁶ Hargreaves for pointing out this coincidence.)^[4] Stephen Hargreaves was a waller, meaning that he built walls. It is conceivable that he had a part in building the walls of the canal, but I have no proof that he did, nor that wallers were so employed. It is interesting that his abode in Barnoldswick was given as Long Ing.^[5] A surviving reminder of that name is Long Ing Road that passes directly over the Leeds-Liverpool Canal.

Stephen married 21 Dec. 1788, St. Mary, Carleton-in-Craven,^[6] ANN THORNTON. See son John's baptism record to see that her name in Barnoldswick was Ann.

I inspected the Barnoldswick parish record (for the St. Mary-le-Gill church, book 1: 1722–1812), baptisms and burials (and a few marriages), and found these meager Hargreaves listings, especially meager considering how common the surname was in the environs then [notice the long gaps]:^[7]

Marriage 1726: "June 30 John Hargraves [sic] & Elisabeth Edmundson with banns both of Brockden."

2. Hargreaves, Story of William and Grace Hargreaves, 223, has Stephen born about 1768, Barnoldswick but this appear to have been guessed, using a marriage age of about 22 or 23. Items in [blue are from this book and have not been vetted by me.]

3. Hargreaves, What's in a Name?, 17–19.

4. Hargreaves, What's in a Name?, 21–23.

5. Ing is an old word of Norse origin meaning meadow, especially water meadow near a river. From Yorkshire Dialect Words of Old Norse Origin, <www.viking.no/e/england/yorkshire_norse.htm>, accessed 7 Nov. 2014.

6. West Yorkshire, England, Baptisms, Marriages and Burials, 1512–1812, St. Mary, Carleton-in-Craven, Yorkshire, 1788 marriages, image online, p. 73, "Stephen Hargreaves Bachelor and Ann Thornton Spinster both of this Parish by Banns Dec. 21" and "Banns of Marriage between Stephen Hargreaves Labourer & a Bachelor and Ann Thornton Spinster Were published [empty] of Parish [empty] No. 175 The said Stephen Hargreaves and Ann Thornton both of this Parish were Married in this Church by Banns this Twenty first Day of December in the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty Eight by me Tho^s Slater Curate This Marriage was solemnized between Us Stephen Hargreaves + his Mark Ann Thornton In the Presence of George Smith Thomas Johnson."

7. Lancashire, England, Baptisms, Marriages and Burials, 1536–1812, Mary-le-Gill Church, Barnoldswick, Yorkshire, 1722–1812, images online. The church name is often shortened in the records to just Gill Church.

STEPHEN HARGREAVES AND HIS FAMILY

Baptism 1728: "November 23 John son of John Hargraves [sic] weaver of Brockden."

Marriage 1738: "Marryd Aprill 24 John Hargraves [sic] of Whaley [sic] parish & Jane Dickenson of Barnoldswick by Licence from Yorke."

Baptism 1739: "Thomas son of John Hargraves [sic] laborer of Barnoldswick July 5."

Burial 1740: "Thomas son of John Hargraves [sic] laborer of Barnoldswick November 11."

Baptism 1745: "[?]llon son of John Hargraves [sic] laborer of Barnoldswick May 13."

Marriage 1749: "Richard Hargraves [sic] of Satterforth & Margaret Hudson both [sic] of this parish with banns. October 29."

Burial 1753: "Rich^d Hargreaves of Barnoldswick ([Drover? Drovxer? Drovier?]) May 21st."

Burial 1756: "James Son of John Hargreaves de Barnoldswick May 12th."

Baptism 1757: "James Son of John Hargreaves of Downham [Lancashire] May 29th."

Burial 1758: "John Hargreaves from Barnoldswick (Mason) April 13th."

Burial 1763: "Elizabeth Hargreaves Widdow of Barnolds^k April 26th."

Burial 1784: "January 19th Elizabeth daugh^r of James Hargreaves of Thornton Weaver & Margret his wife."

Burial 1795: "March 11th James son of James Hargreaves of Barnoldswick Weaver & Isabel his Wife."

The next found was John's baptism (see Children) in 1797, the first mention of Stephen Hargreaves (and Ann). Then the next two found were the baptism and burial of Peter (see Children). Then this:

Burial 1801: "February 27th James Hargreaves of Barnoldswick Cotton Weaver."

The next found was Martha's baptism (see Children) in 1801. Then a long gap before these:

Baptism 1809: "26 [child name and seniority] Betty 1 [father and abode] William Hargreaves of Barnoldswick [mother] Jane Sutcliffe [born] Apl 23rd [baptized] July 16."

Baptism 1811: "21 [child name and seniority] Thomas 2 [father and abode] William Hargreaves Barnoldswick Lane [mother] Jane Sutcliffe [born] Oct^r 31st 1810 [baptized] July 29th."

Baptism 1811: "30 [child name and seniority] Thomas 1 [father and abode] Anthony Hargreaves New Home [mother] Susannah Dewherst [born] Augt 5th [baptized] Sept^r 1st 1811."

There were no further Hargreaveses found in the book (through 1812). This further supports the theory that Stephen Hargreaves came from the nearby parish of Carleton-in-Craven.

For future reference: I inspected the Carleton-in-Craven parish record (for St. Mary church) and found these Hargreaves listings, hinting at possible relatives of Stephen Hargreaves of that town:^[8]

Baptism 1794: "James Son of John Hargreaves weaver Oct. 19."

Marriage 1796: "William Hargreaves Cotton spinner & a Bachelor and Betty Pickels Spinster both of this Parish by Banns Nov 3^d"

Baptism 1799: "William Son of William & Elizabeth Hargreaves Sep^r 4th"

Marriage 1801: "John Hargreaves & Sarah Smith by Banns 1801 Jan. 29th"

STEPHEN HARGREAVES AND HIS FAMILY

THIRD GENERATION

10. MARY³ HARGREAVES (₂James², Stephen¹) was baptized 2 Nov. 1817, Barnoldswick, Yorkshire.^[61] She married 14 Jan. 1839, Barnoldswick,^[62] CHRISTOPHER EDMONDSON, born about 1819, Barnoldswick, son of John Edmondson.

In 1851 Christopher Edmondson, 32, a green grocer born in Barnoldswick, Yorkshire, England, resided in Habergham Eaves, Lancashire, with his wife, Mary, 33, born in Barnoldswick, daughter, Ann, 13, a power loom weaver, sons, William, 10, and James, 7, daughter, Margaret, 5, all born in Barnoldswick, and son, John, 9 months, born in Habergham Eaves.^[63]

In 1861 “Christ” Edmondson, 43, a huckster born in Barnoldswick, resided in Burnley, Habergham Eaves, Lancashire, with his wife, Mary, 43, born in Barnoldswick, sons, William, 20, and James, 17, both button weavers born in Barnoldswick, son, John, 9, daughter, Margaret, 8, son, Thomas, 5, daughter, Alice, 3, and son, Joseph, 3, all born in Burnley, Lancashire. Also in the household is John Tomlinson, 25, born in Burnley, his wife, Hannah, 22, born in Barnoldswick, and their daughter, Mary Hannah, 2, birthplace not given.^[64] Hannah was probably Ann of the 1851 census, verified as such by the next census.

In 1871 “Chist” Edmondson, 53, a green grocer born in Barnoldswick, resided in Habergham Eaves, Burnley, Lancashire, with his wife, Mary, 53, born in Barnoldswick, daughter, Margaret, 18, a cotton weaver, son, Thomas, 15, a liquor merchant’s boy, daughter, Alice, 13, and son, Joseph, 13, both cotton weavers, all born in Burnley, Lancashire, and granddaughter, Mary Ann Tomlinson, 11, born in Burnley.^[65]

In 1881 Christopher Edmondson, 64, a green grocer born in Barnoldswick, resided in Habergham Eaves, Burnley, Lancashire, with his wife, Mary, 64, born in Barnoldswick, son, Thomas, 25, an unmarried green grocer, both born in Burnley, and boarders, Mary A. Tomlinson, 21, a dressmaker, Elizabeth E. Tomlinson, 19, a cotton weaver, both born in Burnley, and Maria Tomlinson, 13, a packer born in Accrington, Lancashire.^[66]

She was 48, born in Horton, in the 1871 census for Barnoldswick. This doesn’t fit.)

STEPHEN HARGREAVES AND HIS FAMILY

- 26 i ANN/HANNAH⁴ EDMONDSON, born about 1838, Barnoldswick, married JOHN TOMLINSON, born about 1836, Burnley, and had at least one child: (1) Mary Ann/Hannah⁵ Tomlinson, born about 1859, Burnley. Ann's birth year suggests that she was conceived out of wedlock.
- 27 ii WILLIAM⁴ EDMONDSON, born about 1841, Barnoldswick.
- 28 iii JAMES⁴ EDMONDSON, born about 1844, Barnoldswick.
- 29 iv MARGARET⁴ EDMONDSON, born about 1846, Barnoldswick. Presumably died young.
- 30 v JOHN⁴ EDMONDSON, born about 1850, Burnley, Habergham Eaves, Lancashire.
- 31 vi MARGARET⁴ EDMONDSON, born about 1852, Burnley.
- 32 vii THOMAS⁴ EDMONDSON, born about 1856, Burnley.
- 33 viii ALICE⁴ EDMONDSON (twin), born about 1858, Burnley.
- 34 ix JOSEPH⁴ EDMONDSON (twin), born about 1858, Burnley.

11. ANN³ HARGREAVES (James², Stephen¹) was baptized 3 Sept. 1820, Barnoldswick.^[67] She perhaps had a daughter out of wedlock (see 1841 census), Ann⁴ Hargreaves, born about 1839, Yorkshire. She is easily confused with Ann Hargreaves, born about 1827 or 1828, Barnoldswick. See records below.

An Ann Hargreaves married 15 Oct. 1848, Barnoldswick,^[68] William Eccleston, who was born about 1820, Barnoldswick, son of John Eccleston. But this Ann's father was listed as James [F?]oldsworth, and her age as 21 at marriage, making her birth about 1827, in Barnoldswick. So this marriage doesn't fit.

In 1871 William Eccleston, 50, a carter born in Barnoldswick, Yorkshire, resided in Barnoldswick with his wife, Ann, 43 [sic], born Barnoldswick, daughters Martha, 18, and Mahetabel, 13, cotton weavers, son John, 10, cotton weaver, and daughter, Rachel, 8, all four born in Barnoldswick. William "Hargreaves" was listed adjacently.^[69]

12. WILLIAM³ HARGREAVES (James², Stephen¹) was born 14 June 1824, Barnoldswick, Yorkshire, and was baptized 17 Aug. 1824, Wesley Chapel, Colne, Lancashire.^[70] He died 20 June 1899, with

There was a William Eccleston married to Ann Hargreaves, 23, born Barnoldswick, in the 1851 census for Barnoldswick, but she was daughter of Martha Hargreaves, 50, unmarried, born in Barnoldswick. Nothing quite fits for her. There was also an Ann (Feldsouth) Hargreaves who married William Eccleston, 15 Oct. 1848, but this is not our Ann Hargreaves (see next note).

APPENDIX: A RELATED HARGREAVES FAMILY

The Hargreaves family here is from the same area in Yorkshire (now Lancashire) that the Stephen Hargreaves family is from. And there is a DNA match between descendants of both (matching on 64 of 67 markers). Hence the goal here is to find, if possible, a genealogical link between the two families.

The most important two towns are Barnoldswick for the Stephen Hargreaves family and Skipton for the Robert Hargreaves family below. They are about six miles apart in what was formerly Yorkshire West Riding. Skipton is about 18 miles from Burnley, a center for the Henry Hargreaves family, and about 25 miles from Accrington, center of the John Hargreaves family. But these small distances mattered a lot in the early days of these four families.

Although many of the early records of the following family use the form Hargraves for the surname, I have opted to always spell it Hargreaves, the modern form of the name that this family now uses.

1. ROBERT¹ HARGREAVES married JANE —. Perhaps the Robert “Hargraves” who was baptized 9 Aug. 1747, Long Preston, Yorkshire,^[196] son of Robert and Elizabeth (—) “Hargraves,” and married 1 Sept. 1777, Long Preston, Yorkshire,^[197] Jane Hartley. The parents were probably Robert “Hargraves” who married 1737, Long Preston,^[198] Elizabeth Whalley.

N.B. Long Preston, Skipton, and Barnoldswick, all in Yorkshire West Riding, form an equilateral triangle about 6 miles on a side.

Children:

270. His name is James in every record except for the 1871 census where it is John J., which might have been therefore an error. Because of this one record his name is often given as John James Hargreaves, but I won’t preserve that tradition unless other evidence is found to support it.

275. It is possible that Martha was born out of wedlock. There is a Martha Hartley, 2, born Burnley, in the household of her uncle Jonathan Hartley in the 1861 census, which also includes two unmarried sisters, Ann, 25, born Barnoldswick, Yorkshire, and Grace, 17, born Trawden, Lancashire. There was a baptism 15 Aug. 1858, Holy Trinity, Habertham Eaves, of Martha Hartley, daughter of Ann Hartley, born 22 July 1858, with this [crossed out] note: “Father’s name entered as Benjamin Hartley and mother’s name entered as Clegg, both crossed out and change initialled J. B.,” where James Butler was the minister who performed the baptism. But there was also a marriage 14 Jan. 1857, Holy Trinity, Habertham Eaves, of William Hartley, 21, to Ann Cherry, 18, which fits perfectly with father William and mother Ann. But William and Ann in the 1871 census have no children. I haven’t yet been able to reconcile all this.

Eliza married, first, 13 July 1882, St. Matthew the Apostle, Habergham Eaves, Lancashire,^[281] Harry Horner, son of David Horner. In 1911 James Hargreaves, 52, widower, a grocer and baker born in Skipton, Yorkshire, resided in Burnley, Lancashire, with his daughter, Sarah Ellen, 21, a cotton winder born in Burnley, and three boarders, including Eliza Horner, 50, married and having had no children, born in Burnley, and Peter Proctor, 73, a widower born in Burnley.^[285] Eliza was Peter’s daughter.

In 1917 James’s son, William Edward, enlisted in the Canadian armed forces. The enlistment paper mentions that his father, James, was in Blackpool then.^[286] This is consistent with the following obituary for Eliza, James’s second wife:

married twice. Previous to going to reside in Blackpool, about 24 years ago [sic, about 1910], she was widely known in connection with a confectionary business which the family held in St. Matthew-street, but she had to leave for the seaside resort on account of ill-health. Seven years ago [about 1927] she returned with her family, and resumed her connection with St. Matthew's church, where she was a much respected member of the congregation. She was an old scholar of Back-lane Sunday School. One of Mrs. Hargreaves' chief delights was painting, and she produced many beautiful examples of artistic craftsmanship. She was 74 years of age, and leaves a husband, two daughters and a son, the latter being in Canada. The interment will take place to-morrow in the Burnley Cemetery.^[287]

From an obituary for William, published 24 Mar. 1947, Kenton, Manitoba, Canada:

William Edward Hargreaves, 62, who died suddenly March 17, was buried in Greenwood cemetery, March 19 . . . Born in Burnlee [sic], Yorkshire [sic], Eng., Mr. Hargreaves came to Canada as a young man and settled 18 years ago at Kenton. He was a veteran of World War I. . . . Surviving are his wife; one daughter, Nurse Burna, of Neepawa hospital; three sons, Garry, Jack and Norris, and two sisters in England.^[297]

The family story is that William Edward came to Canada at age 19, so in about 1903.^[298]

William Edward Hargreaves applied for a homestead patent in Saskatchewan stating that he first entered a claim 1 May 1907, built a house on it Dec. 1907, and began living in it 27 Oct. 1907. He resided there 27 Oct. 1907 to 3 May 1909 and 6 Nov. 1909 to 5 Aug. 1910, and otherwise resided in Silverton, Manitoba.^[299]

The World War I record of William Edward Hargreaves as a soldier for Canada, dated 15 Sept. 1917, gives his birth as 21 Jan. 1887, Burnley, son of James Hargreaves, which appears to be in error by 3 years. He resided at the time of enlistment at Silverton, Manitoba, Canada. The location of his father, James, at the time, was Blackpool, Lancashire.^[302]

On 6 Apr. 1920 William Edward Hargreaves, 33, and H. A. Hargreaves, 25, a married couple, arrived on the Empress of France in St. John, New Brunswick, from Liverpool, England. They had resided in Silverton, Canada, for 14 years, from 1905 to 1919. He was a merchant born in England, and

Here are those four marriages:

In 1780, John Overing married Rebecca Stevenson in the Long Preston parish church.

In 1784, Christopher Wellock married Alice Dobson in the Kirkby Malham parish church.

In 1785, Henry Stanley married Mary Boocock in the Gisburn parish church.

In 1788, Stephen Hargraves married Ann Thornton in the Carleton-in-Craven parish church.

Here are the towns and hamlets of our ancestors. Between 1790 and 1850 our ancestral families migrated to Barnoldswick which was becoming a major cotton-weaving town.
