Generation 4 (with Generation 5 Children)

FOURTH GENERATION

The full census analysis of the fourth generation, which was omitted for size considerations from the published book, is presented here. Please consult the book for proofs of all stated non-census facts. And consult the book's bibliography for full details on all references in the footnotes. A child entry preceded by a plus (+) sign will be expanded in volume 2 of the Edwardian Riggs series, covering generations 5-10 of the Bethuel Riggs family. Since the page numbers of the following do not (cannot) match those of the book, a full name index of this document is provided.

89. MARY [“MINNIE”] E.⁴ WEBB (₁₃*Thaddeus R.³ Webb, Jane², Bethuel¹*) was born 18 July 1844 (gravestone and 1900 census), Ohio, died 22 or 24 Sept. 1906, Hot Springs, Fall River Co., S.D., and was buried in the Lake Ripley Cem., Litchfield, Meeker Co., Minn. Charles described his early life in a deposition submitted for a Civil War pension increase, 14 Aug. 1902, from Grant Co., S.D.:

I was born and reared in Clinton, Kennebak [sic] Co Maine. When I was about 20 years of age I came to Wisc. and made my headquarters at Fon du lac but worked mostly in the Pineries[?]. I came west in the spring of 1856 and stayed a little over a year and then came to where Cedar Mills, Meeker Co. Minn. is and lived there till I enlisted. I took up a homestead and preempted it. I lived by myself and farmed. My farm was about a mile from the post office. I lived there after the war until 1880 when I removed to Brown Co. S.D. and lived a mile from Columbia P.O. till last winter. I came here in Dec. I have farmed ever since I went to Cedar Mills, Minn. . . . When I was discharge[d] I came back to my claim. Everyt[h]ing I had had been destroyed by the Indians and I went to work on the claim making my home with my wifes father T. R. Webb (decd). I married Feby 22 1866 and moved onto my claim. I lived there continuously till I came to S.D. in 1880.

THE FAMILY OF ELDER BETHUEL RIGGS

His generous heart was touched and, though a bachelor, he possessed the paternal instinct. They were orphans and he proceeded to make them his daughters by adoption. This was two years ago. In those two years the elder girl changed from short to longer skirts and into the charming stage of early womanhood. Mr. Webb began to have "a feelin' in his heart" which was different from the feelin' which first caused him to pity the forlorn girls and then adopt them, but the different feelin' was all for the older sister. Cupid was crowding out the father—that's plain to be seen And Izetha became enmeshed in love's web—or Webb's love—and not long ago the two decided that—not withstanding the disparity in ages—they would "make a team" and to avoid any possible legal complications over the matter of the erstwhile adoption of the bride by the groom they went to Iowa to have the knot tied, and it was securely tied under the laws of that state and in the presence of two witnesses.

On 20 Jan. 1903, Prescott C. Webb, 41, of Ellsworth, Meeker Co., Minn., gave a deposition in the matter of a pension increase for his brother-in-law, Charles H. Stinchfield.

Prescott C. Webb, an unmarried man of Meeker Co., Minn., sold 40 acres of Meeker Co. land to Nimrod Barrick of Meeker Co., for $1,400 on 26 July 1904.

On 21 Feb. 1905 Belle C. and Lowell S. Weymouth, of Fresno, Fresno Co., Calif., deeded 40 acres of the old family property holdings in Meeker Co., Minn., to Prescott C. Webb, of Hutchinson, McLeod Co., Minn. Prescott then mortgaged this property to Harriett E. Roraback of Hennepin Co., Minn., on 19 Feb. 1906 for $1,200.

On 16 July 1906 P. C. Webb, a single man, mortgaged two parcels in Meeker Co. to Harriet E. Roraback for $2,000.

On 16 Jan. 1907 Prescott C. T. Webb, a single man in Meeker Co., Minn., sold about 80 acres to Vincent P. Barrick of Meeker Co., for $5,500, and Vincent assumed the $2,000 mortgage to Harriett E. Roraback.

The First National Bank of Litchfield, Meeker Co., Minn., assumed the $1,200 mortgage, previously mentioned, on 20 June 1907, Prescott C. Webb and his wife (of three months), Izetha F., of Hutchinson, McLeod Co., Minn., signed the warranty deed.

97. VIOLA ANN⁴ SHAW (¹⁷Idea³ Webb, Jane², Bethuel¹) was born about 1850, Ohio. She married 27 May 1880, Clermont Co., Ohio, ELWOOD M. REED, who was born Apr. 1854 (1900 census), Ohio, possibly son of Enos F. and Maria S. (–) Reed. Whether Elwood is related to Lula Reed, who married Viola’s brother, James, is unknown.

In 1880 Viola “Read,” 30, resided with her father, John Shaw, 70, in Ohio Twp., Clermont Co., Ohio.^[41] However, she was listed twice in 1880. The second time she was Viola S. Reed, 30, and was with her husband, Elwood M. Reed, 26, a chemist, in Portsmouth, Scioto Co., Ohio. They had been married during the census year. Both were natives of Ohio, as were all of their parents.^[42] Then to confuse matters further, in 1880 Elwood “Read,” 24, an analytical chemist born in Ohio of Ohio natives, resided in Portsmouth, Scioto Co., Ohio, with his wife, Viola, 24, born in Ohio of Ohio natives. They were in the household of Elwood’s parents, Enos F. “Read,” 51, a druggist born in Ohio of a father born in Maine and a mother in Pennsylvania, and his wife, Maria S., 44, born in Ohio of Ohio natives. Also in the household was Elwood’s sister, A. Estelle, 21, born in Ohio.^[43]

In 1900 Elwood Reed, 40 [sic], a “Kemist,” born Apr. 1854 in Ohio, resided in Rochester, Monroe Co., N.Y., with his wife of 23 [sic] years, Viola, 46, born Jan. 1854 [sic] in Ohio. She had had three children, of

ELIZABETH² BRANCH

102. JOHN MORGAN⁴ TURNBULL (₂₀*Sarah Jane*³ *Smith, Elizabeth*², *Bethuel*¹) was born 13 Mar. 1834, Missouri, and died 29 July 1897, Lincoln Co., Mo., and was buried in the Admire Cem., Lincoln Co. He married 24 Sept. 1857, Lincoln Co., Mo., MATILDA ELSTON, who was born 11 June 1838 or 11 July 1838 (gravestone), Kentucky, and died 6 Aug. 1904, Lincoln Co., and was buried in the Admire Cem.

Living two households away from the George W. and Sarah Turnbull family in the 1850 Lincoln Co., Mo., census was the family of Willett and Elizabeth (–) Elston, with several children, including Matilda Elston, 12, born in Kentucky, who is taken to be the “girl next door” who married John. Willet and Elizabeth Elston were buried near to J. M. and Matilda Turnbull in the Admire Cem.

In 1860 Morgan Turnbull, 25, a farmer born in Missouri with real and personal estates of $200 and $571, respectively, resided in Chantilly, Monroe Twp., Lincoln Co., Mo., with Matilda, 23, born in Kentucky, and with David, 10/12, born in Missouri.^[51]

In 1870 John M. “Trumbul,” 36, an illiterate farmer born in Missouri with real estate worth $100, resided in Monterey, Calhoun Co., Ill., with Matilda, 33, born in Kentucky, and with David, 10, Mary, 8, James, 6, all three born in Missouri, and Richard, 4, and Elizabeth, 2, both born in Illinois. Next door was William H. Smith.^[52]

In 1880 John M. Turnbull, 45, a farmer who could not read or write, born in Missouri of Kentucky natives, resided in Snow Hill, Lincoln Co., Mo., with his wife, “Matild,” 41, born in Missouri of Kentucky natives, and with son, David, 20, born in Missouri, daughter, Mary, 18, born in Missouri, son, “Ritchard,” 14, born in Illinois, daughter, Elizabeth, 11, born in Illinois, twins, Albert and Sarah, 8, born in Illinois, son, Franklin,

THE FAMILY OF ELDER BETHUEL RIGGS

5, born in Illinois, daughter, Missouri, 3, born in Missouri, and son, Riley, 10/12, born Aug. 1879 in Missouri.^[53]

In 1900 Matilda Turnbull, 61, a widow born July 1838 in Kentucky of Kentucky natives, resided in Snow Hill Twp., Lincoln Co., Mo. She had had 13 children, of whom 10 survived. Three of them resided with her: her daughter, Missouri, 23, born Oct. 1876, and her sons, "Rily," 20, born June 1879, and Howard C., 16, born Feb. 1884, all three born in Missouri.^[54] Riley was listed twice in this census (q.v.).

On 12 July 1936, the Turnbull family held a family reunion in Troy, Lincoln Co., Mo., and had a photograph taken. It is described in this Troy Free Press article of 29 Nov. 1995, "Lincoln County Recollections," by Charles R. Williams, Historian:

My friend [David] Eldon Turnbull came by the other day with an old picture he found while going through a drawer.

He said I may want to use it for my old picture collection. It's a reunion of the Turnbull family on July 12, 1936.

Dick Turnbull was Harold's grand dad and Omer and Archie's dad. Dick was also a farmer. Albert Turnbull lived at Wellsville, Mo.

David was the oldest at 76 and Howard the youngest at 52.

GENERATION 4

- 417 ii MARY⁵ TURNBULL, born about 1862, Missouri, and died before 18 Mar. 1944 (her sister Sarah's death), and probably before the 12 July 1936 family reunion in which she does not appear.
- 418 iii JAMES⁵ TURNBULL, born about 1864, Missouri, and died before the 1880 census.
- + 419 iv RICHARD L.⁵ TURNBULL, born Feb. 1866, Illinois, married MARY LEE LARUE, and had four children and adopted another.

- + 426 xi HOWARD C.⁵ TURNBULL, born 22 Feb. 1884, Missouri, married MABLE A. LOTT. He resided with his mother in 1900.

103. CASSA [CASSIE] ANN⁴ TURNBULL (₂₀*Sarah Jane³ Smith, Elizabeth², Bethuel¹*) was born 8 Mar. 1836 (death certificate), Lincoln Co., Mo., died 7 Nov. 1918, Moscow Mills, Clark Twp., Lincoln Co., Mo., and was buried 9 Nov. 1918 in Thornhill Cem., Lincoln Co. She married 27 Feb. 1855, Lincoln Co., NORMAN CREECH, who was born about 1828, Missouri, and died before the 1900 census.

There was a "Cassey" Ann Turnbull who married 22 Feb. 1852, Lincoln Co., Berthier Jameson, but this family appeared in the 1860 census, showing "Cassy" Ann to have been born about 1832, and therefore not Cassa [Cassie] Ann⁴.

THE FAMILY OF ELDER BETHUEL RIGGS

In 1860 Norman Creech, 31, a farmer born in Missouri with real estate worth $250, resided in Monroe Twp., Lincoln Co., Mo., (but used the Wellsburgh, St. Charles Co., post office), with "Cassy," 21, born in Missouri, and "W^m" H., 4, born in Missouri.^[55]

In 1870 Norman Creech, 45, a farmer born in Missouri with real and personal estates worth $400 and $800, respectively, resided in Chantilly, Monroe Twp., Lincoln Co., Mo., with Cassa, 35, born in Missouri, and with Henry, 12, Virgil, 10, Ann, 4 [possibly 6], and Cassa, 3/12, born in Mar., all four born in Missouri.^[56] The ages here are uniformly suspect, except perhaps newborn Cassa. Henry must be William H. of 1860, and Ann must be Sarah, known to have been born Mar. 1864 by the 1900 census.

In 1880 Norman "Creach," 52, a farmer born in Missouri of a father born in Tennessee and a mother in Missouri, resided in Snow Hill, Lincoln Co., Mo., with his wife, Cassie A., 44, born in Missouri of Missouri natives, and with son, Virgil, 14, daughter, Mary M., 12, son, Albert, 10, daughter, Dosia E., 8, and son, Norman A., 6, all born in Missouri.^[57]

In 1900 Cassie "Creich" [Creech], 64, a widow born Mar. 1836 in Missouri of a father born in Tennessee and a mother in Missouri, resided in Monroe Twp., Lincoln Co., Mo. Cassie had had 14 children, with 7 surviving. Sharing her household was her daughter, Sarah Dowell, 34, a widow born Mar. 1864 in Missouri of Missouri natives (q.v.). Cassie's mother, Sarah J., 86, also resided in the household.^[58]

In 1910 Cassie Creech, 74, a widow born in Missouri of Missouri natives, resided in Moscow Mills, Clark Twp., Lincoln Co., Mo., in the household of her son, Andrew (q.v.). She was the mother of 13 children, with 7 surviving. Next door was her daughter, Sarah Dowell.^[59]

She was perhaps reinterred in Wilson Cem., Calhoun Co., Ill.

THE FAMILY OF ELDER BETHUEL RIGGS

In 1850 Mary Smith, 8, born in North Carolina, resided in Point Precinct, Calhoun Co., Ill., in the household of John Greene, 26, born in Illinois, and Mary Greene, 27, born in Illinois, Martha Smith, 12, born in North Carolina, and Benjamin (there are no ditto marks so the surname is uncertain), 5, born in Illinois.^[60] It is barely possible that Mary Greene had Martha and Mary Smith from a previous marriage, then married a second time. Or, perhaps the three children lost their parents for some reason and were taken into the Greene home. Benjamin appears to be Benjamin Hamilton, 15, born in North Carolina and residing in the household of John W. Green, 36, born in North Carolina, in Richwoods Precinct, Calhoun Co., in 1860.^[61] Mary's son was named Benjamin H. Turnbull, who might have been named for Benjamin Hamilton.

In 1860 James Turnbull, 23, a laborer born in Missouri, resided in Monterey, Richwoods Precinct, Calhoun Co., Ill., with Mary, 18, born in North Carolina, and with Martha Smith, 21, born in North Carolina.^[62] Martha might have been Mary's older sister (see 1850 census item above). William H. Smith resided next door.

James M. Turnbull, a resident of Monterey, Ill., enlisted 11 Aug. 1862 as a private serving Illinois for the Union in the Civil War. On 16 Sept. 1862 he enlisted as a private in Company G of the 97th Illinois Infantry Volunteers. He received a disability discharge for complications from pneumonia on 12 Jan. 1863, Memphis, Tenn., from Company G. He was a private at induction and at discharge.

In 1870 James Turnbull, 35, a farmer born in Missouri with real estate worth $150, resided in News, Richwoods Precinct, Calhoun Co., Ill., with Mary J., 29, born in North Carolina, and with Martha A., 7, Theodosia E., 4, and Sarah E., 1, all three born in Illinois.^[63]

Mary J. Turnbull of Batchtown, Calhoun Co., Ill., applied 26 July 1890 for a Civil War widow's pension, and it was granted.

142. JAMES CLAY⁴ SHAW (2⁶John³ Shaw, Mary², Bethuel¹) was born 17 Mar. 1852, Lincoln Co., Mo., died 27 or 28 Oct. 1943, at his ranch near Douglas, Converse Co., Wyo., and was buried in Douglas Park Cem., Douglas. James married 21 Dec. 1885, Brussels, Lincoln Co., Mo., ELIZABETH DODSON, who was born Feb. 1860 (1900 census) or 13 Feb. 1861 (grave-stone), Missouri, died 16 Aug. 1928, and was buried in Douglas Park Cem.

James Clay Shaw has left a unique record of his life, a book titled, North from Texas: Incidents in the Early Life of a Range Cowman in Texas, Dakota and Wyoming. Excerpts from an article about him titled, "The legacy of Wyoming rancher, James C. Shaw (1852-1943)," appeared in the Wyoming Livedtock Roundup, 1996 Cattleman's Edition:

Bill Gray of Douglas, and Jim Hageman, Ft. Laramie, are third-generation ranchers who continue to make their livings off the same grasslands of east-central Wyoming as did their grandfather, James Clay Shaw, who trailed cattle to Wyoming from Texas in 1879. Shaw, then 27 years old, stayed in Wyoming, working for various outfits for the next fourteen years, until he was able to strike out completely on his own.

For the next fifty years, until his death in 1943, Shaw devoted his life to raising cattle and horses and was active in community and state affairs. In 1914, Shaw served as the Treasurer of the Wyoming State Fair Commission. The following year found him in the House of Representatives. From 1917 until 1919, he was a Converse County Commissioner.

J. C. Shaw, is remembered as one of the original mainstays of the Wyoming Stock Growers Association. In 1882, WSGA appointed him Assistant Foreman of Roundup No. 4. Shaw was Roundup Foreman from 1884 to 1897 and for several years he was the stock inspector for Converse County. He was President of the WSGA in 1918 after six years on the Executive Committee and four years as Vice President. In 1931 he was made an Honorary Vice President. He was awarded Honorary Life Membership in 1939, four years before he passed away at his ranch home at Orin.

In the WSGA's history, Guardian of the Grasslands, Shaw is said to have been "known and loved throughout the cattle country, not only for what he did, but because of the kind of man he was." Progressive Men of Wyoming, published in 1903, described James C. Shaw as “one of the substantial and well-to-do stockmen of the county. He landed in Wyoming with two or three ponies as the sum-total of his earthly possessions, but he had a strong determination to win in the battle of life and was armed with a stout heart and a clear head for the purpose, having plenty of energy and self-reliance, and the contest was never a losing one for him from the beginning.”

His grandsons, Bill Gray and Jim Hageman, both remember him. Bill recalls, “As an old man, Grandfather lived with us in the house where he had spent his life. We took care of him and enjoyed him very much. He was fun to talk to. He’d sit on the front porch and tell stories all night long in the summers. The blood would get so deep you couldn’t even swim off there. The stories are pretty well gone, though, like a lot of other things. He was quite a person.

“Grandfather stood about 5’6” or 5’7” and weighed around 180 pounds. He was really strong. I remember even in his later years, he could pinch your hand so it hurt. He didn’t talk much about his life. He’d just ask, ‘Did you get this or that one?’ I was told that Grandfather wrote—in longhand—a sequel to his ‘Pioneering’ book, but the manuscript was lost, so his own record of his ranching years is gone.”

Jim Hageman remembers, “Grandfather did things in a big way, never in a mean way, so you could wind up friends afterwards. I can remember, we five boys (Jim, his brother, Fred, and three cousins) were pretty spirited. We were in town one time and this old guy, name of Mose Gillespie, had worked for Grandfather way back. He saw us boys doing something we shouldn’t and he says, ‘Boys, your grandfather wouldn’t be very proud of you.’ Jim Shaw was unique, I think, in that he was truly well-liked. Quite a few years after he died, I rode to Omaha one time on a cattle train in the caboose. They got to telling stories on Grandfather. That was the kind of guy he was.”

In 1897–1898, J. F. Houghton taught and J. J. Fagg served as trustee. James Shaw and Brother Lee Craft were some of the earlier teachers. When Bro. The teacher called them all in one day and told them “Now the one that put that dirt in my jug of buttermilk has a tiny piece of cotton sticking on his nose.” The guilty one wiped his nose quickly and the teacher then knew who did it.

Mary divorced William on 22 Nov. 1905 in Los Angeles, Los Angeles Co., Calif., for abandonment.

In 1860 A. H. Lewis, 27, born in Missouri, resided in Waverly, Lincoln Co., Mo., in the household of his father-in-law, Brice M. Sitton, 45. With Allen were Mary E., 22, born in Missouri, and “Chichster” M., 2, a male born in Missouri.^[186]

On 4 Feb. 1907 Mary E. Lawrence (formerly Lewis), aged 68 11/12 signed a declaration for renewal of her pension (after the divorce from her second husband) that gave her address as 532 New York St., Highland Park, Los Angeles Co., Calif. It was witnessed by (her brother-in-law) Oliver Sparks and (her sister) Mrs. M. A. Page. The renewal was rejected on grounds that she owned property with value sufficient to disqualify her. Part of Mary’s problem stemmed from the fact that there were two Mary E. Lawrences in Los Angeles Co., the other of whom owned a significant amount of property. Despite great efforts, as evidenced by an inch of papers in her pension file, she never obtained the renewal.

William R. Lawrence was a resident of Coleman, Coleman Co., Texas, on 13 Feb. 1908 when he gave a deposition in Mary's pension renewal case. He verified that he married Mary E. Lewis in Burleson Co., Texas, in 1869, and that he was served papers announcing the divorce on grounds of desertion while he was in Coleman. He stated, "I never served in the army or navy of the United State[s]. I was sworn into the Confederate service under the last call, but never rendered any regular service."

In 1910 Mary E. "Lawrence," 72, a widow born in Missouri of Missouri natives, resided in Los Angeles, Los Angeles Co., Calif., with her niece, Elma Sitton, 16, born in California of a father born in Missouri and a mother in Texas. Mary was listed incorrectly as having had no children.^[190]

THE FAMILY OF ELDER BETHUEL RIGGS

JOHN ROGER HOLLIDAY [HOLIDAY], who was born 1821, Tennessee, died 7 Nov. 1917, Los Angeles, Calif., and was buried in Inglewood Park Cem.

A History of the Pioneer Families of Missouri presents this background on the Triplett family, including David Triplett's parents and grandfather:

Thomas Triplett, of Buncomb county, North Carolina, had the following children, James, William, George, John, Rebecca, Nancy and Lydia. William married Hannah Cox, of North Carolina, and settled in Montgomery county in 1830. He was a blacksmith and wheelwright by trade, and a staunch member of the Baptist church. It was at his house that Macedonia church was organized by Jabez Han, in 1831. His children were Olive, Mary, Margaret, Harriet D., Rebecca C., Narcissa J., Lydia, Thomas, Zachaeus, David, Isaac M., and William H. Mary married William E. Wells, who settled in Montgomery county in 1830.

In 1850 Hannah "Triplit," 59, born in North Carolina with real estate worth $1032, resided in Montgomery Co., Mo., with David, 32, a farmer, Margaret, 30, Harriet, 25, and William, 20, a farmer, all four born in North Carolina, and with Jane, 18, and "Lydda," 16, both born in Missouri. Thomas "Triplit," 37, born in North Carolina, was living next door.^[197]

In 1860 David "Trippett," 43, a farmer born in North Carolina with real and personal estates valued respectively at $1,450 and $250, resided in Middletown, Montgomery Co., Mo., with Ellenor S., 25, born in Missouri, with real and personal estates worth $150 and $50, William S., 15, a farmer born in Missouri with real estate worth $150, and Charles G., 49, a farmer born in North Carolina with estates of $2,000 and $1,000, respectively. Because each person had separate estate listings, these four were probably all separate members of various Triplett families. William "Trippett," 30, born in North Carolina, lived next door in one direction, and Thomas L. "Trippett," 30, born in Missouri, in the other.^[198]

197. U.S. census, 1850, District 61, Montgomery Co., Mo., r. 407, p. 186, dw. 255, fam. 255. Thomas resided in dw. 256.

198. U.S. census, 1860, Middletown PO, Prairie Twp., Montgomery Co., Mo., r. 407, p. 186, dw. 1030, fam. 1030. William resided in dw. 1029, and Thomas L. in dw. 1031.

At the May term 1869, the Lincoln Co., Mo., probate court appointed John R. Holliday guardian of the person and curator of the estate of William Triplett, for which he placed a bond for the use and benefit of said ward of $1,200, with Isaac H. Owings as his security. William Triplett was presumably the son of Sarah's first marriage to David Triplett.

At the May term 1870 of the court, it appeared to the satisfaction of the court that J. R. Holliday, guardian and curator of William Triplett Jr., had left the state of Missouri and taken up residence in the state of Texas, the court thereby removed him as the guardian and appointed Isaac H. Owings curator of William Triplett Jr. Owings placed a bond of $1,200, with William Colbert as his security. So John Holliday left Missouri for Texas sometime during the year between the preceding two court sessions, between May 1869 and May 1870. Presumably Sarah stayed behind with the four-year-old child. The "Jr." designation probably was used to distinguish the boy from the uncle, William H. Triplett, who lived in Lincoln Co.

On 11 Apr. 1872 the Lincoln Co. court found that Isaac H. Owings guardian and curator of the estate of William Triplett, deceased, was indebted to the estate for $550.90 and was entitled to credit of that amount, leaving nothing in the estate, so Owings was discharged. William Triplett (Jr.) was not dead at the time. He lived to age 95, dying in 1962, as proved in his sketch.

In 1880 John R. Holiday, 58, a blacksmith born in Tennessee of Virginia natives, resided in Los Nietos Twp., Los Angeles Co., Calif., with his wife, Sarah F., 39, born in Illinois of Missouri natives, and with daughters, Matti[e?], 9, and Minnie B., 7, both born in Texas, son, John H., 3, and daughter, Pearl, 1, both born in California, and son, William Triplett, 13, born in Missouri of a father born in Georgia. Next door was William Page.^[199]

In 1910 John R. "Hollida," 89, born in Tennessee of Tennessee natives, resided in San Antonio Twp., Los Angeles Co., Calif., with his wife of 40 years, "Sarrah" F., 62, born in Illinois of Illinois natives. She had had eight children, of whom seven survived. In the household were his daughter, Irene L. Brown, 24, born in Calif. and three children. They were daughter, Francis [R?], 7, son, Raleigh V., 5, and daughter, "Betich" F., 3, all three born in California of a father born in California. Irene had had three children, all surviving.^[200]

THE FAMILY OF ELDER BETHUEL RIGGS

In 1920 James S. Sitton, 71, a widower born in the U.S. of U.S. natives, resided in the household of his son, Claude M. Sitton, 41, in Visalia Twp., Tulare Co., Calif. (q.v.).^[206]

An obituary in the Dos Palos Star, Merced Co., Calif., Friday, 29 Jan. 1937 gives information about both James, his twin sister, and the larger Sitton family:

Death late Wednesday night parted the oldest twins in the United States, and took one of the most revered residents of this section when Judge James Samuel Sitton died in his sleep at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. O. Sniffen here.

Born January 1, 1848, both Judge Sitton and his sister, Mrs. Rebecca Sitton Sparks of Los Angeles, gained nation-wide repute for being the oldest living twins in the states. They had been feted on numerous occasions in Long Beach, and had headed the annual "twin convention" parade there three times. As the result of being the oldest twins in the country, they were the guests of one of the larger air lines for a complimentary trip. The two were intensely devoted to each other, and Judge Sitton was in the habit of spending the winter of each year in the south where his sister lived.

Judge Sitton was born in Missouri [sic], and joined the Northern forces during the Civil war. He was under age, but fought until his father had him mustered out.

He then came to California by covered wagon, and settled in Los Angeles. He lived there for some years and moved to Dos Palos community 32 years ago. Here he had made his home until his death Wednesday evening.

He was the first justice of the peace of Dos Palos, serving three terms on the bench from 1906 to 1918. Until his death he was known as Judge Sitton, and he looked the very part. . . .

The Judge leaves many relatives in this section, and follows his late wife, Mrs. Amanda Lawrence Sitton, in death. The couple were married in Los Angeles in 1878. Mrs. Sitton died in 1893 and was buried there.

Judge Sitton leaves his three daughters, Mrs. A. O. Sniffin, Mrs. A. J. George, and Mrs. R. E. Angle, all of Dos Palos; two sons, C. M. Sitton, French Corral, and A. R. Sitton, Los Angeles, eleven grandchildren, L. C. George of Dos Palos, Clifton V. George, Port of Spain, Trinidad, Dale

From a 1921 biography of their son, Albert H.:

His father was Brice M. Sitton, a farmer who married Miss Nannie B. Harris whose folks had crossed the great plains by ox-teams in early days. Mr. Sitton arrived in Nevada in 1869, and three years later reached California. Years afterwards, Mr. Sitton was killed, and Albert had to assist in the support of his mother and his sister. The family had settled in Los Angeles County near Orange in 1880, where the mother still makes her home.

In 1880 Brice M. Sitton, 29, a farmer born in Illinois, resided in Los Angeles Co., Calif., with his wife, “Nannie,” 21, born in California of a father born in Tennessee and a mother in Kentucky, and with daughter, “Borah,” 3, and son, Albert, 2, both born in California.^[212]

Kipper, 33, a bartender born Oct. 1866 in Missouri of Missouri natives, with his wife of one year, Viola's daughter, Maud Kipper, 23, born Nov. 1876 in California, and Viola's grandson, Clarence Story, 4, born Sept. 1895 in California of a father born in Missouri and a mother in California. All four of Viola's children had a father born in Missouri and a mother in Texas, which is obviously incorrect. Viola had had six children, with six surviving, but these two numbers were crossed out. Maud had had one child, and it survived.^[215] Presumably Clarence was Maud's child, and she had married a second time.

(–) Pearson, and died 15 Apr. 1967, last residence Laddonia, Audrain Co., Mo.

James Gililland was the second teacher to take charge of the first school in district no. 1, Prairie Twp., Audrain Co., and “James Gililland taught the first school in the new house of worship, which was erected in 1858.” He also started the first debating society, in which his brother Buck was one of the first disputants. James was listed with his father, Jesse R. Gililland, as persons living in the eastern part of Prairie Twp. at the beginning of “the war.” In a business directory, included in the history, James A. Gililland was listed with James T. Benton in a firm called Benton & Gililland, specializing in real estate, loans, insurance, and collections. He was also listed in the firm Reed & Gililland, blacksmiths, consisting of J. W. Reed and J. A. Gililland. James and his wife, Lucinda “A.,” were among the original members of the First Baptist Church of Laddonia, organized 3 Dec. 1878.

In 1900 James A. 166. MARY AGNES⁴ GILILLAND (²⁹*Ann*³ Shaw, *Mary*², *Bethuel*¹) (twin to James Allen⁴ Gililland) was born 4 Feb. 1840 (history, gravestone) or 8 Feb. 1840 (see twin brother’s sketch), Lincoln Co., Mo., died 18 Nov. 1904, Vandalia, Audrain Co., Mo., and was buried in Mt. Olivet Presbyterian Cem., Cuivre Twp., Audrain Co. She married 11 Aug. 1858, New Harmony, Pike Co., Mo., ROBERT HAY TALIAFERRO GATEWOOD, MD, born 27 May 1829, Clark Co., Ky., son of Joseph Gatewood Jr. and his second wife, Lucy Clark Winn, and died 5 Mar. 1895, and was buried in Mt. Olivet Presbyterian Cem.

Dr. Gatewood had an interesting genealogy, according to an 1884 history of Audrain Co., Mo., written by a relative of Dr. Gatewood. Joseph Gatewood came to Virginia from England about 1745. His son, Joseph Gatewood Jr., was born 18 Mar. 1781, near Fredericksburg, Spotsylvania Co. While in business in Richmond, Va., he married, about 1806, Elizabeth Carter, a daughter of “Johnny” Carter of Virginia, a descendant of Robert Carter, “president of the Council of Virginia in 1726 and one of the wealthiest and most eminent men of the county.” They had two sons and then Elizabeth died. Joseph then moved to Clark Co., Ky., in about 1814, met the daughter of Jesse Winn Sr., a relative of the old Kentucky family from which Clark Co. derived its name, and married her in about 1816. They had six children, including Robert H. T. Gatewood. In 1833 they moved from Clark Co., Ky., to Pike Co., Mo.

Following is an extract from the 1884 history’s extensive sketch on Dr. Gatewood:

Robert H. T. Gatewood, the subject of this sketch, was born in Clark county, Ky., May 27, 1829; he was, therefore, quite a small boy when his parents removed to Missouri. His father having been broken up [lost his fortune], and there being few, or no, schools of value in the neighborhood of the new country where the family settled, his advantages for an education were very limited. His youth was spent on the farm, and at hard work improving land and raising tobacco, principally. Anxious, however, to acquire at least a sufficient education for the ordinary affairs of life, he employed his leisure to good advantage in study. He also had the benefit of some instruction in a school or two kept in the neighborhood. At the age of about eighteen he decided to learn the carpenter's trade, and went out to work in that occupation, but was soon afterwards called home to assist on the farm. The next three or four years were spent in farm work and study. Becoming somewhat well advanced in the knowledge of books, he was solicited to take charge of a school in the county. He, therefore, began teaching, and he continued teaching in the counties of Pike, Lincoln, Boone and Ralls for about five years. He became very successful and popular as a teacher, and his services were in request wherever he was known.

But, in the meantime, he had decided to devote himself to the medical profession, and while he taught school he applied himself to the study of medicine when not occupied in the schoolroom with energy and resolution. For several years he made it a rule to read medicine four hours in every twenty-four. Those who know him will not question that he kept his rule. His preceptors were Dr. Stephen J. Reynolds, of Bowling Green, Mo., a relative of his, and afterwards his partner in practice, and Dr. William Bolton, of the same place. He took a regular course at the St. Louis Medical College, of St. Louis, Mo., and graduated with distinction in 1857. In the vote of the faculty on his graduation he received the support of every professor of the institution.

In 1860 R. H. T. Gatewood, 31, a physician born in Kentucky with real and personal estates of $1,060 and $1,160, respectively, resided in New Harmony, Indian Twp., Pike Co., Mo., with Mary A., 20, born in Missouri, and Ed "Gillerland," 18, a farm laborer born in Missouri.^[219] Ed was Mary's brother, Ed Gililland.

THE FAMILY OF ELDER BETHUEL RIGGS

167. WILLIAM FRANKLIN⁴ GILILLAND (²⁹*Ann*³ Shaw, *Mary*², *Bethuel*¹) was born 15 Feb. 1841, Lincoln Co., Mo., and died 13 Dec. 1913, Alamogordo, Otero Co., N.M., aged 72. He married about 1871, probably in Brown Co., Tex., ROSETTA MOORE, who was born about 1851 (1860 census), (probably Coles Co.,) Illinois, daughter of John H. and Mary (–) Moore, and died 17 Dec. 1915, Alamogordo, aged 65, of “La Grippe.” William and Rosetta were buried together in the Monte Vista Cem., Alamogordo, in the southwest part of the Protestant section.

On 20 Mar. 1848 W. F. Gililland of Lincoln Co., Mo., sold 80 acres to “Ro.” [Robert] Gililland for $150.

William’s father, Jesse R. Gililland, moved from Lincoln Co., Mo., to Pike Co., Ill., with his family in about 1847. They were in Ralls Co., Mo., in the 1860 census, with William. Jesse and his family, without William, were in Audrain Co., Mo., in 1870. During the intervening decade William was in the Civil War at an unknown location. He is believed to have been on the Confederate side, which explains his father’s anguish during the war (see Jesse’s sketch).

A census analysis helps define Rosetta Moore’s early life. In 1850 John Moore, 45, born in Illinois, resided in Salisbury Precinct, Coles Co., Ill., with Mary, 23, born in Illinois, and with Catharine, 12, Susan, 3, and “Eviline,” 1, all three born in Illinois.^[223] This enumeration was made on 19 Nov. 1850, so Rosetta was probably born after 1 June 1850, as required by the census. Note that Catharine must not be Mary’s child.

The 1855 census of Coles Co., Ill., listed John Moore.

In 1860 John Moore, 58, a farmer born in North Carolina with a personal estate valued at $100 resided in Montague, Montague Co., Tex., with Mary, 32, born in Illinois, and with Allison, 17, Susan, 12, “Everline,” 10, Rosetta, 9, all born in Illinois, and James, 7, and Lucretia, 3/12, both born in Texas. The dwelling two dwellings removed contained Mary Moore, 6, and “Rosilla” Moore, 3, both born in Texas, in the household of Joshua Brewer.^[224] This census supports an 1851 birth year. Allison, a male, was not present in the 1850 census.

The 1870 census of San Saba, Brown Co., Tex., lists John H. Moore, 66, born in Tennessee, with Mary, 43, born in Illinois, and Evaline, 21, Rosetta, 20, and James A., 18, all born in Illinois, and with Rosella, 14, Lucretia, 12, Angeline, 10, John L., 5, all born in Texas. In the same dwelling, but listed as a separate family and in a different place on the census page, resided Mary Moore, 16, born in Illinois, and Albert, 2, John J., 9, Saphronia C., 4, Rhrodia [sic] Ann, 1, and Julia Ann, 2/12, all born in Texas, but the other children might be from another related family since there were two boys named John.^[225] In any event, Rosetta Moore was in Brown Co. in 1870, where she is thought to have married a year later.

The family history compiled by William's great-granddaughter, Maurine⁷ (De Arman) Webb, contains this information about him:

Will was a Confederate raider who changed his name at least once. He must have married Rosetta under an assumed name, no record of their marriage can be located [but, as mentioned above, the Brown Co. courthouse burned]. His brother, James Allen, was a Union soldier. I can find no record of Will's enlistment or service in the CSA under his correct name.

Will and Rosetta had 4 children [should be 2] in Brown County, TX then moved to Kimble County where 4 more children [should be 5] were born then they spent a year or so on the Mimbres River in Grant County, NM where some of Rosetta's relatives lived. After they went to High Rolls in the Sacramento Mountains, little Johnny was born but did not survive.

Will was known to have spent time in jail for tarring and feathering preachers, several preachers. It caused him to loose [sic] his homestead in Kimble County after which he recorded all land in Rosetta's name. Most of this information came from talks with his 3rd child, my grandma Lucy, and from TX State records.

I can find no records in Brown Co., TX on the family [the burned courthouse again]. The Kimble Co. place was right on the banks of Bear Creek now known as the North Fork of the Llano River, another creek is named Bear now. Junction, TX courthouse has the land records.

The homestead on the Fresnal River near High Rolls, NM has changed hands 13 times since the Gilillands lived there. It is on the high side of a steep slope where a large spring runs year around. This land was sold in the 1890's to help pay for the murder trial involving Jim Gililland, Oliver Lee and Bill McNew. The lawyer, Albert B. Fall had an expensive retainer but was able to get the 3 men acquitted [sic]. The story is very well told in the book, Pat Garrett by Leon Metz. Will and Rosetta bought a house on 10th St. in Alamogordo and lived there for the rest of their lived.

In 1880 "Wm." F. Gililland, 39, a farmer born in Missouri of Missouri natives, resided in Kimble Co., Tex., with his wife "Rosettie," 29, born in Illinois, her father born in Pennsylvania and her mother in Illinois, and with James R., 6, Lucretia [sic], 3, and Lucy L., 1, all born in Texas.^[226]

On 27 Sept. 1881 William Gililland sold 117 acres in Kimble Co., Tex.

On 14 July 1885 Rosetta Gililland signed over land to be seized by the Kimble Co., Tex., sheriff. It was seized by the court and filed 30 Dec. 1887. The land was put up for auction but did not bring a sufficiently high bid so it was held for later auction.

A Pinkerton report of 18 Mar. 1896 placed William F. Gililland, father of Jim Gililland, in a camp at one of the little lakes near Chalk Hill, not far from what is now the White Sands National Monument, between Las Cruces and Alamogordo, N.M. An infamous murder took place at Chalk Hill on 1 Feb. 1896. Col. Albert Jennings Fountain and his 8-year-old son, Henry, were killed (presumably, the bodies were never found), and the suspects were Oliver Lee, Jim Gililland, and William ["Bill"] McNew. The Pinkerton detective agency was called in on the case. The three were acquitted as the bodies never were discovered. See the sketch for James Gililland for further details.

W. F. Gililland sold, on 27 June 1898, land in Doña Ana Co., N.M. Terr., to Ollie V. Backnes.

In 1910 William F. Gililland, 69, a stockman raising horses, born in Missouri of parents both born in Missouri, resided in Estey, Socorro Co.,

Gililland, 36, born in Texas, their first-born son, and his wife, "Edella" G.^[227]

Granddaughter Alice Rosetta⁶ (Gililland) Smith, daughter of Dick Gililland, in her autobiography, stated that she was born "at Grandpa and Grandma Gililland's house, on the east end of 10th street in Alamogordo, on July 5th, 1912." So they had moved into town.

- 684 ix JOHN FRANKLIN⁵ GILILLAND, born 24 Mar. 1891, High Rolls, Otero Co., N.M. Terr., and died an infant, about Nov. 1892.

169. ELIZABETH A.⁴ GILILLAND (₂₉Ann³ Shaw, Mary², Bethuel¹) was born 16 Mar. 1843, Lincoln Co., Mo., died 16 Mar. 1873, aged 30, and was buried in the Sulphur Lick Cem., Lincoln Co., Mo. She married, after the 1870 census, as his second wife, Judge JOHN THOMAS GILMORE, who was born 1 Aug. 1830, on the farm in Lincoln Co. established by his parents, James and Elizabeth (Hammonds) Gilmore, and who died 25 Dec. 1898, aged 68 years 4 months 24 days, and was buried in Sulphur Lick Cem.

John Gilmore first married 13 Nov. 1851, Lincoln Co., Mo., Elizabeth Francis Gililland, aunt of his second wife and half-sister of Jesse R. Gililland. The first Elizabeth died in childbirth, 20 May 1870. When the second Elizabeth (she of this sketch) died, leaving one child, he married a third time, 11 Oct. 1874, Lincoln Co., to Martha [Mattie] Moore, and had five more children. He was a county judge from 1884 to 1886.

John Thomas Gilmore was buried next to Jesse Gililland's father, John Gililland in the Sulphur Lick Cem. The gravestone of Elizabeth A. Gililland, John Gililland's granddaughter, lies to the left of Gilmore's gravestone, and that of Elizabeth Gililland, John Gililland's daughter, lies to the right.

In the Lincoln Co., Mo., circuit court term of May 1831, John Thomas Gilmore was named as an heir of James Gilmore, who died in Lincoln Co, and his wife, Elizabeth. Commissioners named were James Finley, John Gililland, William Trail, and Philip Sitton.

In the 1870 census, “Jno. T.” Gilmore, 40, born in Missouri, had nine children in the household, the youngest an infant born in May 1870, when John's first wife died. “Elizab Gilliland,” 65, was living next door with two of her sons and with four more Gilmore children, who cannot be the children of Judge Gilmore because their ages are too close to those of the children listed in his household.^[228] This neighbor Elizabeth was John Gililland's second wife, Elizabeth Presley, and mother of Judge Gilmore's first wife. I think that Judge Gilmore married young Elizabeth A. Gililland, whom he surely knew well, to help him care for his numerous children. If that were his plan, it did not work out well. Elizabeth A. died about three years into the marriage.

In 1880 John T. "Gillmore," 50, a farmer born in Missouri of a father born in Kentucky and a mother in Missouri, resided with his wife, "Mat," 32, and with five children of ages 12-22, from his first marriage, and three children of ages 1-5, from his third marriage. There was no child in the household of the right age, 7-9, to be of the second marriage, so either this child was with another family or had died young.^[229]

Child:

685 i [CHILD]⁵ GILMORE, born 1871-1873, Missouri. Not present in the 1880 census so probably died young, perhaps the cause of Elizabeth A.'s death.

172. JESSE R.⁴ GILILLAND (₂₉Ann³ Shaw, Mary², Bethuel¹) was born about 1848, Pike Co., Ill.

The remainder of this sketch is speculative and should be used cautiously:

On 27 Jan. 1888 title was issued to Jesse R. Gililland on three parcels of land in Delta Co., Colo. The spelling of the surname is the strongest piece of evidence supporting this being Jesse R.⁴ Gililland.

In 1900 J. R. "Gilliland," 52, divorced, a quartz miner born Mar. 1848 in Illinois of a father born in Kentucky and a mother in Scotland, resided with many other miners along Main Street of White Hills, Mohave Co., Ariz. Terr., in the Indian Secret Mining District, with his son, Richard, 11, born Nov. 1889 in Arizona Terr. of a father born in Illinois and a mother in Indiana.^[230] The parents' nativities argue against this being Jesse R.⁴ Gililland, but otherwise the item fits. The next three items argue that the son, Richard, is Jesse Richard Gililland.

In 1910 "Jessie Gilliland," 22, a fishmarket salesman born in Arizona Terr. of Missouri natives, resided in Long Beach, Los Angeles Co., Calif., with his wife of two years, Alice H., 22, born in Ohio of Ohio natives.^[231]

In 1920 J. Richard Gililland, 33, a salesman for the Cudahy (meat) Packing Co. born in Arizona Terr. of a father born in Missouri and a mother in Michigan, resided in Santa Ana, Orange Co., Calif., with his wife, Alice H., 31, born in Ohio of U.S. natives, and with his daughter, Edwina F., 6, and son, J. GENERATION 4 was buried in Lawhon Springs Cem., Lee Co., Tex. Thomas married second Jane Garrett.

Thomas Morris⁷ Hill, great-grandson of Thomas and Mary, has written a history of his family, including the following:

I cannot help but feel sadness in describing the life of Great Grandfather Thomas. He, being the first born child of Green Lee and Mary, had been part of all the moves, travels, hardships and activities of the family for the first twenty-six years of his life. Migration of the family from North Carolina to Texas with stops in Mississippi and Tennessee consumed about fourteen years of early life. Around five or six brothers and six sisters were born along the way. Life for him in Texas was probably very hard for him as a young man being the oldest and having to be the most responsible.

Thomas was not quite twenty-six years old when his mother, Mary Johns Lanier, died on September 26, 1859, leaving a new baby only six days old. Eight months later after his mother died, on May 25, 1860, Thomas married Mary Agnes Roff, who was only sixteen years eleven months old [sic] at the time.

Thomas' father, Green Lee, sold the 223-acre Hill farm to Thomas around the time of his marriage. Thomas then acquired a 3-acre tract of land adjoining the Hill farm from his cousin, Samuel B. Scales, whose farm joined on the east. It is believed that on the 3-acre tract is where Thomas built his house.

On November 06, 1861, Thomas and Mary's first child, John Hamilton, was born. It was same in those days as it is today that sons with the name of John acquired the nickname of "Jack". It was not until I started my research that I discovered that my Grandfather "Jack" was really named John. I, nor any of my family, had ever heard any reference to him as anything other than "Jack".

Immediately after public ratification of the Ordinance of Succession on February 23, 1861, the newly formed Confederate State Government of Texas called upon each county to organize a militia for its defense and to appropriate money for the purchase of military supplies. The Second Texas Infantry was formed and made up of ten companies. Thomas joined Company H of the Second Texas Infantry. Company H was known as the Lexington Grays from the western part of Burleson County which later became part of Lee County.

THE FAMILY OF ELDER BETHUEL RIGGS

On March 18, 1862, the men of the Second Texas Infantry left for a small settlement of Pittsburgh Landing, Tennessee where the regiment was to be tested in battle for the first time. This battle site is more commonly named by Southerners for the small church located nearby—Shiloh. . . .

The Battle of Corinth, the Confederates began their movement towards Vicksburg, engaging in numerous battles along the way. Sometime during November and December, 1862, Thomas was hospitalized in the Texas General Hospital at Quitman, Mississippi. Records indicate that on November 18, 1862, he was employed as a nurse and was temporarily relieved from duty on December 18, 1862. Sometime during this time he either made a trip home or Mary Agnes traveled to Mississippi. There are no substantiating records as to which occurred but we know that on August 3 [sic], 1863, their second child, Ewing Pascal Hill was born.

Two days after Christmas, 1862, the Second Texas Infantry is transported by rail to Vicksburg, Mississippi arriving at 11:00 PM on December 29th. The ensuing campaign and siege of Vicksburg was one of the most bloody and hard fought battles of the Civil War. There were incredible hardships and heroics on both sides. A cease fire was imposed on July 3, 1863, and on July 4th the Second Texas Infantry marched outside the trenches and ordered by its Union Captors to stack arms. . . .

There is no information about when Thomas Green Hill arrived home.

Upon return to the farm, Thomas probably struggled from his weakened condition from almost starvation during the siege of Vicksburg. Prior to that he had been hospitalized, probably from a disease contacted during the battles.

From 1863 to 1865, the country experienced a steep incline in prices, low crop prices and high rail costs to transport crops which was good for manufacturers but hard on farmers.

On October 12, 1866, the third and last son, William Sherman Hill, was born. Tragically just one year less five days Mary Agnes died, leaving Thomas with three small children, ages 5, 3, and 1 year old. Shortly after Mary's death, Thomas was remarried to a lady by the name of Jane Garrett. They were together until Thomas' death on April 7, 1871. He was thirty-seven years and eight months old. Shortly after Thomas' death. Jane remarried and left the country with her new husband leaving the three boys John, Ewing and Billy orphaned. Their ages were 9 yrs. 5 months, 7 yrs. 8 months and 4 yrs. 6 months.

To their remarkable credit, the three boys stayed together on the farm until John married on March 6, 1879 at the age of 17 years and 4 months. Fortunately the farm adjoined their Grandmother's farm on the west and their cousin, Samuel H. Scales on the east.

The 1880 Census showed Billy living with his Grandmother Roff. He was 14 at the time and was listed as a farmhand. Ewing was living with someone unrelated and working as a farmhand. He was 17 and had been punching cows since he was fourteen.

In the research notes developed by James E. Hill, Ewing's son, a statement was made on two occasions that Ewing and Billy lived with John and Mary Lawrence for a time after John married.

Ewing made his first trip north to Lexington, Nebraska with the Ira Olive horse outfit in 1882. He made his second trip in 1883 and got as far north as Dodge City, Kansas where he quit due to trouble with the Foreman. He then went on to Wyoming and joined the Duck Bar outfit on Cottonwood Creek in 1883. Both trips were over the Old Chisolm Trail.

Tuschmaker and DeBillier purchased the Duck Bar ranch from T. A. Kent in about 1882, paying about $180,000 for the ranches, horses, and cattle. The outfit comprised a number of adjacent ranches including the one secured by J. M. Whitney who later became Ewing's father-in-law.

In the spring of 1883, Ewing assisted in the moving of the ranch headquarters from the old location down the river a short distance to what was then the Ralston Ranch.

In 1894, Ewing started the Palace Meat Market in Wheatland, Wyoming and in 1896, married Maybel I. Stewart. He apparently secured his ranch location on the Laramie River from J. M. Whitney and also 500 acres of grazing land on the flat above the ranch on the river. This ranch spot (all buildings and improvements now gone) was on the south bank of the river, a short distance downstream from where the state highway crosses the river.

Ewing and Maybel sold the ranch, market and other holdings to Frank Dearenger and retired to California in 1915. Their son James Ewing was born November 26, 1896 and was 17 at the time. Upon leaving Wyoming on their way to California, they visited the old home place in Lee County, Texas then on to New Orleans, Havana, Panama, San Francisco (saw the 1915 Exposition) and later to Long Beach where they lived out the rest of their lived. They are both buried in the Forest Lawn Mausoleum in Glendale, Ca.

James Ewing married Linnie Reinhardts in 1922 and settled in Palos Verdes Estates, Ca. He died in 1992 at the age of 96. He had an illustrious career as a Chemical Engineer. James Stewart Hill and Carolyn Hill Ramos, James Ewing's children still live in California. James S. is retired from a career in engineering and Carolyn is still teaching art in the Los Angeles School System.

Not much is known about William Sherman (Uncle Billy) as he ended up in Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada after he left Texas. I did have the privilege of meeting he and his wife in 1937 when they came back to Texas for a visit. Being only 11 years old at the time, I was more interested in play than listening to adults in conversation. How truly sorry I am now for missing the opportunity to get to know him. I remember having been told later that he had owned a large sheep ranch in Montana. He may not have owned it at the time of his visit in 1937 due to his advanced age and poor health. It was not part of his property settlement after his death in January 1941. He was 74 years old. He did own a working farm of several hundred acres at Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada, also a home there. This was all listed and sold in the settlement of his estate.

It is not known when his wife died but it was sometime between 1937 and 1941. After she died, because of poor health and not having any living relatives in Canada, he moved to Long Beach, California to be near his brother Ewing. He died on January 31, 1941 and was buried in the Forest Lawn Cemetery at Long Beach. . . .

John Hamilton Hill married Ruth Elizabeth Echols in March 1879 and settled down on the Hill Farm owned by the boys father, Thomas, at the time of his death. It was probably a struggle for the newly married couple as the years of 1875-1879 were poor crop years on the prairie and year 1879 was another depression year with economic hard times.

Over the next seven years they would have four children: Mary Agnes, born September 12, 1880, Willie Alma, born September 15, 1882, Thomas Warren, born October 2, 1884, and Virginia Arco, born December 15, 1886.

No one could imagine the terrible tragedy that would occur on May 18, 1887. John Hamilton was shot and killed. I will relate the story as it was told to me. The four children were too small to know and remember what happened. Probably my Grandmother Ruth told them what happened later.

The story goes that Grandfather John had been trying to help a woman with small children, whose husband had run off and left her, plant some of the land on which she lived so that she and the children wouldn't starve.

After the work was done, the husband of the woman came home and what probably ensued was that Grandfather John had some harsh words to say to him for the way he had abandoned his family. Just as Grandfather John turned to ride away on his horse, the man, Joe Ponton, shot him in the back killing him instantly. The man was arrested and tried for second degree murder and sentenced to twenty years in prison. As you can see, courts and juries were lenient in those days. In our research, we found that Joe Ponton and his brother had been brought to trial before for cattle rustling. Unfortunately they were acquitted for lack of evidence.

Grandfather John was only 25½ years old when he was killed. He was buried in the family plot of his father and mother, Thomas and Mary, in the Lawhon Springs Cemetery.

In 1889, Grandmother Ruth married William Benjamin McWilliams. It was at this point in time that the Hill Farm had to be divided up to give 1/3 of the acreage each to John's surviving children and to his brothers, Ewing and Billy. This had to be done through the courts as Thomas died intestate as did John. After the division, Ewing sold his 1/3 to his Uncle John Roff and Billy sold his 1/3 to Grandmother and her new husband, W. B. McWilliams. Unfortunately, they didn't pay him any principal or interest on the three year note. He then initiated a new three year note with interest giving them better terms. Shortly, they paid off the note to Uncle Billy for the land and turned around and sold it for twice the amount. It is not known where they got the money to do this.

This did not endear Grandmother to John's two brothers. Ewing never came back to Texas until he retired in 1915 and Billy visited only rarely and then only to see John's children. They just did not care for Grandmother after the land deal.

In 1860 Thomas Hill, 27, a farmer born in North Carolina, with real and personal estates valued at $1,120 and $409, respectively, resided in Sand Fly, Burleson Co., Tex., with Mary, 17, born in Missouri, both married within the year, and with Joseph Parsons, 65, a farm laborer born in

In his will of 23 Mar. 1914, N. Shaw mentioned in order his sons, L. F. Shaw and Will Shaw, his wife, Josie F. Shaw, his children by her, Cordelia Shaw, Nero Shaw, Gerald R. Shaw, and Jack O. Shaw, and his executor, J. W. Baker. In a codicil of 11 Mar. 1918 he explained that his son, W. A. Shaw, sold some property near Patrick, McLennan Co., for \$1,600 and never gave his father the $\frac{1}{2}$ share due. This was the reason Will Shaw received only \$5 from his father's will while his brother, L. F., received \$500.

Known children of Nero's first marriage, to Virginia, of four:

- + 698 i WILLIAM ANDREW⁵ SHAW, born Dec. 1867, Texas, married (1) and had two children, and married (2) AMELIA ANNA BUSKE, and had six more children.
- 699 ii JOHN⁵ SHAW, born about 1869, Texas. He did not appear in the 1880 census, and was not mentioned in Nero's will of 1914, so probably died young.
- 700 iii L. F.⁵ SHAW, a son, born about 1871, Texas, married ALLIE —, born 24 Oct. 1874 (calculated), died 15 Nov. 1891, aged 17 years 22 days, in childbirth, losing the child too, both buried in Liberty Grove Cem., McLennan Co., Tex.

Co., Mo., son of John M. and Julia A. (de Graffenreid) Vivion, and died 23 Jan. 1912, and was buried in Whitemound Cem., sharing a stone with his wife.

An 1889 history of Tex. contains the following entry for M. M. Vivion:

The Vivions, as the name indicates, are of French extraction. The early ancestors settled on the Atlantic coast, and the name, so far as family research goes, is first heard of in Virginia. The father of M. M. Vivion was named John M., and he was born in Albemarle county, Virginia, and lived there till the age of seventeen, when he moved to Missouri, settling in Jasper county. He lived ever afterward in that county, and died there in the year 1856.

The mother of M. M. Vivion bore the maiden name of Julia A. de Graffenreid. She was a daughter of John de Graffenreid, and was herself born in Kentucky.

John M. and Julia A. Vivion had four children, of whom the subject of this sketch is the eldest, the others being—Newton Calvin, Eliza Alice and Sarah Elizabeth.

M. M. Vivion was born in Jasper county, Missouri, March 13, 1842. He was raised on the farm to the age of nineteen, when he enlisted in the Confederate army as a member of Company A, First Missouri battalion of cavalry, General Joe Shelby's brigade. He served in the western department, soldiering through Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas and the Indian Territory, till the close of the war. His mother, in the meantime, having refuged to Texas, he came immediately to Grayson county, where he located and has since lived. Starting out as a young man, and after four years' service in a disastrous war, his beginning was naturally a modest one, but he grew in a worldly way by continued hard knocks and the exercise of good judgment and economy, and in 1876 he purchased from his own earnings a farm in the southern part of Grayson county, containing 150 acres, 140 of which he has since reduced to cultivation, and improved in other ways.

On December 6, 1866, Mr. Vivion married Miss Cordelia Shaw, daughter of Napoleon Shaw, a native of Tennessee, and later a resident of Missouri.

In 1880 M. M. Vivion, 38, a farmer born in Missouri of a father born in Virginia and a mother in Kentucky, resided in Grayson Co., Tex., with his wife, Cordelia, 28, born in Missouri of a mother born in Virginia, his

In 1900 Marion M. Vivion, 55, a widower farmer born Mar. 1845 in Missouri of Missouri natives, resided in Grayson Co. with his son, Napoleon B., 30, a vocal music teacher born Nov. 1869 in Texas, son, Luther C., 23, a farm laborer born Feb. 1877 in Texas, son, Joseph W., 20, a farm laborer born Aug. 1879 in Texas, daughter, Dora Pearl, 18, born Nov. 1881 in Texas, and son, Marion L., 14, born Apr. 1886 in Texas. John "W." Vivion, 32, a farmer born Nov. 1867 in Texas of Missouri natives, resided two dwellings from Marion M., probably John's father, with John's wife of five years, Ida, 25, born Nov. 1874 in Illinois of Kentucky natives. She had had no children. Living with them were Ben F. Shaw, 20, born June 1879, and Ernest N. Shaw, 14, born Dec. 1885, both born in Texas of a father born in Missouri and a mother in Texas.^[247]

In 1910 Marion M. Vivion, 68, a widower farmer born in Missouri of a father born in Virginia and a mother in Kentucky, resided in Grayson Co., Tex., with his daughter, Pearl, 28, born in Texas of Missouri natives. She had had two children, both living, and they resided with her: Dollie May, 2, and Clyde T., 9/12, both born in Texas. Next door was Ernest Shaw, 26, with the same nativities as Benjamin, with his wife of one year, 22, born in Texas of a Danish father and a mother born in Missouri. Since both Napoleon and Lieuttia were dead by the 1900 census, since Ben F. and Ernest N. were living that year with Napoleon's sister, Cordelia (Shaw) Vivion (see details in her sketch), and since Ben was born in 1879, it is assumed that they were children of Napoleon and Lieuttia. From Cordelia's sketch, it is also seen that the two assumed brothers were living near the Vivions in the 1910 census. Arguing against this assumption are the

188. TRAVIS⁴ SHAW (₃₃*Nancy Ann*³, *Jonathan*², *Bethuel*¹) was born 2 July 1842 (gravestone) in Texas, died 28 Nov. 1883, and was buried in Early Chapel Cem., Lee Co., Tex. He married ELIZABETH [“LIZZIE”] B. —, who was born about 1852, Virginia.

Travis was founder of a Danish Colony near Lexington. Here is one description of his effort:

The first group [of Danes] resulted from a visit, just after the Civil War, of two Texans to Denmark. Travis Shaw and John Hester, whose wife was Danish, were promoting Central Texas as good farmland. The area they were selling was the part of Burleson County that went to make up Lee County in 1874. Initially, twenty families moved in, and others arrived before 1880. The group included Christian Moelbeck, a saddlemaker; Paul Paulsen, cabinetmaker; and Peter Jensen, blacksmith. The majority, the Sorensens, Rasmussens, Vittrups, and Olsens, were farmers. Here in the “Little Denmark” area of Lee County were enough families to preserve Danish customs for a time.

In 1870 Travis Shaw, 28, resided with his parents James and Nancy A. Shaw, in Lexington, Burleson (later Lee) Co., Tex.^[252]

In 1874 Travis Shaw and his wife donated four acres for a church and cemetery in Pleasant Hill, Milam Co., Tex., about eight miles from Lexington, Lee Co. A Methodist church was completed there in 1880. In 1883 Travis Shaw donated another four acres in the same town for a school.

In 1880 Travis Shaw, 38, a farmer born in Texas of a father born in Ohio and a mother in Missouri, resided in Lexington, Lee Co., Tex., with Lizzie, 28, born in Virginia of Virginia natives, and with Hettie, 8, Mattie, 6, Travis, 5, Sophie, 3, and Nannie, 5/12, all born in Texas. 198. DEWITT CLINTON⁴ RIGGS (₃₇*Samuel*³, *Jonathan*², *Bethuel*¹) was born 10 or 19 Dec. 1844, Kentucky, died 1 Feb. 1883, Lee Co., Tex., aged 38 years 1 month 21 days, and was buried in Early Chapel Cem., Lee Co., Tex. He married 25 Sept. 1879, Lee Co., Tex., MARY E. PURYEAR, who was born about 1858, Texas, daughter of W. Puryear.

In 1880 "Dinton" Riggs, 35, a farmer born in Kentucky of a father born in Kentucky and a mother in Missouri, resided in Lee Co., Tex., with his wife, Mary E., 22, born in Texas of a father born in Georgia and a mother in Missouri. Also in the household were his brother-in-law, "W^m" Puryear, 17, born of a father born in Georgia and a mother in Missouri, and his father-in-law, W. Puryear, 64, a male born in Georgia of a father born in Tennessee. Also in the household was a hired hand, "Robt" Smith, 19.^[260]

D. C. Riggs, signed his will on 30 Jan. 1883, Lee Co., Tex., and it was proved 21 Mar. 1883. To his wife (unnamed) he left a "land note" of $800 drawn on 2 June 1882 and signed by N. L. G. Riggs and E. B. Riggs (DeWitt's brothers, Napoleon LeGrande and Edward Burleson Riggs). Apparently this note, essentially a mortgage, was not repaid but was converted into a series of three notes, totaling $1,750, to be repaid in thirds on 1 Jan. 1884, 1885, and 1886, with interest. DeWitt bequeathed two hundred acres in Lee Co. to his two brothers, N. L. G. and E. B. Riggs, to be divided equally. N. L. G. Riggs was named executor. Witnesses were C. M. Davis, I. C. Douglass, and S. J. Douglass, all three of Lexington, Lee Co., Tex. Apparently DeWitt left his wife a mortgage owed him by his two brothers, and he left his land to these brothers, one of whom was the executor.

The widow, Mary E. Riggs, contested this will over an extended period beginning 5 Feb. 1884 and ending 18 Nov. 1885. The nature of the suit of Mary E. Riggs vs. N. L. G. Riggs and E. B. Riggs is revealed by the interrogatories, answered by the jury on 18 Nov. 1885: (1) Was the testator, D. C. Riggs, of sound mind and disposing memory at the time of making the will? (jury's finding: Yes); (2) Was the will procured to be executed or made by undue influence? (No); (3) Could the testator, D. C. Riggs, from the position he then occupied see the witnesses while they were subscribing their name to the will? (Yes); (4) After the will was signed by the testator and the witnesses, was the paper purporting to be the will immediately read over to the testator in his view and in the presence of the subscribing witnesses and did he express himself satisfied with it? (Yes). Mary lost her suit.

The final settlement of DeWitt's estate, on 9 Apr. 1886, stated that the two brothers purchased from Mary E. Riggs all of her right, title, and interest in the estate of her late husband. Apparently they paid off their mortgage to her, for the summary records that they "are now the only owners of said property, the whole of said Estate."

200. EDWARD ["NED"] BURLESON⁴ RIGGS (³⁷*Samuel*³, *Jonathan*², *Bethuel*¹) was born 21 Dec. 1849, Fedor, Burleson (now Lee) Co., Tex., died 5 Nov. 1893, Lexington, Lee Co., Tex., and was buried in Early Chapel Cem., Lexington, Lee Co., Tex. He married, 20 Oct. 1874, Lee Co., NANCY [NANNIE] MARY FICKLING, who was born 7 Dec. 1849, Columbus, Muscogee Co., Ga., daughter of Jerimiah [sic] and Glovinia M. (Shaw) Fickling, and died a widow 9 Sept. 1921, Sour Lake, Hardin Co., Tex., aged 71 years 9 months 2 days, and was buried 11 Sept. 1921 in Lexington Cem., Lee Co. Nannie's death certificate gives her mother's maiden surname as Wilson.

E. B. Riggs signed his will 20 May 1893, Lexington, Lee Co., Tex., and it was proved 6 June 1894. In it he mentioned only his wife, Nannie M. Riggs, whom he named executrix.

THE FAMILY OF ELDER BETHUEL RIGGS

Manual⁴ Riggs, a few months old in the 1850 census, was not listed in the 1860 census, but Burleson Riggs, born about 1849, Tex., according to the 1860 census, was not listed in the 1850 census.^[261] Other evidence gives Burleson's birth in Dec. 1849, so he would have been only a few months old for the 1850 census, so this must be the same child with a name change.

In 1880 E. B. Riggs, 30, a farmer born in Texas of a father born in Missouri and a mother in Kentucky, resided in Lee Co., Tex., with M. "Nanny," 30, born in Georgia, and with Annie, 4, Sam, 3, Alberta, 2, all born in Texas, and brother Lee Riggs, 24, a farmer born in Texas, and a farm laborer, born in Alabama of Alabama natives.^[262]

Edward was mortally wounded in a calf-roping accident, being pulled so hard against his saddle horn that it crushed his chest. He lived for a couple of years afterward but never recovered. It is thought that he died from heart failure as a result of the severe bruising of the organ on the saddle horn.

In 1900 Nancy M. Riggs, 51, widow, a farmer born Dec. 1849 in Georgia ["Georgey"] of a father born in North Carolina and a mother in Georgia, resided in Lee Co., Tex. She had had 13 children, with seven surviving, and five of them in the household: son, "Samill" J., 22, born Oct. 1887, daughter, Emma, 17, born Aug. 1882, sons, "Eb" B., 16, born Mar. 1884, and Homer, 13, born Jan. 1887, and daughter, "Pearl N.," 11, born Mar. 1889, all five born in Texas, and also Samuel's wife of 0/12 years, Minnie A., 20, born May 1880 in Texas of Texas natives.^[263]

In 1910 "Nannie" M. Riggs, 62, a widow seamstress born in Georgia of North Carolina natives, resided in Lee Co., Tex. She had had 14 children, with seven surviving. In the household were her son, Homer, 23, born in Tex., and his wife of two years, Rena "A.," 22, born in Texas of

An obituary for Nannie Mary Riggs states that she died at the home of her son, Homer, in Sour Lake, and that her body was sent to her old home in Lexington, where interment was made “in the New Cem., just south of town.” Survivors included one sister, Mrs. Emma Underwood, of Llano, three sons, Homer Riggs, of Sour Lake, E. B. Riggs, of Lexington, and S. J. Riggs, of Los Angeles, Calif., four daughters, Mrs. F. Fariss and Mrs. Annie Hester, of Giddings, Mrs. Curtis Parker, of Lexington, and Mrs. W. R. GENERATION 4

212. EMELINE⁴ CORBLY (₄₆*Stephen Davis³ Corbly, Margaret², Bethuel¹*) was born 31 Dec. 1842 (gravestone), Mt. Washington, Hamilton Co., Ohio, died 8 July 1874, late residence Columbia, Hamilton Co., and was buried in Mt. Washington Cem., Hamilton Co. She married 15 Jan. 1867, at her father's home in Mt. Washington, HENRY ARCHER LANGDON, who was born 28 May 1839, Linwood, Hamilton Co., Ohio, son of James Davenport and Sarah (Phelps) Langdon, and who died 13 May 1876, late residence Columbia, and was buried in Mt. Washington Cem. Henry married, second, 1 Dec. 1875, Sydnie Edward.

A Langdon history in the Cincinnati Historical Society collection gives the family's story:

James Langdon died in 1804, leaving his widow [Esther Stebbins] with a family of three sons and two daughters. Two years later a small company of Vermont families was formed to go West to the new State of Ohio. In it were the families of John, Solomon and Oliver Langdon and James's widow. The three brothers together bought a large tract of land, nearly 300 acres in extent, lying along the Little Miami River between Duck Creek and Red Bank. This land was part of the Miami Purchase and was originally the property of Benjamin Stites. Oliver Langdon was the guardian of his brother James's children, and exercised a kindly care over the affairs of his sister-in-law, and her family.

James's sons Richard and Elam did not care for farming and went to the city. There they were educated and became highly successful businessmen. The second son, James Davenport Langdon, married Sara [sic] Phelps. It was with James that his widowed Mother lived until her death. By patient thrift James was able in his young manhood to buy from his uncle the tract of land which was the family inheritance.

There were six sons and three daughters born to James and Sarah Langdon . . . [including] Henry Archer Langdon, the youngest child of the family.

Henry Archer Langdon was born May 28, 1839. Before his twenty third birthday, the Civil War broke out and he volunteered his services to the Union army at Lexington, Kentucky as a physician. He received official appointment as Assistant Surgeon to the Seventy-ninth Regiment, Ohio

Volunteer Infantry, on August 15, 1862 and remained in the military until the end of the war, serving under General Sherman's command.

Dr. Langdon was mustered out of the Army at the age of 26 years. He joined Dr. Elston in medical practice in Linwood. Upon the former's retirement, Dr. Langdon bought the house and small cottage which served as his office.

Henry Archer Langdon married Emeline Corbly January 15, 1867 when he was twenty-seven years old. Three children were born in the following year[s]: 1867, 1869 and 1870. The first born, Chester died in 1868 when just 10 months of age. In June of 1874, twin boys were born but the joyous occasion was marred by the death of Mrs. Langdon just two weeks latter [sic]. The following October in this same year, the third born girl, Annie who was then four years of age, died as did one of the twins who was only four months. Two months latter [sic] in December 1874, the second born girl, Clara died at age five years. The children's death[s] were presumably due to an outbreak of diptheria. Thus the little family at Linwood was reduced to two members—father Henry Langdon and his infant son William.

It was not until one year after these tragic events that Henry married again. His second wife who came into the home and became mother to little "Willie" was Sydnie Edward. The marriage took place on December 1, 1875.

Happiness was short lived. Five months after taking his new bride in his 37th year Dr. Langdon suffered a brain hemorrhage which proved fatal. He died May 13, 1876.

Henry A. Langdon enlisted 25 Aug. 1862 in the Union Army as an Assistant Surgeon in Company S, 79th Infantry Regiment Ohio. He was promoted to Full Surgeon on 5 Feb. 1863, and mustered out of the same outfit on 9 June 1865 in Washington, D.C.

In 1870 Henry A. Langdon, 31, a physician born in Ohio with real and personal estates valued at $16,000 and $500, respectively, resided in Columbia, Spencer Twp., Hamilton Co., Ohio, with Emeline, 22, born in Ohio, and with Charles, 1, male, born in Ohio. Apparently Charles was misidentified as the daughter Clara born 1869 who died 1874 (see below). Also in the household was a black domestic servant, Kesiah Bonner, 25, born in Virginia, and a minister, Daniel Jones, 25, born in Ohio, and also a Charles Jones, 14, born in Ohio.^[290]

A modern memorial to Dr. Langdon is described in this news item from an online Cincinnati newspaper, dated 18 Mar. 2001:

Sharonville—An unusual garden club is taking root at Historic Southwest Ohio Inc.'s Heritage Village Museum in Sharon Woods.

The mission of the Heritage Museum Garden Club is to “create garden landscapes that complement the 12 historic buildings in the village — all built between 1804 and 1870,” said Mary Wiseman, curator of grounds for the village museum. . . .

The group envisions a medicinal herb and plant garden to complement the 1857 home and office of Dr. Henry Langdon, which was moved to the village from its original East End site; and a dye garden featuring plants used in the 1800s to dye wool, fabrics and plant fibers such as flax.

Another online newspaper, of 10–16 May 2001, briefly describes another memorial to him:

Heritage Village Museum—The Civil War Medical Exhibit, “This Won’t Hurt Much,” is a fascinating array of Civil War medical items; including a 1862 Smith & Wesson revolver and many of the medicinal bottles used by Dr. Henry Archer Langdon.

217. J. BLANCHE⁴ CORBLY (₄₆*Stephen Davis³ Corbly, Margaret², Bethuel¹*) was born 4 July 1861 (gravestone), Ohio, died 17 Feb. 1885, and was buried in the Mt. Washington Cem., Anderson Twp., Hamilton Co., Ohio. She married 3 Jan. 1883, Hamilton Co., AARON WILBUR COLTER, who was born 30 Oct. 1859 (history) or Oct. 1861 (1900 census), Cincinnati, Hamilton Co., Ohio, son of Aaron A. and Margaret (Burdal) Colter.

An 1894 history of Cincinnati and Hamilton Co., Ohio, states:

Aaron A. Colter was a native of Ohio. In 1849 he went to California, and met with good success in his operations there. Upon his return he embarked in the wholesale grocery business in Cincinnati, and also established the well-known canning factory at Mt. Washington, with which he was actively connected until his death, in 1880. His first wife was the daughter of Samuel Burdsal, the first druggist in Cincinnati, and they were the parents of six children: Martha, wife of Dr. A. J. Miles, of Cincinnati; Josephine, wife of J. A. Rule, of Mt. Washington; Mary F.; Cora; Aaron Wilber, and Leroy S. By his second marriage two children were born: George D., of Cincinnati, and Robert C., a bookkeeper in St. Louis.

Aaron Wilber Colter received his education in the public schools of Mt. Washington, and at Chickering Institute, Cincinnati. He began his business career as a grocer, but since the death of his father has owned and managed the canning factory at Mt. Washington, and greatly enlarged its facilities and business. On January 3, 1883, Mr. Colter married Blanche Corbely, who died in 1885 leaving one daughter, Julia M. In December 1888, he married, for his second wife, Mary Mounts, of Toledo, Ohio, and to this union two children have been born: Rebekah and Maurice Wilber.

Washington Cem., Anderson Twp., Hamilton Co., Ohio. She married 19 Dec. 1866, near New Richmond, Clermont Co., Ohio, WILLIAM A. WATKINS, who was born 3 June 1837, New Richmond, Clermont Co., Ohio, died 4 Jan. 1903, Cincinnati, Hamilton Co., and was buried 7 Jan. 1903 in Mt. Washington Cem.

An 1894 history of the Cincinnati area contains the following brief history of Louisa's husband, W. A. Watkins:

His father was a native of New Jersey, his mother of Ohio; they were both of English descent. . . . The father was a pork-packer and dry-goods merchant, and the son worked with him in the store until the breaking out of the Civil war. He promptly entered the service, and was commissioned captain of Company G, Fifty-ninth O. V. I. At the close of his service, he returned home and commenced business as a tobacco manufacturer, which he followed for three years. He then engaged in the coal business, conducting same three years at the same time handling grain, coal and supplies for The Roberts & Mores Distillery, of New Richmond, Ohio. Since quitting the foregoing branches of trade Mr. Watkins has conducted an undertaking establishment in connection with the livery business in Cincinnati for the past twenty years. He has been twice married, first time, in 1858, to Cornelia D. Walker, who died in 1863, leaving two children, Fannie and William C. His second wife was Miss Louise, daughter of J. R. Corbly, of Clermont county, Ohio, and the issue has been three children: Frank, Nellie, and Lewis.

In 1870 "W^m" A. Watkins, 33, a coal merchant born in Ohio with real and personal estates worth $5,000 and $3,000, respectively, resided in Amelia, Ohio Twp., Clermont Co., Ohio, with Louie, 24, born in Ohio,

On 14 June 1894 William A. Watkins of Cincinnati, Hamilton Co., Ohio, applied for a Civil War invalid's pension for his service as a captain in Company G, 59th Ohio Infantry, Union Army, enlisted 2 Oct. 1861, discharged 11 July 1862.

In 1900 William A. Watkins, 62 [63 crossed out], an undertaker born June 1837 in Ohio of Pennsylvania natives, resided in Cincinnati, Hamilton Co., Ohio, with his wife, Louisa E., 54, born May 1846 in Ohio of Ohio natives. There are several errors in this item. William was listed as married 20 years [perhaps overwriting a 30], and Louisa had been married 30 years, making her marriage about 1870 which postdated the births of two of her children. Louisa had had three children, with two surviving. In the household were William's daughter, "Fanny," 52, born Mar. 1848 in Ohio, and son, Albert L., 24, an undertaking clerk born Feb. 1866 [sic] in Ohio.^[303]

On 4 Mar. 1903, in Ohio, "Louie" E. Watkins applied for Civil War widow's pension, and it was granted, for the service of William A. Watkins. At Louie's deposition on 26 Feb. 1903, Margret R. Corbly witnessed the document.

He married 1, 3, or 11 Dec. 1866, Shawneetown, Gallatin Co., Ill., NARCISSUS SPILLMAN, who was born 1 Oct. 1851 (pension application), 3 Oct. 1851 (Bible), or Oct. 1852 (1900 census), Boonville, Warrick Co., Ind., and died 1 Apr. 1932.

Constantine S. Webb received, on 23 May 1865, a certificate qualifying him as “a suitable and safe person to be entrusted with the power and duties of second engineer of Steamboats, and do license him to act as such for one year from this date, on the following waters, to wit: all navigable waters and their tributaries flowing into the Gulf of Mexico.”

In 1870 Constantine S. Webb, 38, an engineer born in Ohio with real and personal estates valued at $300 and $100, respectively, resided in Boonville, Warrick Co., Ind., with Narcissus, 18, born in Indiana, and “Liland” A., 1, a male born in Indiana.^[306]

In 1880 C. S. Webb, 50, a constable born in Ohio of Ohio natives, resided in Boon Twp., Warrick Co., Ind., with his wife, “Narsisia,” 26, born in Indiana of a father born in Virginia and a mother in Indiana, and with Leonard, 11, Emma B., 8, and Ferdinand, 4, all three born in Indiana. Widow Narcissus Webb applied 8 Sept. 1923, from Boonville, Warrick Co., Ind., for a pension based on the service in the Civil War of Constantine S. Webb in Company G of the 1st Indiana Cavalry. The application was rejected for lack of evidence of such service. She and her son, Albert, tried for several years to have the pension granted, invoking several different Indiana members of the House of Representatives to make their case. The Webbs eventually dropped the claim of service in the Indiana Cavalry and claimed instead that Constantine "was in the Government Service as an Assistant Engineer on a steam boat on the Ohio river, and served through the Civil War in that capacity and was also a secret service man for the Government of the United States." He entered as a private and was discharged as a sergeant. He received an invalid's pension, and his wife, Mary T. Webb, a widow's pension.

Leonard had great difficulty in obtaining his Civil War pension, as evidenced by his NARA file, which is one-and-a-half inches thick. A letter dated 29 Sept. 1894 by special examiner R. L. Nall found Leonard's disability claim without merit. But Congressman A. H. Taylor came to his aid and officially urged resolution of Leonard's claim, which may have had quite a lot to do with its finally being decided in his favor. On the back of the official Congressional form is the note, "[the matter of Leonard A. Webb] was reported on by Examiner Nall who assured me the claim was good in every respect" (!). A letter of 2 Jan. 1895 to Leonard stated that "in response to the personal request of Hon. A. H. Taylor, you are advised that your pension claim . . . is now in the hands of a Special Examiner."

In 1870 A. from Ohio to Boonville, Ind., making that their home for nearly two years, when they emigrated to Iowa, locating in Mt. Pleasant, Henry County. The early life of our subject was spent in that city, where he took a complete course in Howe's Academy and a partial course in the Wesleyan University, after which he engaged in teaching for some time in that vicinity, and also at Salem, in the same county. At the age of twenty-one Mr. Millspaugh came to Burlington, where he secured the position of Principal of the South Hill School for four years, when, his health failing, he traveled for the two succeeding years, and upon his return again engaged in teaching, studying law in the meantime. Being admitted to the bar in 1876, he then formed a partnership with C. L. Poor, but in 1880 removed with his family to Winfield, Kan., there continuing in the practice of his chosen profession. In that State he was very successful, but, during his short stay, was soon taken sick, and died Sept. 26, 1880.

On 12 Jan. 1881, Albert's father, John W. Millspaugh posted a bond of $3,000 and was appointed administrator of the estate of Albert E. Millspaugh, deceased, with his widow, Irene, waiving her right to do so. John swore to the death of Albert on 26 Sept. 1881 (clearly an error for 1880), Cowley Co., Kans., and listed Albert's heirs as his widow, Irene M. Millspaugh, son, Shelly, 12, and daughters, Crissie, 8, Hattie, 5, and Grace, 3, all five of Burlington, Iowa.

In 1900 "Mrs." Millspaugh, a widow, and her daughter, Crissie, single, were listed in Burlington, Des Moines Co., Iowa, but with no details. Instead there was this note: "Out of City for three weeks. Left June 6." Enumeration occurred on 15 June.^[333] The next record explains Irene's whereabouts, but not Crissie's.

In 1900 Irene Millspaugh, 53, a widow born Feb. 1847 in Indiana of a father born in Indiana and a mother in Ohio, resided in the household of her son-in-law, Walter Riggs, 23, and his wife, Grace, in Oscaloosa, Mahaska Co., Iowa (q.v.). She had had four [sic] children, with four surviving.^[334]

His mother was a native of Wales. Isaac N. came to Burlington with his parents in 1840, was brought up on a farm and educated at the public schools, and when fifteen years of age engaged in teaching school, but taught only one year. When seventeen years of age he engaged with J. W. & W. D. Gilbert, lumber dealers, as clerk and salesman. In 1866 he bought an interest in the business, but sold out to his partners the following year, but continued with the firm, which had become Gilbert, Hedge & Co., until 1879 as book-keeper, and served at times on outside business. While with this company he was dealing extensively in real estate, erecting buildings and speculating. Since 1879 he has devoted his attention to the care of his property and private business. He is now proprietor of twenty dwellings and three stores in the city of Burlington. He also owns farming lands in Kansas, Nebraska and Illinois, aggregating about 750 acres. . . .

While he has never been an office seeker, he has served five terms as a member of the City Council of Burlington. He was a prominent candidate for the Burlington postoffice at the time the present incumbent was appointed. . . . [He] served five years on the School Board, and was instrumental in locating the West Madison school building, and during his time of office some of the other fine city school buildings were erected.

In 1880 a Frank Millspaugh, “(24),” a farmer born in Minnesota of New York natives, resided in Ninnescah Twp., Cowley Co., Kans., with his wife, Fanny, 19, born in Nebraska of Illinois natives.^[345] There is just enough wrong with this entry to bring Frank’s identity into question. He was born in Indiana, not Minnesota, his mother was born in Ohio, not New York, and nothing of Fannie is known. However, he had the right name, was about the right age, had the right nativity of the father, and resided in about the right place. Ninnescah Twp. abuts Vernon Twp., which contains part of the city of Winfield.

In 1900 John Millspaugh, 45, a farmer born Nov. 1854 in Indiana of a father born in New York and a mother in Ohio, resided in Lincoln Twp., Woods Co. Nelson and family came to Texas in a wagon train so long that those in the middle wagons could not see either end of the caravan. When the wagon train circled for the night and placed stock and people inside the circle for protection against Indians, it made a fortress of some magnitude. He settled in Sherman, Grayson County, for ten years, coming to Coleman County in November, 1882, where he settled on a place seven miles from Coleman, living there until his death. . . .

Nelson bought his first 160 acres of land for $1.50 an acre and Hords Creek runs through the length of the place[.] He later bought more land that joined his first purchased land.

married a young woman. She died giving birth to his son, who also died, both buried in Grayson County. He later met and married Sarah Elizabeth Webb, December 17, 1881

In early 1883, Sarah (Betty) and Josiah (Si) Smith came by covered wagon to Coleman County. They drove a pair of horses to the wagon, named George and Eagle. They had a dog named Shep. Guilford, Betty's brother, came with them. They lived in a small house near the Nelson Jameson place. Sally Jameson and Betty Smith were first cousins; their fathers were brothers The girls loved one another like sisters, as they had lived together during the Civil War while their fathers were gone to war in Mississippi. . . .

Josiah bought some land about nine miles west of Coleman. He built a one room temporary house under a huge oak tree, living there until Ruby was about six months old. The tree still stands and is in Friendship Park at Hords Creek Lake. The one room structure was about ½ mile southwest of where the present house stands. He looked around for a good place to dig a well and built a house, selecting a place surrounded by about a dozen huge liveoak trees and dug a forty foot well by hand. He lined it with rocks about twenty feet down and about five feet above the ground but it was not a strong well. After he built the house, he added a system of gutters on the roof, under the house and underground and in rainy times the well was filled with fresh rainwater. He built a two room house with a huge fireplace; the small kitchen on the west side. Not far from the well, he dug a storm cellar and built a smokehouse. When we tore down the old smokehouse, we discovered it had been built with square nails.

He married (1) 5 Feb. 1885, Grayson Co., EUGENIA BROOKS, who was born 24 Nov. 1867 (gravestone), daughter of W. J. Brooks, and died 30 Jan. 1896, and was buried in West Hill Cem. The following is a published biography of Guilford from 1906:

Hon. Guilford P. Webb, county judge of Grayson county in his second term of service, for the past fifteen years a representative of the legal profession, most of the time as a successful lawyer in Grayson county, is a native son of the Lone Star state and was born in Mantua, Collin county, March 7, 1861. His parents were W. H. and Jemima A. (Spearman) Webb, and his father is a Missourian by birth and is now a resident of Coleman county, this state. He [W. H.] served throughout the Civil war as a Confederate soldier, and his lifelong occupation has been farming and stock-raising, in which he is still engaged. Judge Webb's mother was born in Tennessee, and came to Texas in 1854, being married to W. H. Webb in Grayson county, where for several years previous she had been engaged in teaching. She died at the old home in this county in 1874, and one of her family of children four are still living. Guilford being the only son.

Judge Webb was reared to manhood on the parental farm in Grayson county, where he also gained his preliminary education. He was educated at Savoy College in Fannin county, having completed his education from that well known institution in 1883, and then for the following five years was engaged in teaching school. With a berth in the legal profession as the goal of his ambition, he became a law student under the tutorship of Captain Jim Woods, the well known Sherman jurist, and was admitted to the bar in 1889. Since that year his time and talents have been fully drawn upon either in private practice or in the duties of public office. The first four years of his practice were passed in western Texas, and since then he had had his office in Sherman.

During his career as a teacher in this county he was appointed the first superintendent of public instruction in Grayson county, just after the adoption of the law authorizing that office. In 1896 he was elected city attorney of Sherman, and filled that office four years. In 1902 he became candidate for the county judgeship and was chosen that year and re-elected in 1904, this being an office for which his broad experience with men and his judicial mind well fit him.

Judge Webb has been interested in practical and theoretical politics ever since attaining manhood, and for the greater part of his active career has been a worker for the cause of good government and progressive local and national policies. While a resident of Coleman county he served as county chairman of the executive committee, and in that capacity and as a staunch believer in conservative Democracy he assisted in defeating the strong Populist movement in western Texas. For a number of years he has been a regular campaign speaker for the Democracy in state and national politics, and his tract, his personality, his sincere convictions, and his persuasive ability make him both popular and influential in this cause.

Barbara Helm Smith has been able to provide little information regarding the life of John W. Riggs, son of Stephen and Lucretia (Sparks) Riggs, born in 1856. . . . He seems to have led a rather unconventional life according to two stories she has shared with us.

Here is some information about John W. Riggs which was told to me by Joe Helm, a grandson of Lucretia Jane (Riggs) Helm. Joe Helm's family (Frank, Essie, Joe, and Bill) took a trip to Tularosa, New Mexico, when he was a young boy, about 1932. They visited with his grand-uncle, John W. Riggs, who was camped out on a river near Carlsbad, New Mexico. Joe advised that John W. Riggs later operated a livery stable on the Pecos Highway southeast of Carlsbad. Joe stated that John had only one leg, and he was referred to as "Peg Leg Riggs" by some people.

Nancy Bible told me that Lucretia Jane (Riggs) Helm visited her brother, John W. Riggs, while he lived in New Mexico. He lived in a house with dirt floors. Jennie related that a rug covered the dirt floor, and while she was visiting John, and he was away for a short time, Jennie decided to take up the rug and take it outside to shake it. When she took up the rug, Jennie got the shock of her life. There was a human skeleton partially exposed in the dirt. Jennie was so frightened that she stayed outside until John returned, at which time she told him what she had found.

John explained that the skeleton had been there a long time and had originally been buried deeper. Wear and sweeping the dirt had exposed the skeleton. John said to Jennie: "Now Jennie, that man has been buried there for a long time; no need to worry; just leave him to rest." John returned the rug to the inside of the house, covered up the skeleton, and that was the end of the story. We believe that John W. Riggs died near Carlsbad, New Mexico.

Lucretia Jane ["Jennie"]⁴ (Riggs) Helm was John's sister (see below), and Joe⁶ Helm was a grandson of hers. Nancy (Helms) Smith was perhaps another

In 1920 a John W. Riggs, 67, a farmer born in Arkansas of Arkansas natives, resided in Prairieview, Lea Co. (next to Eddy Co. and three counties east of Lynn Co., Tex.), N.M., with his wife, Varilla, 49, born in Texas of Louisiana natives, and with six daughters all born in Texas: Gladys, 21, Elizabeth C., 16, Eunice A., 13, Ala May, 11, Dovie K., 8, and Josie P., 6.^[439] His age and name are a match, but the Arkansas nativities do not fit.

In 1930 John R. [sic] Riggs, 70, a watchman over oil wells, a widower born in Texas of Texas natives, resided in Carlsbad, Eddy Co., N.M., as a "friend" in household of John B. Cantrell, 65, born in Tennessee, and his wife, Katie R., 48, born in Texas.^[440] born in Texas. (The parental nativities are ditto marks in all cases, surely an error, since the marks indicate a father born in New York and a mother in Virginia, even for son James, for which these are obviously impossible.) Next door was J. N. Helm, 69, born in Tennessee of South Carolina natives, the father of James G., with wife, Mary, 39, born in Illinois, who might not be the mother. James was described as son, presumably of J. N., and Jinnie as “daughter” of J. N., but James and Jinnie were marked as married.^[441] The census taker obviously miscopied the information.

In 1900 James G. Helm, 42, a farmer born Mar. 1852 [sic] in Illinois of Tennessee natives, resided in Reno, Parker Co., Tex., with his wife of 21 years, Jane R., 39, born Dec. 1860 in Texas of Texas natives. She had had 11 children, with 10 surviving, nine of them in the household, all born in Texas: sons, John N. and William N., 18, both born Dec. 1881, and Harry and Harvey, 16, both born Dec. 1883, daughter, Rosetta, 13, born Dec. 1886, and sons, Frank, 11, born Mar. 1889, Stonewall, 7, born Feb. 1893, Joseph, 4, born Jan. 1896, and Walter, 1, born Oct. 1898. Also in the household was a laborer, Thomas Rayall, 18, born July 1881 in Texas of Texas natives.^[442]

343. WILLIAM [“BILL”] NATHANIEL⁴ RIGGS (₇₈*Nathaniel³, Nathaniel², Bethuel¹*) was born 8 Feb. 1882, Pahreah, Kane Co., Utah Terr., died 11 Dec. 1944, Daggett Co., Utah, aged 62, and was buried 13 Dec. 1944 in the Manila Cem., Manila, Daggett Co., Utah. He married (1) 30 June 1919, Linwood, Daggett Co., ELIZABETH [“BESSIE”] MARIE OLSON, who was born 3 Dec. 1897, Perth Amboy, Middlesex Co., N.J., daughter of Peter and Marie (Jenson) Olson, and died 9 May 1926, and was also buried in the Manila Cem., next to Bill. Bessie came to Linwood, Uintah (now Daggett) Co., Utah, with the Keith Smith family when she was about 3 years old.

Bill married (2) 15 Jan. 1929, Manila, EDITH EDNA DECK, who was born 11 July 1910, North Platte, Lincoln Co., Nebr., daughter of Henry Percy and Hannah Mariah (Nelson) Deck, and died 22 Sept. 1988, aged 77, last residence in Kearney, Buffalo Co., Nebr., and was buried 26 Sept. 1988 in the Kearney Cem.

Edith married, second, 11 July 1947, Kearney, Fred Yendra, who was born 2 May 1914, Gibbon, Buffalo Co., Nebr., died 8 Mar. 2003, Gibbon, aged 88. Edith was his second wife. She had two children by this marriage: (1) Judy Yendra, who married Michael Montgomery; and (2) Robert [“Bobby”] Yendra.

On 12 Sept. 1918 William Nathaniel Riggs, 36, born 8 Feb. 1882, Pahreah, Kane Co., Utah Terr., registered for the draft in Uintah Co., Utah. He was a farmer employed in Manila, Daggett Co., Utah, and his nearest relative was his mother, Laura Riggs, of Manila.

In 1920 William Riggs, 37, a farmer born in Utah Terr. of Utah Terr. natives, resided in Manila Precinct, Daggett Co., Utah, with his wife,

THE FAMILY OF ELDER BETHUEL RIGGS

Elizabeth, 23, born in New Jersey of Danish-born parents. The family of Franklin Twitchell, 52, born in Utah Terr., was next door.^[451]

In 1930 William N. Riggs, 48, a mail carrier in the postal service born in Arizona Terr. [sic] of U.S.-born parents, resided in Manila Precinct, Daggett Co., Utah, with his wife, Edith, 19, born in Nebraska of a father born in Illinois and a mother in Nebraska, and his son, Peter W., 9, and daughter, Ruth, 8, both born in Utah, stepdaughter, Pearl E., 7, [the ditto mark under Riggs has Deck written above it, but ambiguously], born in Utah of a father born in Arizona Terr. and a mother in Nebraska (as were the parents of all children in this household), and daughters, "May" E., 1, born in Wyoming, and Dolores D., 2/12, born in Utah. William first married at age 37, and Edith at 18.^[452]

Stepdaughter Pearl E. Deck was probably a census mistake. Descendants state that Pearl was a daughter and May was a stepdaughter. This is consistent with May's being the only child born in Wyoming. Perhaps the confusion is because Edith had a sister-in-law named Pearl E. Deck, wife of her brother, Wayne Deck.

An obituary for William Nathaniel Riggs, 62, in a Green River, Sweetwater Co., Wyo., newspaper of 1944, stated that "Mr. Riggs was a real pioneer of eastern Utah, having lived there since his boyhood, and having been a resident of what is now Daggett county for 51 years. He was born Feb. 8, 1882, at Paris (Paria), Utah, and had moved to the Lucerne valley vicinity when only 11 years old." It mentioned that his wife, Edith, survived him, as did nine children: Delores, Susan, Lila, Warren, and Larry, all of Manila, Pete Riggs, serving in France, Pearl, in Los Angeles, and Ruth and Evelyn, residing in Green River.

An obituary for daughter Lila "Faye" Schmidt, dated 26 Nov. 2001, Hastings, Adams Co., Nebr., mentioned her parents, William Nathaniel and Edith Edna (Deck) Riggs, her son, Dale, her daughters, Karen Lee, Lori Wagner, and Faye Cherry, two brothers, Warren, and Larry Dean, her sisters Evelyn Narramore, Susan Oppermann, and Judy Montgomery, and eight (unnamed) grandchildren. It also stated that she was preceded in death by two brothers and three sisters. Fred Yendra's obituary of 23 Mar. 2003, mentioned daughter, Judy Montgomery, stepsons, Warren Riggs and Larry Riggs, stepdaughters, Susan Oppermann and Evelyn Narramore as survivors, and two stepdaughters preceding him in death.

A memorial book prepared for the funeral service of William Nathaniel Riggs lists these "relatives attending": Mrs. Norman Walter, Mrs. Hannah Warby, Gerald Warby, Mr. Glen Les Warby, Delores D. Riggs, Lila Fay Riggs, Evelyn M. Riggs, Edith Riggs, Susan A. Riggs, Ruth Riggs, Mrs. Wayne Deck, Mrs. Ina Crosly [sic], Ernst Crosly, Warren L. Riggs, Lois Siler, Ross Siler, Myrtle and Emily Siler, Elsie McCune and Mary Bickford.

There is a James Clarence Riggs, born 1934, died 1939, in the Manila Cem., who was probably a child or a grandchild of one brother or the other.

Co., Ariz. Terr., PEARL CRAIG, who was born about 1885, Arizona Terr. They divorced 7 Oct. 1911, Graham Co. He married (2) 4 Nov. 1911, Solomonville, Graham Co., LYDIA PRISCILLA HAMPTON, who was born about 1886, Arizona Terr.

Pearl Craig, who reverted to her maiden name, married, second, 12 Oct. 1911, Graham Co., Ariz. Terr., Albert Ellsworth Moyer, who was born 23 Feb. 1878 (calculated), Findley, Hancock Co., Ohio, died 15 Apr. 1927, St. Mary's Hospital, Tucson, Pima Co., Ariz., and was buried 17 Apr. 1927, Safford, Graham Co. Albert raised the children from Pearl's first marriage, but there is no record of his adopting them. They used his surname, however. Pearl and Albert had several children, including (1) Jacob Albert Moyer, born 25 May 1911 (calculated), Arizona Terr., died 29 Sept. 1914, aged 3 years 4 months 4 days; (2) Ruth Edna Moyer, born 28 Nov. 1917, Willcox, Cochise Co., Ariz.; (3) Bassine James Moyer, born 29 Jan. 1923, Willcox; and (4) Kli[ne?] Craig Moyer, born 22 June 1926, Willcox.

In 1910 William L. Boren, 28, a farmer born in Utah Terr. of Utah Terr. natives, resided in Pima, Graham Co., Ariz. Terr., with his wife of eight years, Pearl, 25, born in Arizona Terr. of Utah Terr. natives. She had had three children, and all three survived and were resident in the household: daughter, Lola, 7, and sons, "Spencer W.," 6, and James A., 3, all three born in Arizona Terr.^[466]

William Boren filed a formal complaint sometime late in 1910 or early in 1911 in the district court of the Fifth Judicial District of the Terr. of Ariz., Graham Co., that Pearl Boren, his wife since 20 June 1901, had "without just cause during the year 1907 and ever since has and now does continue to live separate and apart," and furthermore that she "did, on or about the 10th day of Sept., 1910 at a place unknown to the plaintiff, commit adultery with one Bert Moyer." He asked for a divorce and custody of the three children, Lola, 9, William Spencer, 7, and Afton, 5. Both of these requests were granted on 7 Oct. 1911 in the divorce decree.

466. U.S. census, 1910, Pima Town, Graham Co., Ariz., ED 49, r. 39, p. 188, sh. 12B, dw. 292, fam. 302.

Pearl then organized a new life, by marrying Albert Moyer and settling in a home with the availability of a school. She then petitioned the court on 4 Apr. 1912 to regain custody of the children. She explained that her new husband was “a resident of Prescott, Yavapai County, State of Ariz.; that her husband is a hard working, sober and industrious man; that he has a good salary with permanent employment; that he is able and willing to care for, and provide for the children.” Furthermore, she pointed out, William Boren, the plaintiff, “has intermarried with a woman who has two children by a former marriage; that the said plaintiff has moved with his family upon a Ranch in Graham County, Ariz. near Ft. Thomas, that is largely unimproved; that upon such Ranch it is impossible for the said plaintiff to properly care for his wife with her two children and his three children.”

In this same petition Pearl recounted her attempt to visit her children, as provided in the custody agreement, some time in Mar. 1912, only to be confronted by William Boren who “threatened her with a revolver.” The court responded on 6 Apr. 1912 with a citation and ordered William to appear in court to answer the charge. Whether he responded is not known, but presumably he did. On 20 Apr. 1912, he formally answered Pearl’s request for custody, saying he “was an entirely innocent party in the breaking up and disruption of the home and family of himself and wife. That he bore troubles, legal entanglement and other difficulties for a long time and endeavored to get defendant not to break up the family and home and that defendant persisted therein, ran away from home and deserted her children because of her wrongful love for her present husband.”

In the ongoing drama, Pearl petitioned the court. In a petition dated 6 July 1912 she again reported a failed attempt to visit the children on 16 June 1912, claiming “she was not permitted by the plaintiff to enter his house, but was refused admittance; that the plaintiff at that time used toward the defendant, all sort of indecent and opprobrious language, and ordered her to leave the premises; that the plaintiff, while cursing and swearing at your Petitioner, threatened to kill her.” She asked that William be cited for contempt of court and that she be granted custody of the children.

On 12 Sept. 1912 William's second wife, Lydia, gave birth to a "first child," an unnamed daughter. "Wm" L. Boren, 33 [sic], a farmer born in Utah Terr., and Lydia P. Webb, 29 [sic], born in Arizona Terr., the child's parents, resided in Cork, Graham Co., Ariz. The designation "first child" cannot be right since Lydia came to the marriage with Boren with two children from her previous marriage. What became of her first two children is unknown.

Pearl petitioned the court on 11 Mar. 1913, again claiming threats by William, this time with a "rifle or shot gun" when she attempted to visit the children. She also reported that the children had twice run away from William's home to her home in Pima, Ariz. Apparently this plea did the trick, because William stipulated that Pearl get custody, and on 19 Mar. 1913, she was finally granted custody of the three children.

On 18 Mar. 1918 at the birth of Lydia's fifth child, Ilean Boren, "Wm" Lee Boren, 35 [sic], a farmer born in Utah Terr., and Lydia Priscilla Webb, 33 [sic], born in Arizona Terr., the child's parents, resided in Cork, Pima District, Graham Co., Ariz. It is assumed that the five children included the two from Lydia's previous marriage.

In 1920 William "M." Boren, 39, a farmer born in Utah Terr. of Utah Terr. natives, resided in Redland Precinct, Graham Co., Ariz., with his wife, Lydia, 34, born in Arizona Terr. of Nevada natives, and with his daughter, Thelma, 7, son, Lee, 5, and daughter, Ilean, 2 [?]/12, all three born in Arizona. Nearby were Charles Boren and his family.¹⁴⁶⁷
